

1st Reading

Genesis 15:5-12. 17-18

The Lord establishes a covenant with Abraham.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 27.1, 7-8, 9, 13-14 (R.1a)

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

2nd Reading

Philippians 3:17 – 4:1

Our citizenship is in heaven.

Gospel Acclamation Verse

Luke 9.35

From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard: This is my beloved Son, hear him.

Gospel

Luke 9:28-36

Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James and John.

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Like Peter, James and John, we, too, sometimes have mountaintop experiences. It is easy to pray at those times—to praise God or just sit in quiet meditation. In those brief, personal encounters with the divine, our prayers can become deeply private and powerful. However, as this Scripture reminds us, we can't stay on the mountain.

More common are our valley experiences with prayer: times when we are plugged into every distraction around us, and God feels an eternity away. Spiritual masters tell us that those prayers that seem empty and monotonous can be even more valuable than a mountaintop experience.

Those same masters remind us that while alone time with God is valuable, often Christians pray best together. Christians are not theists who believe in a totally personal, one-on-one relationship with God. We are a covenant people who believe that together we are the body of Christ. We believe in the Incarnation—

God is with us and in us. We don't have to go to mountaintops or valleys to encounter God, because we find God all around us in everyone we meet.

We find God in other people, in our parish church and in our homes. This is why communal and family prayer is so important. Every Sunday, we gather to pray together with our parish family. And so it should be with our immediate family. Choose a prayer space in your home, and gather on a regular basis. You may be surprised to find how this not-so-quiet family time can provide transfiguring moments when a kitchen or living room can seem like a mountaintop.

PERSONAL RESPONSE:

Are you comfortable praying with others? With whom do you pray? How often?

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

"God loves us. May we discover the beauty of loving and being loved."

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office or complete the Pastoral Care for the Homebound form available in the foyer.

REFLECTION

Scriptural Context – Gospel Parallels

The account of the Transfiguration appears in all three synoptic gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke). The word, synoptic, means ‘seen together’ and these three gospels can be seen together because they have so much material in common. It is now accepted that the gospel of Mark was the first written as so much of it appears in the other two, while the gospels of Matthew and Luke both seem to have also drawn on another source of Jesus material (known as the ‘Q’ source). Despite the parallels, each writer uses the same story to convey the particular message of that gospel.

Living the Gospel – ‘Listen to him!’

God’s voice from the cloud claims Jesus as his Son, the Chosen One and then goes on to instruct those present – and we, the readers – to ‘Listen to him!’ For the disciples, this was a message not to get carried away with their own ideas about the Messiah but to listen to what Jesus was saying about the suffering he must endure and to what he was saying about true discipleship. Jesus tells us that to be a follower of his involves sacrifice, hardship and often unpopularity. It is this message we must listen to as much as the promise of salvation.

Gospel Focus – Asleep again?

It seems that at crucial points in the gospel where Jesus’ true identity and mission are revealed, the disciples are falling asleep! The gospel of Luke is unique in suggesting that the disciples were sleepy at the Transfiguration. They managed to fight off sleep in this instance, but were fast asleep at the Mount of Olives as Jesus prayed in agony. The sleepiness of the disciples at these crucial times is indicative of limited grasp of what Jesus is on about. They are wearied by all that he asks of them, rather than energised by it, and consequently they’re not ready to witness great events when they come along.

Questions for Adults

What message did the Transfiguration hold for the three disciples who witnessed it? What message does the event hold for us today? Why does it seem important for the gospel writer to specify that Peter did not know what he was saying? Why might this passage be selected for use during the Lenten season?

PARISH NEWS AND EVENTS

The Voice From The Pews

Are you interested to share your faith experiences, God-moments or reflections that may help others to grow in their faith! Feeling inspired to inspire others then write your name down on the sign-on sheet in the foyer. The sharing can be in the form of an essay around 300 words, a prayer or a poem. Sign-up sheet available in the foyer.

Safeguarding Superheroes

Ensuring a safe environment for young people is an essential requirement of any ministry initiative. In collaboration with the Office for Safeguarding & Professional Standards, we will aim to build the capacity of youth and adults to create, promote and sustain, safe youth ministry and equip them for a role as volunteer safeguarding officer in their parish or movement. Thursday 28 March, 6:30-9pm at NOVOTEL Hotel, Norwest. For more info, click on: <https://parracatholic.org/cyp-keeping-our-young-people-safe/>

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

“God has promised forgiveness to your repentance, but He has not promised tomorrow to your procrastination.”

St Augustine of Hippo
354-430 AD

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT JOSEPH

Patron Saint of families, fathers, expectant mothers, workers and carpenters

Feast Day : 19TH March

St Joseph, who descended from a royal lineage, was born in Bethlehem in 90 BC, and died in Nazareth, in 18 AD. Scripture tells us that he was a carpenter, the husband of Mary, and the foster father of Jesus.

Joseph was a compassionate, caring man. When he discovered Mary was pregnant after they had been betrothed, he knew the child was not his but was as yet unaware that she was carrying the Son of God. He knew women accused of adultery could be stoned to death, so he resolved to send her away quietly to not expose her to shame or cruelty. However, when an angel came to Joseph in a dream and told him, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins," he did as the angel told him and took Mary as his wife. (Matthew 1:19-25).

Joseph loved Jesus and his one concern was for his safety. When the angel came again to tell him that his family was in danger, he immediately fled to Egypt with Mary and Jesus, and waited there until the angel told him it was safe to go back (Matthew 2:13-23).

Since Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Joseph probably had died before Jesus entered public ministry.

ON A LIGHTER NOTE

Mary Clancy goes up to Father O'Grady after his Sunday morning service, and she's in tears.

He says, 'So what's bothering you, Mary my dear?'

She says, 'Oh, Father, I've got terrible news. My husband passed away last night.'

The priest says, 'Oh, Mary, that's terrible. Tell me, Mary, did he have any last requests?'

She says, 'That he did, Father.'

The priest says, 'What did he ask, Mary?'

She says, 'He said, Please Mary, put down that gun....'

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Fill in the missing words for each of Jesus' teachings using the pictures as clues. Draw Jesus preaching.
