With the weight of the cross on his back, He reached Golgotha where He was nailed on the cross between two thieves.

In between his heavy breathings he uttered these 7 Last Words. "Father, forgive them for they do not know what they do." In spite of the cruelty that made him suffer to the core of his bones, he still asked his Father's forgiveness for his tormentors.

"Today you will be with me to Paradise." A promise of Heaven to the Good Thief which is also promised to us, a promise of salvation redeemed by his death.

"Woman behold thy Son! Behold thy Mother" Every pound on the nails that pierced through his hands and feet, is like a sword that pierced through Mary's heart. Jesus knew that Mary would be alone so He left her under the care of John.

"My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" The shout of a mother who lost her husband and son due to Covid.

In times of trial and hardship, we forget that God is always with us, has never abandoned us and never will.

While hanging on the cross under the searing heat of the sun, he cried "I thirst."

The soldiers took a piece of cloth dipped in vinegar and bile placed it at the tip of the sword and gave it to his mouth. It's the ultimate despicable act! "It is finished."

His human nature expired but not his spirit until his mission here on earth is fulfilled, his mission of bringing us with him to the Father.

"Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit." The final acceptance that his life here on earth ended and his spirit returned to his Father.

Jesus left us to return to his Father but he sent us the Holy Spirit to live with us forever.

With this last word he breathed his last.

✠ Elsa Roberto, Parishioner

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

"No one can grow if he does not accept his smallness."

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

What an ironic twist of events! Jesus is hailed with palm branches as he comes down a street one minute and faces agonizing suffering and death on a cross the next. Does any of this make any sense? They shouted, "hosanna to our King," out of one side of their mouths and, "crucify him," out of the other. At first glance it seems like such hypocrisy. Yet, when we step back there may be more truth to the story than we care to admit. We struggle with Jesus. We hail him in our churches but struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. We are fine when we hear pious renderings of his messages and preaching but wince when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct business and becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor and marginalized. We invoke God's name when we want victory and keep silence when it comes to global solidarity. We talk out of both sides of our mouths too, looking only to what works or suits us at the time and leaving the rest. There exists in each one of us a person who hails our King with hosannas and a person who is all too willing to choose Jesus over Barabbas for the cross. Something to think about this Holy Week!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: The prophet Isaiah reflects on his obedience to God's call regardless of personal suffering that he endured. Isaiah found strength in his faith and fidelity to God. How does your faith help frame your suffering?

Second Reading: Paul speaks of Jesus' humility as central to his divine identity. What does this teach us about God's nature?

Gospel Reading: We hear today Mark's account of the Passion of our Lord. What parts of the passion narrative are you drawn to?

BAPTISMS

BAPTISM Preparation Meeting

Parents wishing to have their child baptized are asked to contact the Parish Office prior to attending a preparation evening. Next Baptism Preparation Evening is on Tuesday 13 April at 7.30pm, at the Church. Presenter is Michael Zammit.

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

The First Reading for Palm Sunday is from Isaiah (50:4-7) and contains one of several powerful images of the "Suffering Servant" found in this book of the Bible.

While the author was describing the nation of Israel when he wrote, the passages about the suffering servant took on new meaning after the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

It is easy to see how Jesus embodied the traits of Isaiah's suffering servant, one of which was his peaceful approach to conflict. Jesus exemplified non-violence, even when he was attacked, spat upon, mocked, and scourged. He met violence by turning the other cheek. He asks us to do the same now.

Your challenge this week is to examine your conscience for any signs of violence in your life—in your actions, but also in your words.

Make a commitment to respond to violence against your person, be it bullying, being yelled, at or being physically attacked, with a strong but peaceful response.

WHO'S WHO IN THE PARISH

This is a new section in our parish bulletin. Each week we will feature a parishioner. Our hope is that in the end we come to know and strengthen our friendship among each other.

Hi my name is Mikaele Paulo (Michael). I was born in Otahuhu New Zealand and grew up in Mangere before relocating to Rockdale Australia when I was six. I married my high school sweetheart in 2009 and we have 2 little blessings attending Wollemi and Montgrove Colleges, a pigeon pair as they say (one not so little). I come from a small family of 12 which has now grown to include 30+ grand kids and 4 grand babies.

Our family moved to Sunny St Clair when I was in Year 2, starting at Banks Drive Public before joining Holy Spirit in Year 3. I attended Emmaus in the early years of High School before finishing at St Clair High School in 2000. Over the past 5 years I have been working in the Real Estate Industry across Sales and Property Management for Ray White Carlingford; prior to that I was in the Warehousing Industry for approximately 16 years. I enjoy Rugby and Oztag and still try and play when the body permits, I have a thirst for knowledge and enjoy teaching anyone who's willing to learn.

These past few years I have tried to become a more active member of the Parish and joined several ministries to help out and to assist me in my own personal faith journey; the personal rewards far outweigh the commitment. My involvement in the PPC over the past year has been another personal milestone that I did not know was there.

As I write this, several of my father's sayings/quotes come to mind for me to add in but what I will leave you with is this: "when you are ready, He is waiting and willing no matter how long it takes".

"I'd like to give you a raise and promotion, but that wouldn't be fair to others who don't stay late or work as hard as you."

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Why haven't Catholic Churches gone the way of disposable cups for wine distribution?

Answer:

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice.

This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass.

Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal.

If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside.

Sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious ... they are to have bowls of non-absorbent material".

Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood the Lord.
