We are a Pentecost people. Like the first disciples, we are gifted with the Holy Spirit so that we can share our faith with others. This is not always easy. Many of us were raised to believe that religion is a private matter. It can be difficult for us to talk about God or our faith. And yet, faith sharing, especially in families, is crucial.

We live in a culture that in many ways no longer supports Judeo-Christian values. More than ever, young people need to hear and see the people most important to them talking about and living the gospel message. If faith is going to be real in their lives, they need to see that faith is a reality in the lives of those closest to them.

Pentecost is the day the disciples were empowered by the Holy Spirit to leave the safe closure of the Upper Room, and share their faith with a city of strangers. Why not take the risk this week and share

FAMILY RESPONSE:

Read or retell the story of Pentecost to your family. Talk about how you would have felt if you were in the Upper Room, and invite other family members to do the same. Discuss the Holy Spirit in your life. How have you experienced the gifts of courage and understanding? When have you felt the Spirit's fruits of joy and peace?

PERSONAL RESPONSE:

Why God and your faith are important to you. Record or comment on what other family members have said.

*The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God.
We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.*

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

"The cross does not speak to us about defeat and failure; paradoxically, it speaks to us about a death which is life."

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. ## REFLECTION

Historical Context – Pentecost

The word Pentecost comes from the Greek for fiftieth day. Pentecost Sunday ends the season of Easter and comes as a Sabbath day after seven weeks of seven days. In Jewish tradition the 50th day after the Passover was celebrated as a blessing of the harvest and rather than the unleavened bread of Passover it was celebrated by leavening the bread. It was for this reason that the disciples were gathered together when they experienced the Holy Spirit empowering them. In Christian tradition, Pentecost is celebrated as the arrival of the Spirit, promised by Jesus, that animated the disciples to spread the gospel of Jesus and gather believers to form what would eventually become the Church.

Have you thought? – The Spirit

We can sometimes regard Pentecost as the day the Holy Spirit came into the world. However, the Spirit had long been active in the world before this event. In fact, even the second verse of Genesis Chapter 1 tells us that the Spirit hovered over the waters. The Old Testament is filled with references in which 'The Spirit of God came upon (him) with power' and the Spirit was evident at Jesus' baptism and throughout the gospels. Jesus is frequently described as being 'filled with the Spirit'. So, from the very beginning of creation the Spirit has moved in the world and continues to energise it today.

Living the Gospel – Come Holy Spirit

'Come, Holy Spirit', or its Latin, Veni Sante Spiritus, has become the basis of countless prayers and hymns over many hundreds of years. To this day, it remains a powerful invocation that can be used in prayer or meditation. Three simple words convey a wealth of meaning. The invitation for the Spirit to 'Come' indicates recognition of the need for the Spirit's intervention and openness to accept the guidance that the Spirit brings. It is a powerful, simple prayer that can be used at the outset of any significant undertaking or whenever you find yourself in need of inspiration.

Questions for Adults

What was different about Jesus breathing the Spirit on the disciples and the Pentecost experience? What was significant about the disciples being heard to speak in many different languages? Why might Pentecost sometimes be regarded as the birth of the Church? Have you ever had an experience of being aware of the Spirit's presence/action? Where in your life could you use the guidance and strength of the Spirit?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA

Patron Saint of Sailors and Travellers and Finder of Lost Articles
Feast Day : 13th June

Saint Anthony was born Fernando Martins in Lisbon, Portugal, on 15th August, 1195. At age 15 he entered the Abbey of Santa Cruz in Coimbra, the then capital of Portugal, where he learned Theology and Latin. After receiving permission to leave the Abbey, he joined the Franciscan Order and changed his name to Anthony.

He traveled to Morocco to preach the gospel, but became extremely sick and was returned to Portugal to recover, during which time he spent praying and studying. During a visit of some Dominican friars, Anthony delivered an eloquent and moving homily. News of his eloquence soon reached Francis of Assisi, and the two became close friends.

Anthony occasionally taught at the universities of Montpellier and Toulouse in southern France, but he performed best in the role of a preacher and teacher of the Catholic Faith, and in 1946 he was declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope Pius XII. Once, when St. Anthony of Padua attempted to preach the true Gospel of the Catholic Church to heretics who would not listen to him, he went out and preached his message to the fish. When critics saw the fish begin to gather, they realized they should also listen to what Anthony had to say.

He died at the age of 36 in 1231, and was canonized by Pope Gregory IX in 1232. Upon exhumation some 336 years after his death, his tongue was found to be totally incorrupt, so perfect were the teachings that had been formed upon it. He is typically depicted with a book and the Infant Child Jesus and is commonly referred to today as the "finder of lost articles."
