SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" - Lk 17:17-18

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

What happened to those other nine lepers who were cured? Why didn't they come back to thank Jesus? I've given it some thought, and I have come up with nine reasonable rationalizations. Some sounded pretty familiar to my ears. You could probably come up with a few of your own. Here are mine:

1. I want to get back to my family or friends or work. He'll understand.
2. I'll do it later. Maybe I'll even write him a nice note.
3. It probably wasn't even a miracle. Maybe I just had a bad case of psoriasis.
4. Such a great guy doesn't expect thanks.
5. I have to get to the priest and do the required ritual, or the miracle might not last.
6. I never did anything to deserve getting leprosy, so I deserve the cure.

7. Why say thanks? Miracles are this guy's business.
8. I don't have time to double back.
9. I asked one of the other lepers to say thanks for me.

Teach your children not just to say "thank you," but to plant their feet firmly on the ground, look the person in the eyes and say the words meaningfully. A person who is truly grateful is a person who understands the give and take of relationships. They are also more likely to begin to appreciate the everyday gifts that surround them.

PERSONAL RESPONSE:

Besides your family, what are you most thankful for? Who are the people in your life who deserve your thanks? Have you thanked them lately?

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

This is one of the greatest challenges of our time: to convert ourselves to a type of development that knows how to respect creation.

REFLECTION

Historical Context – Leprosy

In ancient times, a wide variety of skin diseases were loosely labelled as ‘leprosy’. Because of Jewish purity laws, people with skin diseases were automatically regarded as ‘unclean’ and were forced to live away from others. The assumption was that such disfigurement must be a punishment from God for sinful behaviour. When Jesus encounters the men they are outside the town and keep the required distance from Jesus. He tells them to go and show themselves to the priest, whose authority was relied upon to declare a person healed and fit to return to society after extensive ritual purification.

Have you thought? – On the Borders

When Jesus encounters the ten men, he is travelling along the border between Galilee and Samaria. The level of distrust between the Jews of Galilee and the Samaritans were deep and abiding. The land that fell between the two countries was sparsely populated and mostly barren. That Jesus should encounter the men in this environment is not surprising for these men literally and metaphorically were at the border of society. Not welcome in any town, the men roamed the very edges of society. They lived their whole lives on the borderline – welcome nowhere and belonging nowhere.

Gospel Focus – Where are they?

‘The other nine, where are they?’ asked Jesus. Why would the other nine not have come back to give thanks? It is insufficient to say that the miraculous healing these men experienced changed their lives. Being healed of this disease meant so much to them: they could return to their families; they could return to work; they could touch another person; they could walk among other people; they could join in prayer at the synagogue. As they hurried back toward town they must have been overwhelmed by the possibilities and opportunities that lay before them. But they neglected to acknowledge the source of their great joy!

Questions for Adults

Why do the men ask Jesus to have pity on them, rather than asking to be healed? In what ways do the men’s reactions reveal that they didn’t expect to be fully healed? Why is it significant that the grateful man is a Samaritan? In what way can the ‘leprosy’ of the story be applied as a metaphor for today?

Magdalene was born in 1611 near Nagasaki, Japan, the daughter of devout Christian parents. While she was still young, her family were martyred for the Faith. In 1624 she became acquainted with two Augustinian members of the Recollect Congregation and was attracted by their deep spirituality.

In 1629 she sought refuge in the hills of Nagasaki, sharing the sufferings of her fellow Christians, baptizing the young and visiting the sick. Because many Christians were renouncing their faith in the face of torture, she decided to encourage them through her own acceptance of persecution.

In September 1634, dressed in the habit of a tertiary, she turned herself in to the anti-Christian civil authorities, and a month later she was subjected to the torture of the pit for 13 days. On the last day, 16th October, 1634, the pit was filled with water and she was drowned.

Her body was burned and her ashes were dispersed to prevent the Christians from having any relics of her.

Magdalene was beatified on February 18, 1981, in Manila, Philippines, by Pope John Paul II, and canonized on October 18, 1987, at St. Peter's Basilica, in Rome, by Pope John Paul II.

Her shrine is at Binondo Church in Manila, Phillipines.
