VOICE FROM THE PEWS

RECONCILIATION WEEK is from 27th of May until the 3rd of June in 2020.

Reconciliation Week is a time to become more fully the Church that Jesus wants us to be. We must stand with those who are poor, marginalised and down trodden.

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Island people have lived in this land for thousands of years. Listed below are some of the reasons why change needs to take place in our country regarding the way our Government relates to Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people.

In the last 10 years there has been an 83% increase in incarcerated Aboriginal & Torres Strait people, that means they are 13 times more likely to be imprisoned than non-indigenous people.

Aboriginal women are 34 times more likely to be hospitalised as a result of domestic violence than other women. Their children are more likely to be removed from the family home than others as well.

Aboriginal & Torres Strait people can expect to live 10 to 17 years less than other Australians.

A third of Aboriginal & Torres Strait people live below the poverty line.

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people experience higher rates of preventable diseases such as heart disease, kidney disease and diabetes.

In 2017 The Uluru Statement of The Heart was presented to our government; it presents us with a way forward. There have been many reports over the years, but little has changed. We cannot allow this appalling state of affairs to continue. RECONCILIATION IS A PRIORITY FOR OUR FIRST NATIONS PEOPLE AND OUR NATIONS FUTURE.

REFLECTION

Historical Context – Pentecost

The word Pentecost comes from the Greek for fiftieth day. Pentecost Sunday ends the season of Easter and comes as a Sabbath day after seven weeks of seven days. In Jewish tradition the 50th day after the Passover was celebrated as a blessing of the harvest and rather than the unleavened bread of Passover it was celebrated by leavening the bread. It was for this reason that the disciples were gathered together when they experienced the Holy Spirit empowering them. In Christian tradition, Pentecost is celebrated as the arrival of the Spirit, promised by Jesus, that animated the disciples to spread the gospel of Jesus and gather believers to form what would eventually become the Church.

Have you thought? – The Spirit

We can sometimes regard Pentecost as the day the Holy Spirit came into the world. However, the Spirit had long been active in the world before this event. In fact, even the second verse of Genesis Chapter 1 tells us that the Spirit hovered over the waters. The Old Testament is filled with references in which 'The Spirit of God came upon (him) with power' and the Spirit was evident at Jesus' baptism and throughout the gospels. Jesus is frequently described as being 'filled with the Spirit'. So, from the very beginning of creation the Spirit has moved in the world and continues to energise it today.

Living the Gospel – Come Holy Spirit

'Come, Holy Spirit', or its Latin, 'Veni Sancte Spiritus', has become the basis of countless prayers and hymns over many hundreds of years. To this day, it remains a powerful invocation that can be used in prayer or meditation. Three simple words convey a wealth of meaning. The invitation for the Spirit to 'Come' indicates recognition of the need for the Spirit's intervention and openness to accept the guidance that the Spirit brings. It is a powerful, simple prayer that can be used at the outset of any significant undertaking or whenever you find yourself in need of inspiration.

Questions for Adults

What was different about Jesus breathing the Spirit on the disciples and the Pentecost experience? What was significant about the disciples being heard to speak in many different languages? Why might Pentecost sometimes be regarded as the birth of the Church? Have you ever had an experience of being aware of the Spirit's presence/action? Where in your life could you use the guidance and strength of the Spirit?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained: Tithing vs Stewardship

Question:

What is the difference between tithing and stewardship?

Answer:

Both tithing and stewardship are part of a spiritual way of life that calls us to use all of our resources for the service of the Gospel. Everything we are and everything we have comes from God. Offering back to God what He has given us is part of how we worship and give thanks to God.

Tithing is the practice of giving back 10 percent of what we earn. It comes from the Old English word for "ten." The first Scriptural example of tithing came from Abraham who gave a tenth of his possessions to the priest Melchizedek. He did so as an act of thanksgiving to God.

Stewardship as a way of life calls us to use well all that we have and all that we are, placing all things in service of others and God. Stewardship helps us see the good we can accomplish by making God and our spiritual life the most important values in our life. Whatever we accumulate in this life stays here. We can't take it with us! Both tithing and stewardship help us remember that nothing is mine or even ours ... all belongs to God.

ON A LIGHTER NOTE

A linguistics professor was lecturing his class the other day.

"In English," he said, "a double negative forms a positive.

However, in some languages, such as Russian, a double negative remains a negative. But there isn't a single language, not one, in which a double positive can express a negative."

A voice from the back of the room retorted, "Yeah, right."

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT BONIFACE

Patron Saint of Germany, Brewers and Tailors

Feast Day : 5th June

St. Boniface was born as Wynfrid, in 672 AD in Wessex, England). He was a leading figure in the Anglo-Saxon mission to the Germanic parts of the Frankish Empire during the 8th century.

Overcoming the initial disapproval of his Anglo-Saxon family, he was able to pursue a career in the church. Wynfrid was educated at English monasteries and became an ordained priest at the age of 30.

In 716, Wynfrid became a missionary and travelled to Frisia (now part of the Netherlands), following in the footsteps of other Anglo-Saxon missionaries. However, he found the local ruler unwelcoming and soon left the area.

After his return to England, Wynfrid was chosen to be the abbot of his monastery. He turned down the position and proceeded to Rome in 718, where he met with Pope Gregory II, who gave him the name Boniface. On May 15, 719, the pope sanctioned Boniface's desire to spread the gospel, and having been made bishop in 722, he travelled to Europe where he converted pagan peoples in present-day Germany and the Netherlands, and worked on church reforms. As archbishop in 732, he was able "to consecrate bishops wherever the faithful have increased". He wrote several books which contain "The letters of Saint Boniface".

On 5th June, 754, he was killed by pagan tribespeople in Frisia (Dokkum, Netherlands). Saint Boniface, "apostle to the Germans," is buried at Fulda Cathedral, Germany.

Remember in Your Prayers

ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

Compassionate and Loving Father,

In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of Your presence.

In You allow us to find hope and healing.

Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.

Be with those who lead and give them
Your spirit of wisdom.

Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.

Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your love.

Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love
to all we meet.

We ask this in Your Name.

Amen
