VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Ten years ago I moved to Holy Spirit Parish St. Clair as a young man 'fresh from the oven' of Augustinian seminary formation. I can still remember how I needed to 'get out of my shell' in order for me to reach out and speak to people. I can honestly say I was out of my comfort zone, but it did not take a while for me to feel the warmth and friendship of many parishioners.

My ordained ministry started here at Holy Spirit when I was ordained a Deacon by Bishop Anthony Fisher, DD, then bishop of Parramatta, on 16 March 2013. I was also blessed by the presence of many Holy Spirit parishioners when I was ordained a priest at St. Kieran's Church, Manly Vale on 18 October 2013 – Holy Spirit parishioners outnumbered the home crowd! It is not, therefore, an understatement to say that Holy Spirit parish has been one of the factors in building my ministerial foundation.

Now, I am back home. The same warmth and the same smiles welcomed me, not anymore as a freshly baked young man, but as a shepherd ready to serve the flock of Jesus Christ. I was anxious and worried moving in with lack of experience, but I am comforted by the fact that I am surrounded by seasoned pastors, Fr. Peter and Fr. Dave, and a community that assured me of constant support. I hope I can serve you all in humility and give my commitment to each one.

Let us begin this 2023 journey as one people of God with faith and hope to the Shepherd of us all. Let us come together for the benefit of the common good having one mind and one heart on the way to God. God bless all!

*The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God.
 We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.*

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

To know more about the life of the parish, you can grab a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or go to this link on our website:

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

PRAYERS FOR THOSE IN OUR COMMUNITY

There is strength and peace that comes from when we pray for one another. If you have a prayer request or want to offer a Mass for a special intention, go to: <https://holyspiritstclair.com.au/mass-prayer-requests/>
We ask you to please submit your prayer intentions a few days before preferred Mass.

GOD BLESS YOU.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

Every day, God offers each of us countless opportunities to embody the Beatitudes. Blink and you might miss them. Where is God inviting you to poverty of spirit? Where does he beg you to hunger for righteousness? How does he ask you to make peace?

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

The prophet Zephaniah speaks of a “remnant of Israel” who will survive God’s judgement and live as a humble and truthful people. What other qualities (besides humility and integrity) make for a good community?

Second Reading:

Paul offers us an interesting sketch of the members of the Corinthian community: foolish, weak, lowly, and despised. How would you describe your community of faith?

Gospel Reading:

Jesus begins his Sermon on the Mount with a list of eight “beatitudes” (blessings). Which of these beatitudes do you see in yourself?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

Sunday’s Gospel is Jesus’ beatitude teaching from the Sermon on the Mount. The beatitudes provide us with a blueprint for being people of faith and justice. Your challenge this week is to take one beatitude each day. Read the beatitude in the morning, and ask God for the strength to practice that attitude throughout the day. Then in the evening, reflect on whether or not you lived that particular “attitude of being” in your life during the day. Thank God for your successes, ask for forgiveness where you failed, and pray for the courage and strength to live that beatitude in the future.

“To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek him the greatest adventure; to find him, the greatest human achievement.”

St Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What is the difference between a “Saint” and a “Blessed”?

Answer:

The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honoured as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalisation of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honoured as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot.

It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the “canon”) of saints. This is the meaning of the word “canonisation.”

Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person’s life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of “heroic virtue.” Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honoured as “Blessed.” This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the “Blessed” is canonised and honoured with the title “Saint,” meaning that they are now officially recognised as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor. ©LPi

CREATION CARE TIPS

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.” —Matthew 5:6

Sometimes, perhaps often, it feels difficult to keep making sacrifices and doing the right thing for the environment when it seems other people aren’t putting in as much effort. Still, our faith calls us to keep hungering and thirsting for righteousness, to keep seeking what is best for our earth, even if we sometimes despair that our efforts aren’t making a difference. This week, as you go about making choices to care for creation, pray to be reminded that your hunger and thirst for righteousness will one day be filled.
