VOICE FROM THE PEWS

On Easter we celebrate that God's love conquered death and that Jesus is forever alive in the world. We rejoice in our freedom from the slavery of sin and the bondage of fear and anger that can lead us to sin. We rejoice in our own new life in Christ. Easter is an alleluia day. It is the greatest, biggest, most important feast day in every Christian's life, and it should be celebrated every day by every Christian.

Jesus came to our tiny planet to help us remember something that we had forgotten: We are children of God. Jesus is our brother not only on his mother's side, but on his Father's side, too. He shared our humanity to remind us that through him we share in his divinity.

Jesus died for this truth, rose in this truth and lives in this truth today, through each of us.

In baptism, we choose to live our lives in Christ as lovers, healers and peacemakers. There is no place for greed or prejudice. And as we grow into the divinity Christ shares with us, we become more and more freed from the slavery of fear and anger, self-righteousness and false pride. We grow away from sin and become the person God created us to be, using our unique gifts and talents to make a better world.

If we remember who we are and whose we are, our everyday lives take on new meaning. If we believe that we truly share in Christ's life, then we know that nothing can defeat us. Does this mean we won't suffer or get hurt? Of course not, but we know that no matter what we encounter, God's strength and courage are at our disposal. We are not alone.

What a message of hope in a world full of all sorts of hurtful things. Share this message with your family and friends, and celebrate your life in Christ. Celebrate Easter. Have a party!

REFLECTION

Historical Context – Mary Magdalene

Mary Magdalene, or Mary of Magdala, plays an important role in the gospel accounts of the resurrection. She was obviously a significant follower of Jesus, being named as a witness to the crucifixion, discovering the empty tomb and the first to encounter the risen Christ. One would think that she would hold a prestigious place in the Church, but for many years she was confused with another character identified in the gospels and was portrayed as a prostitute and sinner. Mary is named in each of the four gospels and not once is it indicated that she was a sinner or prostitute. She has been a victim of mistaken identity for 2000 years.

Gospel Focus – The disciple Jesus loved

In this week's gospel we see reference to a disciple as 'the one Jesus loved'. It is generally agreed that this disciple is John. There is some suggestion that the disciple, John, is in fact the John ascribed as the author of this gospel. If this is so, to describe himself as the disciple Jesus loved is merely a means of avoiding using a personal pronoun – I or me. Just as Jesus described himself as 'the Son of God' or 'the Son of Man' rather than say 'I', John uses the same convention to avoid naming himself. It is not to suggest that Jesus didn't love his other disciples.

Different View – An empty tomb

There are some writers who have questioned the historical accuracy of the empty tomb account of the resurrection. Some theologians and biblical scholars (e.g. members of the 'Jesus Seminar') argue that historically, it is far more likely that the victim of Roman crucifixion would be left to rot on the cross or buried in a shallow criminal's grave – not laid to rest in an expensive private tomb. However, they do not argue against resurrection. They maintain that Jesus' body was not 'resuscitated' or 'reanimated'. What happened to his corpse, they argue, is irrelevant to Christ's resurrection.

Questions for Adults

Why is the passion, death and resurrection central to Christian belief? What message do you take from the beloved disciple who 'saw and believed'. Does the significance of the Easter events receive proper recognition in society today? Why do you think the cross became the symbol of Christianity, rather than the empty tomb?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

MOTHER OF GOOD COUNSEL

Feast Day : 26th April

Mother of Good Counsel is a title given to the Blessed Virgin Mary after a painting said to be miraculous, was found in the thirteenth century Augustinian church at Genazzano, near Rome, Italy.

Measuring 40 x 45 cm, the image is a fresco on a layer of plaster no thicker than an egg shell. Over the centuries, devotions to Our Lady of Good Counsel grew among saints and Popes, to the extent that a reference to it was added to the Litany of Loreto and devotion spread throughout the world.

According to tradition, in the year 1467, in the midst of the festivities for the Feast of St Mark, the town folk suddenly heard "exquisite music." A mysterious cloud descended on an unfinished wall of the parish church, and after it dissipated, a beautiful fresco of the Virgin Mary and the Christ Child was revealed. It was widely believed that it had been miraculously transported from a church in Scutari, Albania.

In 1630, Pope Urban VIII on his visit to Genazzano, invoked the protection of the Queen of Heaven, as did Pope Pius IX in 1864. On 17th November, 1682, Pope Innocent XI had the picture solemnly crowned.

Art experts believe the fresco is likely the work of the early fifteenth century artist Gentile da Fabriano, probably painted around the time of Pope Martin V (1417-1431).

The Augustinian Order contributed to the spread of this devotion internationally. Through the years, various institutions in honour of Mary under the title of Our Lady of Good Counsel.

Her Feast is celebrated on April 26.
