VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Staying at home means my bedroom becomes my office during the day. As my room faces west, I like it in the late afternoon with the sun going down further towards the north. A golden glow along the horizon gives the promise of a beautiful day tomorrow, but a cold night before morning. Being present to God in each now as it comes around. A way to handle the isolation of these days.

At this time when we become focused on the brutality of the virus, we pray that our eyes be open to see the beauty and goodness within creation. St Augustine in his Confessions, praying to God, says, "The heavens, the earth and everything within them, all these things tell me to love you."

Thomas desired to know exactly the destination before setting out, Jesus set him straight, "I am the way, the truth and the life." Jesus invites us to trust him, taking one step at a time. Philip wanted to see the Father, Jesus set him straight, "Whoever sees me, sees the Father". Jesus, the human face of the Father, reveals the infinite depths of the Father's love for all of us.

In his book "On Christian Doctrine" Augustine writes, "Jesus says, it is along me that you come, at me that you arrive, and in me that you abide." Jesus invites us to travel along His way, to know Him and to trust him. Jesus expects us to follow the need to be safe, to take care. Trusting in Jesus we feel whatever happens He is with us.

These days offer the opportunity to be still, to be present to each moment, to grow in friendship with Jesus, a friendship which does not require social distancing.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

We must not reduce the bosom of the universal church to a nest protecting our mediocrity.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

REFLECTION

Historical Context – It is for the best...

At the time of this gospel's writing, some 70 years after the events it describes, amazing things have taken place in the early Christian community. Rather than everything falling apart with the death of Jesus, the message of Jesus has spread further than he himself could ever have accomplished. It is the departure of Jesus from their midst and the sending of the Spirit that really prompts the disciples to act on what they had experienced while Jesus lived among them. The gospel writer has Jesus saying that he has to go away so that the disciples can reach their potential.

Scriptural Context – The Gospel of John

The gospel of John is very different from the other three 'synoptic' gospels. The other three have a very narrative style and can be seen together as different recounts of the same events. Whilst the gospel of John also has some beautifully narrated stories, it is better known as a more theologically reflective piece of writing. It assumes that the readers of this gospel are already familiar with one or more of the others, so it doesn't need to tell the story again. Rather, it presents a sweeping image of God, through Jesus, reaching out, in, through, and with love to the people.

Living the Gospel – The Way, The Truth, and The Life

When Thomas asks, 'we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?' Jesus answers by saying, 'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.' The reader of the gospel has known this truth all along from the opening line of the gospel, 'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.' Our aim, as Christian people, is to be one with God, not only by sharing in the resurrection but also in the way we live. Jesus makes clear that the way to be with God is by following his example.

Questions for Adults

Why does this passage work as both a Last Supper speech and a pre-Ascension discourse? What does the image of the many rooms in the Father's house seek to convey? How might Jesus have felt in reaction to the disciples' questions? Why does Jesus need to return to the Father for the disciples to live out their potential?

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Daily Prayer versus Mass

Question:

I have a friend who says she doesn't need to attend Mass because she prays to God every day. What are your thoughts on this justification?

Answer:

If the only reason for going to church were to talk to God, your friend might be right. Prayer is not something limited to a physical place or even a holy place. If the sole purpose of the Church were prayer, it would be a narrow purpose indeed. The Church is a community of believers, formed by "one Lord, one faith, one Baptism." It is an outward sign of our faith in God instituted by Christ, and the purpose of the Church is to give us grace, that is, a share in God's life.

Coming to Mass is not really for God's sake, but for ours. If we believe that Jesus is truly present in the holy Eucharist, then we will want to be in his presence. We will want to be fed by him. Our daily prayer and good works are strengthened by our authentic encounter with our Lord. For Catholics, it is at Mass that we celebrate the source and summit of our faith. If this is true, why would we ever stay away?

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

Do you wish to be great? Then begin by being. Do you desire to construct a vast and lofty fabric? Think first about the foundations of humility. The higher your structure is to be, the deeper must be its foundation.

Boy: Yes... grandma! She said she loves me, I love her, too....and she's the best cook and story teller in the whole world!

Dad: That's nice, but we have a small problem there!

Boy: What problem?!

Dad: She happens to be my mother. How can you marry my mother!

Boy: Why not?! You married mine!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT MATTHIAS

Feast Day : 14th May

The first act of the apostles after the Ascension of Jesus was to find a replacement for Judas. One hundred and twenty people were gathered for prayer and reflection in the upper room, when Peter stood up to propose the way to make the choice.

Peter had one criterion, that, like Andrew, James, John, and himself, the new apostle be someone who had been a disciple from the very beginning, from his baptism by John until the Ascension. The reason for this was simple: the new apostle must become a witness to Jesus' resurrection.

Two men fit this description -- Matthias and Joseph called Barsabbas. They knew that both these men had been with them and with Jesus throughout his whole ministry. They cast lots in order to discover God's will and Matthias was chosen. He was the twelfth and the group was whole again as they waited for the coming of the Holy Spirit.

That's the first we hear of Matthias in Scripture, and the last. Legends like the Acts of Andrew and Matthias testify to Matthias' enthusiastic embrace of all that being an apostle meant including evangelization, persecution, and death in the service of the Lord.

Prayer: "Saint Matthias, pray that we may become worthy witnesses to the resurrection of Jesus in the way we live the eternal life we have right now. Amen."
