VOICE FROM THE PEWS

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus promises his disciples that he will not leave them orphans. He assures them that "I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you forever." The word 'advocate' essentially means helper or defender, who stands beside you in time of difficulty, providing a comforting, supportive and encouraging presence. Indeed, these consoling words of Jesus become more relevant as we prepare to celebrate the Ascension of the Lord next Sunday. Though Jesus must return to the Father and he may no longer be physically present, his comfort and assurance will continue in the presence of the Holy Spirit.

At this point, we might ask ourselves how often do we forget the presence of the Holy Spirit? How rarely do we invoke him with trustful dependence? The Spirit is the most precious gift that God the Father has given to us. But we so readily neglect this gift. So, let us open to the Holy Spirit, who will lead us to the Truth that Jesus taught us. Also, the Holy Spirit abiding within us will sustain our faith and nourish our spiritual life.

Especially, in the midst of the pandemic or the difficulties of our life, Jesus' consoling words continue to resonate to us: "I will not leave you orphans." We will never be alone and we do not struggle alone since God has given us the Holy Spirit, who always stands beside to comfort, support and encourage us. Thus, let us entrust our lives to the grace and action of the Spirit.

Church is open for private prayer and devotions, Monday to Friday 9am to 5pm.

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

Children have a right to grow up in a family with a father and a mother capable of creating a suitable environment for the child's development and emotional maturity.

REFLECTION

From the perspective of... – The disciples

The words of Jesus in this gospel passage were addressed to the disciples at the Last Supper. They had almost no inclination of what was about to befall them, nor the heart-wrenching loss that they would feel. Yet Jesus tried to prepare them and reassure them that they would not be abandoned by him. In the days after his death, the disciples struggled to remember these words and they were caught up by despair. Even once they had witnessed the Risen Lord, he told them that he would again be leaving them. They must have been so confused and afraid.

Living the Gospel – Live in love

Throughout the gospel of John, we are reminded of the enduring relationship between Jesus and the Father. A number of times, Jesus announces that he and the Father are one. In today's passage, Jesus also says to the disciples that they can share in this relationship of love. When Jesus speaks about anyone who 'loves' him, he speaks about anyone who lives by his message and seeks to be like him. Anyone who does that will share in the love that exists between the Father and the Son. That invitation is open for each of us today as well.

Gospel Focus – Paraclete

The Greek word, parakletos, is translated into a number of different terms in English translations of the gospel. Its technical use was for a lawyer or attorney. However, its use in scripture is like the broader meaning of advocate that we use today: someone who stands up for another; someone who speaks up for another; someone who intercedes on behalf of another. An advocate is one who lends strength and support to someone who is disempowered. That is exactly what Jesus did for many people during his ministry and it is also what the Holy Spirit is sent to do.

Questions for Adults

How might this passage have contributed to the teaching of God as Trinity? In what ways did Jesus fulfil the role of a paraclete or advocate? What are the commandments that Jesus refers to as 'his commandments'? What does this passage tell us about Jesus' vision of what it is to be a disciple?

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Sign Before the Gospel

Question:

I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer:

Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do.

There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: "May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart." In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel.

ON A LIGHTER NOTE

A man absolutely hated his wife's cat and decided to get rid of him one day by driving him 20 blocks from his home and leaving him at the park. As he was getting home, the cat was walking up the driveway.

The next day he decided to drive the cat 40 blocks away. He put the beast out and headed home.

Driving back up his driveway, there was the cat! He kept taking the cat further and further and the cat would always beat him home.

At last he decided to drive a few miles away, turn right, then left, past the bridge, then right again and another right until he reached what he thought was a safe distance from his home and left the cat there.

Hours later the man calls home to his wife: "Jen, is the cat there?"

"Yes", the wife answers, "why do you ask?"

Frustrated, the man answered, "Put him on the phone, I'm lost and need directions!"

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT RITA OF CASIA

Patron Saint of impossible cases, difficult marriages and parenthood
Feast Day : 22nd May

Saint Rita of Casia, an Augustinian nun, also called Margarita, was born in Roccaporena, Casia, Italy, in 1381, and expressed from an early age the desire to become a nun. Her elderly parents insisted that she be married at the age of twelve to a man described in accounts of her life as cruel and harsh. She spent eighteen extremely unhappy years, had two sons, and was finally widowed when her husband was killed in a brawl. Both sons also died, and Rita, still anxious to become a nun, tried unsuccessfully to enter the Augustinians in their convent at Cascia. She was refused because she was a widow and because of the requirement that all sisters should be virgins. Finally, in 1413, the order gave her entry, and she earned fame for her austerity, devotion to prayer, and charity.

Rita had a great devotion to the Passion of Christ, and one day, when she was sixty years old, she asked, "Please let me suffer like you, Divine Saviour."

In the midst of chronic illnesses, she received visions and wounds on her forehead which resembled the crown of thorns. She died on May 22, 1457, at Cascia, and many miracles were reported instantly. She was beatified by Pope Urban VIII in 1626 and canonized by Pope Leo XIII on 24th May 1900. She is honored in Spain as La Santa de los Imposibles and elsewhere as the Patron Saint of the Impossible.

Remember in Your Prayers

ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

Compassionate and Loving Father,

In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of Your presence.

In You allow us to find hope and healing.

Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.

Be with those who lead and give them
Your spirit of wisdom.

Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.

Wrap Your arms around our world
and hold us in Your love.

Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love
to all we meet.

We ask this in Your Name.

Amen
