VOICE FROM THE PEWS

The Coronavirus has humankind confronting mortality. In today's gospel Jesus has his best friends Mary and Martha experience pain and desolation at their brother's death. He could have healed him from a distance, like the centurion's servant. Does he mean to punish them? No. It is to reveal God's glory. One cannot love and desert someone at the same time. So also with us. If we believe that God loves us we need not despair no matter the circumstance.

In times like this some pray, some meditate, some tick their bucket list of things to do, some face their shadows and hopefully people will begin to think differently and live better and kinder lives and the earth will begin to heal.

Every person has to face the dark moments in one's life someday, but faith in Jesus will us get through the dark moments of our souls. I have found this prayer of St Augustine very helpful. Hope it helps you too.

God of our life

There are days when the burdens we carry
Chafe our shoulders and weigh us down;
When the road seems dreary and endless,
The skies grey and threatening;
When our lives have no music in them,
And our hearts are lonely
And our souls have lost their courage,
Flood the path with light
Run our eyes to where
The skies are full of promise
Tune our hearts to brave music
Give us the sense of comradeship
With heroes and saints of every age
And so quicken our spirits
That we may able to encourage
The souls that journey with us
On the road of life to your honour and glory.

REFLECTION

Scriptural Context – Jesus wept

'Jesus wept' is the shortest verse in the New Testament. Just two little words carry a world of emotion and speak volumes about Jesus. Pope Leo I used this verse to highlight the two natures of Jesus, pointing out that in his humanity, Jesus wept for the death of his friend, but in his divinity Jesus raised Lazarus to life. Lazarus and his sisters were close friends of Jesus and Jesus is clearly emotional about the death and its effect on Martha and Mary. That Jesus is about to restore Lazarus to life does not deny the grief and mourning at Lazarus' death.

Living the Gospel – Unbind him; let him go free

To see a man bound up for burial suddenly come walking from his tomb must have been an unnerving experience to say the least. However, Jesus calmly commands the astonished onlookers to 'unbind him, let him go free'. These words speak to us today as we come to the end of the Lenten season and approach the celebration of Easter. What are the things that 'bind' us? From what do we need to be released so that we may 'go free'? Are they bindings placed by ourselves or others? What will it take to be unbound?

Gospel Focus – Death for life

The gospel writer paints the picture that Jesus is fully conscious of the implications of his return to Judea. As the events of the Passion unfold through this gospel, the reader has a very clear impression in their mind that if Jesus had not come to Judea; had not raised Lazarus; then he would not have been arrested and crucified. The reader is also drawn into the revelation that the sacrifice of Jesus was not solely for Lazarus but rather for all humanity. This realisation leads the reader to the ultimate humbling conclusion that if the sacrifice of Jesus was for people then the reader themselves is also the recipient of that sacrifice.

Questions for Adults

What conclusions can be drawn from the fact that Jesus was friends with a family who lived only two miles from Jerusalem? What other evidence is in the text to suggest that Jesus had been in Jerusalem before this event? In what ways can the story of Lazarus be applied to the need for reconciliation with self and others? What aspects of your life do you need to 'die' to or let go of to enter into a fuller, richer life?

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Re: COVID-19 (Coronavirus) Update

As you are aware, the Prime Minister announced on Sunday evening (22 March 2020) certain prohibitions on activities that would result in people gathering together. In that list was mentioned "places of worship" that were to be closed by midday 23 March 2020. The proscription is around "religious gatherings."

In the Diocese of Parramatta last weekend, some parishes elected to conduct celebrations of the Eucharist with a few people inside and the bulk of people outside. That gesture was appreciated by many of the faithful.

However, Stage 1 (as announced on Sunday evening by the Prime Minister) which has now been implemented applies to "religious gatherings" of any sort so that means that what was permitted last Sunday is no longer possible.

Masses and church buildings

Bishop Vincent has issued instructions to parishes, based on the directive of the government, that public Masses (both indoor and outdoor) must now cease. Also affected by this closure are church buildings, adoration chapels and other church buildings used for prayer and religious services.

Funerals

Funerals are still permitted with a small number of attendees (10 people) but if it takes place in a church building the social distancing rules must be observed. In the circumstances, consideration for a simple grave side service or using the crematorium chapel with a small number of mourners (very immediate family) is recommended. A memorial Mass when the current crisis is declared over can be held.

Weddings

Marriages are permitted to take place with only 5 people.

Baptism

It is suggested that baptism of infants not take place at this time unless the baptism is in case of emergency.

Penance

Given that the church cannot be used it places an extraordinary burden on priests as to how to respond to a request for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It is suggested that each priest use his own discretion as to how to handle such requests, provided social distancing rules are to be observed.

Anointing of Sick

Individual request for the Sacrament of the Sick should be attended to in the manner described in the previous instructions issued.

Holy Week

It is anticipated that all the Holy Week liturgies will be "live streamed" from the Cathedral with Bishop Vincent.

With prayers for all those suffering at this time and imploring the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes,

Very Rev Peter G. Williams

Vicar General & Moderator of the Curia

PARISH NEWS AND EVENTS

During this time when we are no longer able to gather to celebrate the Eucharist, LiturgyHelp has enabled free access to all parishioners in the Diocese of Parramatta. The URL for Parramatta is: www.liturgyhelp.com/aus/parra/pray.

They are providing Catholics with access to a range of resources for personal and family prayer. They hope that Catholics in social isolation can gain a sense of prayerful solidarity with their local faith communities and the whole Body of Christ. Feel free to print resources and give them to your friends, family and community, particularly those who do not have access to the internet.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion is an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time or in circumstances when one cannot receive Him in sacramental Communion. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
please come spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you now
as if you were already there and I unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me
to be separated from you.
Amen.

ON A LIGHTER NOTE

A group of Engineering professors were invited to fly in a plane. Right after they were comfortably seated, they were informed the plane was built by their students.

All but one got off their seats and headed frantically to the exits in maniacal panic.

The one lone professor that stayed put, calmly in his seat, was asked: "Why did you stay put?"

"I have plenty of confidence in my students. Knowing them, I for a fact can assure you this plane will never even start."

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT ISIDORE OF SEVILLE

Patron Saint of the Internet, computer users, computer technicians, programmers and students
Feast Day: 4th April

In 1997, Pope John Paul II decided that the internet could use a patron saint to guide Catholics in its proper use. He chose Saint Isidore of Seville (560-636), Doctor of the Church.

Saint Isidore of Seville, was born in 560 AD, in Cartagena, Spain. His parents were of a high social rank and were instrumental in converting the Visigothic kings from Arianism to Catholicism. His three siblings, Leander of Seville, Saint Florentina and Fulgentius of Cartagena, have all been declared saints.

In the year 600 AD, Isidore succeeded his brother, Saint Leander, as Bishop of Seville. During this time, he devoted himself to caring for the poor, reformation of the clergy, fostering monastic life, educating the faithful after two centuries of barbaric rule under the Goths, and extirpating heresies.

Isidore became known as the greatest teacher in Spain. He wrote several books on theology and science, and commentaries on books of the Old and New Testaments.

After serving more than 32 years as Archbishop of Seville, Saint Isidore died on 4 April 636 AD, aged 76, in Seville, Spain. He was canonized in 1598 in Rome by Pope Clement VIII and is venerated in both the Catholic and Eastern orthodox churches.

In 688 AD, the fifteenth Council of Toledo paid tribute to Saint Isidore ".... the extraordinary doctor, the latest ornament of the Catholic Church, the most learned man of the latter ages, always to be named with reverence."
