3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

EXCERPTS FROM THE LECTIONARY FOR MASS ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Jesus' anger is certainly evident in this story of his cleansing the temple, but this wasn't the first time we see Jesus displaying his feelings. At various times in the Gospels we see Jesus sad, happy, frustrated, afraid and, yes, even angry. He cried, laughed, was honest about his fear and his anger. Jesus was comfortable expressing his feelings, and he expressed them in appropriate ways.

Psychologists tell us that feelings are neither good nor bad, they just are. It is what we do with those feelings that really matters. We need tears and laughter to help us heal not only emotionally, but sometimes even physically. Fear helps to get the adrenaline going when we need to protect ourselves and move fast. Expressing our anger justly is also appropriate in the right settings.

A priest once told me that sometimes children should see their parents angry to help them understand the seriousness of a situation. He cautioned, however, to make sure the response was nonviolent and appropriate to the wrong-doing. Never respond unless you are certain you are in control of your feelings. If need be, take a long walk. Anger must never lead to physically or emotionally abusing a child or anyone else.

Some people need to get help in finding healthy outlets for their anger. The experts agree: Suppressing our feelings can be dangerous. Anger will find its own way out, too often in unhealthy ways. We may end up letting it out at the wrong person, or we may unintentionally hurt another or ourselves. Like everything else that is difficult in life, anger is best mastered when we realize we can't handle it alone, and we ask for God's help.

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God.
We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

Although the life of a person is in a land full of thorns and weeds, there is always a space in which the good seed can grow. You have to trust God.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

With our world in such constant turmoil and conflict, it makes such good sense to return to the simple directives given in the Ten Commandments. God's unassuming guidelines provide the perfect recipe for ordering our relationships with God, others, and even ourselves. But yet, we are so quick to glance beyond them and even remove them from public view because we foolishly believe we can create something better. Arrogance runs far deeper in the members of our society than we can ever imagine. Lent is a perfect time to call ourselves back to our foundations and the basic relationships that comprise our lives. It is also a time to remember that Jesus is the true sign of God's presence. Everything he says and does, including his suffering and death, is a sign of the God who sent him. The anger we witness when Jesus exhorts those in the temple to stop making his Father's house a marketplace can equally be seen in his anger and frustration over humanity's constant mission to turn God's creation into a secular world. We have a lot of work to do for sure.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: In God's revelation to Moses of His "10 Commandments," seven of the ten Commandments regulate how we are to relate to each other. Which of these seven Commandments challenges you most?

Second Reading: Paul speaks of Jesus as both the "power of God and the wisdom of God." How could you prove Paul's assertion to a non-believer?

Gospel Reading: John connects Jesus' cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem to Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead with a quote from Psalm 69: "Zeal for your house will consume me." During this season of Lent, how passionate is your faith?

BAPTISMS

BAPTISM
Preparation Meeting

Parents wishing to have their child baptized are asked to contact the Parish Office prior to attending a preparation evening. Next Baptism Preparation Evening is on Tuesday 9 March at 7.30pm, at the Church. Presenters are Ted & Fe Uy.

PROJECT COMPASSION
boxes / envelopes are now available in the foyer.

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

In the First Reading (Exodus 20:1-17) for this Sunday, we hear the story of God giving the Ten Commandments to the Israelites. Did you know that many, if not most, of the justice teachings in the Catechism of the Catholic Church are found in the section on the commandments, particularly commandment seven—you shall not steal? This is because the Seventh Commandment reminds us of how important it is to be other-centered and to respect their rights and property. Jesus' whole life was a witness to living for others. As disciples, we are called to follow Jesus' example. Your challenge this week is to choose one thing you can do each day which is totally other-centered, something which has no direct benefits for you. Do it not because it makes you feel good or makes you proud, but simply because it's what God is calling you to do.

PARISH NEWS AND EVENTS

COVID-19 SAFETY GUIDELINES COMMENCING 26 FEBRUARY

With the announcement of the easing of restrictions commencing Friday 26th February 2021, we are now limited by the 2 square metre rule. However, the 1.5 metre social distancing from one household to another is still in place.

The wearing of face mask is strongly encouraged if social distancing is not possible.

For us to accommodate more people in the church congregational singing is not permitted, otherwise we have to observe the 4 square metre rule. Eight people are allowed to sing in the choir.

CONTACT TRACING:

Because NSW Government still requires contact tracing, there are three ways to do this:

- Sign-in using the QR Code displayed near the entrance doors.
- Mass Attendance cards MUST be completed by each household per mass. Cards are available in the foyer.
- Online Mass Attendance card (Eventbrite) is available. To register, go to:

<https://holyspiritstclair.eventbrite.com.au>
Eventbrite registration will close 24 hours before the event

In order to maximise the use of our liturgical space, please observe the following:

- Families and those living under one household sit together.
- Proceed to end of row if vacant.
- Leave 3 chairs empty between you and another household.

The elderly, those with health conditions, flu-like symptoms and low-immune system are still advised to stay at home.

Catholics from Parramatta Diocese are still dispensed from their Sunday Mass obligation until further notice.

FOOD DRIVE

Just like the loaves and fishes, we can make a difference. The pandemic has affected our communities in many ways. Asylum seekers and refugees have been severely affected as many have no access to jobkeeper and jobseeker, have lost their jobs cannot pay their rent and are facing homelessness, struggling to feed their families and facing destitution.

TOILETRIES

Nappies (large sizes) • Toothpaste & toothbrushes • Shampoo • Sanitary pads & napkins • Razors & shaving foam • Deodorant (male & female) • Soap

DROP-OFF YOUR DONATIONS IN THE BOX PROVIDED IN THE CHURCH FOYER FROM 20 TO 28 MARCH 2021. Thank you.

WHO'S WHO IN THE PARISH

©LPI

This is a new section in our parish bulletin. Each week we will feature a parishioner. Our hope is that in the end we come to know and strengthen our friendship among each other.

My name is Stephen. I grew up in Auckland. I immigrated to Australia in February 1990 and became a citizen in 1993. My wife Catriona and I live with my daughter and stepson. I have three stepdaughters living in Auckland.

I went through RCIA at St Joseph's Rosebery and was Baptised at Easter 2015. I am passionate about evangelisation and adult faith formation.

We moved from Rosebery to St Clair five years ago. I am a second-year aspirant to the permanent diaconate in the Parramatta Diocese.

October 2020 my role was made redundant, and I have since been able to attend weekday mass here and have met many more parishioners. I have worked as a communications software engineer, and planning manager for 30 years. I am also an accomplished handyman and owner builder. I enjoy cooking, especially BBQ and Italian cooking.

This year I have been nominated to the PPC for the first time and have also joined our RCIA team. I proclaim the readings at Mass when called on, and while I try to do my best there is always room for improvement.

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

“God is more truly imagined than expressed, and He exists more truly than He is imagined.”

St Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

What’s the difference between priests and brothers, friars, etc.?

Answer:

The distinctions titles and categories used for priests and the male members of religious communities can be confusing, especially since the categories can sometimes be intertwined as a man can be both a priest and a monk, or a brother and a friar. So, to help to piece the puzzle together, it’s important to begin by noting some basic distinctions:

The distinction between priests (who are ordained for sacramental ministry) and brothers (who are non-ordained members of religious communities and who are committed to lives of prayer and service).

Priests: A priest is a man who has been ordained for sacramental ministry and these fall into two categories: a) Diocesan (or Secular) Priests can either be attached to a diocese and who serve under a bishop. Their ministry is usually oriented toward pastoral service. b) Religious Priests are members of religious communities (like the Franciscans, Jesuits, Augustinians, or Carmelites) and their lives are guided by the special mission and charism of their community. While both kinds of priests practice sacramental ministry, their spirituality and how they live out their priesthood can be very different.

Brothers: Brothers are non-ordained members of religious communities (such as those mentioned above) who live lives committed to prayer and service. Religious priests and brothers serve together in their communities and their ministries include much more than the care of parishes.

Monks, Friars, and Canons: These are broad categories that include religious priests and brothers, and each of these is connected to specific ways of life and spiritualities.
