VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Moses went up a mountain to receive the Ten Commandments, and in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus went up a mountain to give us the Beatitudes. The Ten Commandments are a set of laws to help us live in harmony with God's love. The Beatitudes are broader and more subtle. They offer a vision and suggest a self-giving attitude that goes beyond the Commandments.

The Beatitudes talk about the poor and those who mourn, those who are hungry for justice, those who are merciful and peacemakers, those who are pure in heart, and those who are persecuted. Jesus tells us that all of these people will be happy. They will be blessed. How can this be?

Perhaps Jesus is just reminding us that life is difficult. Each of us will face our own hardships. We need to remember that nothing—not poverty or deep loss or suffering, not the worst injustice — can triumph over us. Jesus offers his own strength and endurance, his assurance that we will not be alone. We are blessed. We are gifted not only with faith, but with hope.

The Beatitudes ask us to be meek, not the doormat sort of meek, but the biblical idea of meek—tolerant and unassuming. We are to be poor in spirit. Money and possessions should not own us. We are to be peacemakers and hunger and thirst after justice. The Beatitudes offer a positive way to respond to difficult life experiences. They encourage us to live in a self-possessed, positive way.

Finding the Kingdom of God is not just about keeping the Ten Commandments; it's keeping the commandments with the right attitudes—the Beatitudes.

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

The truth is not grasped as a thing; the truth is encountered. It is not a possession; it is an encounter with a Person.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

Especially with regard to living the Gospel, we are not alone. A great cloud of witnesses journey with us offering us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. We look to them for the example of perseverance we desperately need in order to be faithful, and for what it means to “walk the talk!” The Beatitudes are indeed a blessed vision that people hunger to hear and embrace. But, they also clearly remind us that following Jesus is difficult. Poverty of spirit, meekness, mercy, and peace making are not virtues readily accepted by the world. Pursuing a purity of heart and acknowledging the hunger of our souls require not only a courageous stance, but a single-minded devotion to God. And, after going against the grain of the world and meeting resistance along the way, the true disciple may find themselves persecuted and paying a high price. Look to all the saints for the secret to happiness and the example of fidelity. Their lives speak volumes of how God can use even the weakest and most humble among us in tremendous ways. Saints are not even close to being perfect. They are just ordinary folks like us trying to give honor to God with their lives.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: In a vision, John sees in heaven those who survived being tested in their faith. What would you say is the biggest test of threat to your faith?

Second Reading: John speaks of the importance of “hope” in the life of a Christian. What do you hope for as a believer in Jesus Christ?

Gospel Reading: Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount (Matt 5-7) begins with a listing of beatitudes. How do you think you measure up to these beatitudes?

Because NSW Government still requires contact tracing, there are three ways to do this:

- Mass Attendance cards MUST be completed by each household per mass. Cards are available in the foyer. Feel free to take home a few cards so you can complete them before going to church to avoid delay. Drop the completed card on the day you are attending in the designated box provided in the foyer
- Sign-in using the QR code displayed in the foyer
- Online Mass Attendance card (Eventbrite) is available. To register, go to:

<https://holyspiritstclair.eventbrite.com.au>

Eventbrite registration will close 24 hours before the event

Please print your cards/tickets and drop them on the day you are attending in the designated box provided in the foyer.

In order to maximise the use of our liturgical space, please observe the following:

- Families and those living under one household sit together.
- Proceed to end of row if vacant.
- Leave 3 chairs empty between you and another household.

Please be mindful of the following:

- The 1.5 metre physical distancing rules will continue to apply whether indoors or outdoors
- No congregational singing should occur
- Face masks are still strongly encouraged
- Mingling and social gatherings in the outdoor area should also not occur after the Mass (This would be considered an outdoor social gathering, where the current limit is set at 30)

The elderly, those with health conditions, flu-like symptoms and low-immune system are still advised to stay at home.

Catholics from Parramatta Diocese are still dispensed from their Sunday Mass obligation until further notice.

MASS TIMES: 7am and 7pm

TAP & GO MACHINES AND REGULAR CHURCH CONTRIBUTION

The passing of collection plate by parishioners along the pews is now a thing of the past as some churches have already decided to stop using it to help stop the spread of the virus.

The Tap & Go machines are available in the church foyer and are set to $10 per tap. If you wish to donate more than that simply tap your credit card as many times as you like. It also accepts Apple Pay, Google Pay and Pay Wave.

Each machine is labeled to where contributions go to. One machine supports the ministry of our Augustinian clergy and the second machine supports the maintenance and development of the Parish. Thank you for your generosity.

Another option, if you prefer a cashless transaction, is to sign-up for Regular Church Contribution (Planned Giving) by direct debit/credit card. Forms are available in the foyer and on our parish website.

We encourage you to give electronically as this saves the parish a significant amount of money and time. This is your church and your parish—we depend on your financial support to grow and nourish our parishioners.

Collection baskets are still available in the church.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do some people receive Communion in the hand, while others have it put on the tongue? And is one better than the other?

Answer:

Prior to the liturgical reforms that accompanied the Second Vatican Council, it was the universal practice that Catholics would receive communion "on the tongue," meaning that the one receiving would allow the priest distributing communion to place the consecrated host on their outstretched tongue. At this time, only the priest celebrant (and, on special occasions, priests assisting at the Mass) was allowed to receive the Precious Blood.

Since 1977 (with the approval of the Holy See) the bishops of the United States have officially approved two equally valid options for receiving Holy Communion in Masses celebrated according to the Ordinary Form of the Mass. As the bishops' statement Norms for Holy Communion Under Both Kinds states: The communicant may choose whether to receive the Body of Christ in the hand or on the tongue. When receiving in the hand, the communicant should be guided by the words of St. Cyril of Jerusalem: "When you approach, take care not to do so with your hand stretched out and your fingers open or apart, but rather place your left hand as a throne beneath your right, as befits one who is about to receive the King. Then receive him, taking care that nothing is lost" (no. 41).

As we noted, both ways of receiving communion are equally valid and it is important that we always keep the instructions of the bishops in mind as we reflect on which method we might prefer.

ON A LIGHTER NOTE

An old man with an old truck crashed into a BMW. The BMW owner said "What the heck! Are you blind?"

And the old man said, "Relax man!"

"How do you think that I can be relaxed? You just crashed my car!"

"Look, I produce a delicious craft beer at my house, take a bottle and chill."

He drinks the bottle and likes it, so he asks for another beer.

"Damn, that's very good, but what about my car?"

"Don't worry, I'll call the police and we can do the breathalizer test."

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES

Patron Saint of people of mixed race, innkeepers, barbers, public health workers.

Feast Day : 3rd November

St. Martin de Porres who was born in Lima, Peru on December 9, 1579, was the illegitimate son of a Spanish gentlemen and a freed African slave. At a young age, Martin's father abandoned the family, leaving Martin to grow up in deep poverty. After two years in primary school, Martin was placed with a barber/surgeon where he would learn to cut hair and the medical arts.

Martin experienced a great deal of ridicule for being of mixed-race. In Peru, by law, all descendants of African or Indians were not allowed to become full members of religious orders.

At age 15, he was received into the Dominican Convent of the Rosary in Lima as a volunteer servant boy, and was able to wear the habit and live within the religious community.

Martin became a Dominican lay brother at the age of 24, and 10 years later was assigned to the infirmary where he would remain in charge until his death.

Martin's life reflected his great love for God and neighbour, and he was blessed with extraordinary abilities and gifts. He cared for the sick, regardless of race or wealth, and founded an orphanage for abandoned children and slaves.

He died on 3 November, 1639, aged 60, was beatified by Pope Gregory XVI on October 29, 1837 and canonized by Pope John XXIII on May 6, 1962.
