Temptation is a part of life. Everyone must deal with it, even Jesus. One of our jobs as parents is to help our children develop a right conscience so they can face temptation. I remember when my young children were watching the movie Pinocchio and I was wishing my children had their own Blue Fairy.

There is a very solemn scene in the movie where the Blue Fairy asks Jiminy Cricket to kneel as she dubs him the "Lord high-keeper of right and wrong, counselor in moments of temptation." Wouldn't it be great if all our children were given tiny umbrella-wielding consciences to keep them on the straight and narrow?

As Christians, we have very definite ideas of what is right and wrong. We are called to value others as much as we value ourselves and to value ourselves as much as God values us.

We can try to help our children internalize this message by taking the time to listen and ask questions as they unpack their good deeds and bad. Why did they do what they did? How did they feel? Did the action help or hurt others or themselves? How was the action wrong or right? We will do well if we teach our children to ask themselves these questions before they act.

We play the role of Jiminy Cricket for the first few years of our children's lives. We are the outside voice that points out right from wrong, until, we hope, like Pinocchio, they learn from their mistakes and successes and begin to listen to the quiet voice inside.

Then, like that little wooden boy, they, too, are on their way to becoming all their Creator hopes they will be.

FAMILY RESPONSE:

Have family members talk about what they think they will be like in ten years. What do they think God would want them to be like in ten years?

*The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God.
We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.*

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

Being with" Christ does not mean isolating ourselves from others. Rather, it is a "being with" in order to go forth and encounter others.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office or complete the Pastoral Care for the Homebound form available in the foyer.

REFLECTION

Scriptural Context – Trusting God

The testing and temptation of Jesus echoes the plight of the people of Israel as they wandered in the desert for forty years. They relied on God to provide them with food and protection and ultimately lead them into the land that was promised to them. They had to trust that God would deliver these things in God's own time and way. Jesus is tempted to ignore God's time and ways by seizing for himself food, protection and ownership of the land. The temptations of Jesus and the people of Israel are all about trusting God.

Historical Context – Sin

The Greek word translated as 'sin' in the New Testament literally means 'miss the mark'. Its origin may lie in archery where the object was always to hit the mark; to miss the mark was to not achieve at one's best. Jesus set about trying to redefine the Jewish notion of sin from being a transgression against God that deserves punishment to the more compassionate idea that sin is a wandering off course that can be rectified – a missing of the mark. When he encountered someone who was missing the mark, Jesus called them back into right relationship.

Have you thought? – An invitation

Lent is a season of invitation. It is an invitation to step into the desert with Jesus; to confront our own purpose and ministry and to renew our trust in God's vision for the world and for us individually. Seen in this light, Lent is so much more than fasting from meat and giving up ice cream for a few weeks. The whole idea of fasting and sacrifice is an attempt to simplify our lives. Through simplifying our life and removing some of the daily distractions, we can share in the desert experience of Jesus and then truly celebrate the hope reborn in the Easter season.

Questions for Adults

Why might this gospel reading have been chosen for the Lenten season? How do the actions of Jesus balance or counter the actions of Adam and Eve? What temptations do you face and how do you try to address them? When have you put trust in God to resolve a situation beyond your control?

TAIZE and ADORATION OF THE EUCHARIST

FRI 6 MAR, 7.30PM • HOLY SPIRIT PARISH

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process that makes it possible for adults to be received into the Catholic Church.

This weekend we celebrate a very important occasion in the RCIA: Rite of Enrolment of Names and the Rite of Sending at Holy Spirit Parish-St Clair during the 6pm Vigil Mass and the Rite of Election at St Patrick's Cathedral, Parramatta this Sunday 1 March.

The Rites of Election and Enrolment of Names mark the end of a lengthy period of preparation for the Catechumens (those being Baptised at Easter). During the Rites the Catechumens publicly acknowledge their desire to receive the Sacraments of Initiation, and their desire to be received into full Communion with the Catholic Church on Easter Saturday. The Rites mark the beginning of period of more intense preparation for those to be received, and after the Rite of Election are now called The Elect, are asked to follow Christ with greater generosity of spirit.

To our community, thank you for the prayerful support you have given the RCIA this far on the journey. Please continue to pray for our Catechumens, Sponsors and Team as we continue our journey to Easter.

The Catechumens who will receive Baptism at Easter are:

1. Emily Miloszek
2. Skye Spacek
3. Ana Younes
4. Luca James Spacek

And the candidates who will receive Confirmation and First Communion are:

1. Cian Torres-Alley
2. Amaris Torres-Alley
3. Bodell Laron Torres-Alley

ON A LIGHTER NOTE

On the way there, he tells his driver that looks a bit like him:
"I'm sick of all these conferences. I always say the same things over and over!"
The driver agrees: "You're right. As your driver, I attended all of them, and even though I don't know anything about science, I could give the conference in your place."
"That's a great idea!" says Einstein. "Let's switch places then!"
So they switch clothes and as soon as they arrive, the driver dressed as Einstein goes on stage and starts giving the usual speech, while the real Einstein, dressed as the car driver, attends it.
But in the crowd, there is one scientist who wants to impress everyone and thinks of a very difficult question to ask Einstein, hoping he won't be able to respond. So this guy stands up and interrupts the conference by posing his very difficult question. The whole room goes silent, holding their breath, waiting for the response.
The driver looks at him, dead in the eye, and says: "Sir, your question is so easy to answer that I'm going to let my driver reply to it for me."

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT PERPETUA AND FELICITY

Patron Saint of Mothers and Expectant Mothers
Feast Day : 7th March

Saints Perpetua and Felicity were Christian martyrs who lived during the early persecution of the Church in the Roman province of Africa by the Emperor Severus.

In 203 AD, Vivia Perpetua, a well-educated noblewoman, aged 22, decided to follow the path of her mother and become a Christian, even though she was well aware of the consequences. Her pagan father tried to talk her out of her decision.

Perpetua had every reason to want to live -including a baby son. She was arrested with four other catechumens, including two slaves, Felicity and Revocatus, and Saturninus and Secundulus. Their instructor in the faith, Saturus, was also imprisoned.

Perpetua was baptized before taken to prison. She suffered not only the pain of being separated from her baby, but she and the young slave, Felicity, who was 8 months pregnant, suffered the stifling heat in an overcrowded prison and rough handling by prison guards. Perpetua prayed to God for endurance in the face of her trials.

Perpetua and Felicity were both tried and sentenced with the other catechumens to be thrown to wild beasts in the arena.

Two days before the execution, Felicity gave birth to a healthy girl who was adopted and raised by one of the Christian women of Carthage.

Perpetua and Felicity were thrown back into the arena to face the gladiators but were eventually killed by the sword.
