VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Dear Friends,

This weekend we celebrate the 25 years anniversary of the arrival of the Augustinians here in St Clair. We thank the Augustinians who were part of Holy Spirit Parish journey. Giving thanks and being appreciative of the blessings in our lives is a good frame of mind and a good thing to do.

With that thought in mind, there's one more group to thank and appreciate— and that would be you, our parishioners! On behalf of the entire parish staff and of the Augustinians, we want you to know how much we appreciate your consistent presence and participation in our community. It has been an eventful 25 years, and we wouldn't have risen to the occasion the way we have without all of you stepping up your game, and your degree of engagement in parish life. Your willingness to assume greater roles and responsibilities with respect to various parish ministries and activities and leadership opportunities has helped make us the kind of dynamic, adaptive and creative parish Pope Francis wants to see. But our work is not done, there is still plenty of adapting and creativity awaiting us in the weeks and months ahead.

It takes all of us— pastors, deacons, laity, parents, kids to be the complete Body of Christ.

I'm excited to see what the Holy Spirit has in store as we enter this new decade. I hope you are as well and I look forward to our continued relationship.

"Consider yourself happy, not because you exercise authority over those for whom you are responsible, but rather because you have been given the opportunity of serving them with love. They are your brothers and sisters."

St Augustine, Rule 7,3

With a grateful heart,

✠ Fr Myk Belonio, osa

*The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God.
We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.*

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

This is one of the greatest challenges of our time: to convert ourselves to a type of development that knows how to respect creation.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office or complete the Pastoral Care for the Homebound form available in the foyer.

REFLECTION

Historical Context – Service in the Temple

The ritual of the redemption of the first-born son originates in Exodus 13:2 where God claimed the first-born sons of Israel as God's own. These sons were to be sanctified for service in the Temple. However, this service was taken away from the first-born sons of every tribe and reserved exclusively for the sons of the tribe of Levi and the descendants of Aaron, the high-priest. It is from this tradition that we encounter the 'Levites' in the gospel accounts. The Levites were involved in various ministries in the Temple: assisting the priests; musicians; and slaughtering sacrifices.

Have you thought? – The role of the observer

In today's gospel passage, it is the devout Simeon and the prophetess, Anna, who declare the greatness and far-reaching influence of the child that has been brought to the Temple. This is a common feature of the gospel accounts. It is not Jesus himself who proclaims his greatness but those who have observed him and recognised the revelation of God's presence amongst the people. It is a role that continues today. Those of us who believe and recognise the presence and influence of God in the world are challenged to proclaim it in both our actions and our words.

Gospel Focus – A sword

Simeon's second pronouncement about Jesus is addressed to the child's mother, Mary. Having predicted the rejection that Jesus will endure, Simeon tells Mary, 'and a sword will pierce your own soul too.' He appears to be referring to the sacrifice that Mary will have to make in the future. On this day, Mary and Joseph have 'redeemed' their son from service to the Lord in the Temple. Despite this, Jesus is still destined for service to God and Mary will have to surrender him back to the Lord. Simeon suggests that Mary herself will be a sacrifice offered to God at this time.

Questions for Adults

In what way does Simeon suggest that the ministry of Jesus will reach beyond the Jews to Gentiles? Why do many images of Mary and Joseph portray them in rich costumes and not their poorer status? Why might the gospel writer have combined the two separate rituals into the one event? How does this episode reflect the hopes and dreams that all new parents hold for their child?

ON A LIGHTER NOTE

A woman drove to the local grocery store to buy a turkey to prepare for Thanksgiving dinner.

She was picking through the frozen turkeys, but she couldn't find one big enough for her entire family.

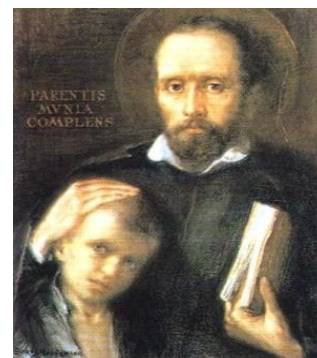

So, she asked a stock boy, "Excuse me, do these turkeys get any bigger?"

The stock boy replied, "No ma'am, they're dead."

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT JEROME EMILIANI

Patron Saint of Orphans and Abandoned Children
Feast Day : 8th February

Born in 1481 in Venice, Italy, to wealthy parents, Saint Jerome ran away from home at age 15 following the death of his father. He became a soldier in Venice, Italy, in 1506, and commanded the League of Cambrai forces near Treviso, Italy.

He was captured by Venetian forces in August 1511, bound with chains and thrown into prison, where he had a lot of time to think about God and gradually learned how to pray, asking Our Lady for help. He was miraculously freed by an apparition.

He was made Mayor of Treviso, whilst studying for the priesthood. Jerome was ordained in 1518 – the year of the plague.

He cared for the sick, and housed orphans in his own home. At night he roamed the streets burying those who had collapsed and died unattended.

He founded six orphanages in the town of Somasca, a shelter for penitent prostitutes, a hospital and a seminary. He also founded the Order of Somaschi (or Somascan Fathers). He is also believed to have developed the question-and-answer catechism technique for teaching children religion.

He fell ill while taking care of the sick and died on 8th February, 1537 at the age of 56. He was beatified on 29th September 1747 by Pope Benedict XIV, canonized on 16th July, 1767, by Pope Clement XIII, and declared the Patron Saint of orphans and abandoned children by Pope Pius XI in 1928.
