When the Pharisees see the blind man who is healed, they do not see his open-eyed joy or excitement. They see a beggar, a sinner who sat outside the gates for as many years as they can remember.

They hear his testimony, and the testimony of his parents, and presumably the testimony of the people who brought the man to them. But they don't really listen to what is being said. They still only see and hear a beggar, a sinner who is certainly not worthy of enlightening them.

By closing their eyes to the joy and wonder right in front of them, they miss out on seeing Jesus reflected in the eyes of the man once blind. By listening to only their own voices and the words they expect to hear from others, they fail to receive their own blessing, perhaps even their own salvation.

I wonder how often I do the same thing—react to what I see and pay little attention to what I hear. I see one of my children's friends and judge him on my first impression. I see milk spilled on the counter and the floor and do not really listen to the apology or explanation. It takes time to look beyond what we see—to see past our prejudice or anger or frustration. It takes time to really listen—to hear what is in someone's mind and heart. Yet if we don't take the time, we are like the Pharisees, and miss an opportunity to see Jesus reflected in the eyes of our children.

PERSONAL RESPONSE: Just about every one of us wears blinders, which limit the way we see certain things or people. We have subtle (or not-so-subtle) prejudices, usually inherited from the family that raised us. Carrying these prejudices around with us is not a sin. Prejudice is like anger. It is what you do (or do not do) with it that matters. What are the blinders you wear?

*The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God.
We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.*

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

FROM POPE FRANCIS:

"There is so much indifference in the face of suffering. May we overcome indifference with concrete acts of charity."

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

Have you ever given thought to the fact that you are an “ambassador for Christ?” An ambassador is an accredited diplomat and official representative. We are asked to be ambassadors for Christ and his message of reconciliation. Within each one of us is a prodigal son who realizes the need to return home, an elder brother who struggles with entitlement and self-pity, and a forgiving father who simply wants to celebrate love. Realizing that all of these things are operative in our hearts, we can bring credibility to God’s ministry of reconciliation. Genuine witnesses are those who not only recognize their need for wholeness, mercy, and forgiveness but also their tendency to be over self-focused and stubborn. Then, discovering freedom from all that binds them, they can then extend the love they have received to others. These ambassadors embody unity, mercy, and reconciliation and can look on others with deep compassion because they know what it is to walk in their shoes. Can God count on you to deliver this message?

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: After the Israelites settled into the land of Canaan (the Promised Land), no longer was there any need for the “manna” from heaven. As the season of Lent continues, what have you been able to let go of?

Second Reading: Paul emphasized to the Corinthians the importance of reconciliation with God. Why do you think reconciliation is so key to our relationship with God?

Gospel Reading: In Jesus’ parable of the lost (prodigal) son, which character do you most resonate with, and why?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

Sometime we become so enamored with the Parable of the Prodigal Son that we forget the interaction that prompted its telling. Jesus told the iconic parable in response to being criticized by the Pharisees and scribes for welcoming and eating with sinners. Who is welcome in your home? With whom are you willing to dine? The challenge this week is to spend some leisure time with someone who has made some serious mistakes and may even have a bad reputation. Can you offer the compassionate presence of Christ to this person and discern the goodness that lies beneath the surface of this person’s life?

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

and a hand through which Christ helps.”*

St Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor used in our Catholic newspaper. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer:

A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest.

The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest.

CREATION CARE TIPS

“On the day after the passover, on that very day, they ate the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain. The manna ceased on the day they ate the produce of the land, and the Israelites no longer had manna; they ate the crops of the land of Canaan that year.”
—Joshua 5:11-12

Once the ancient Israelites were a free people in their own land, they could feed themselves from what they grew. This week, like the Israelites, consider where your food comes from. Do you buy produce shipped from thousands of miles away when there are farmer’s markets within a few miles of you? Has it traveled long distances to be processed and packaged? Make a commitment to switch your buying power to more local, in-season foods so as to support the farmers in your region, even if you start small, like giving up bananas shipped from South America if you can get other locally grown fruit now.
