Ut was born in South Vietnam either on 20 August 1998 or 23 February 1998. Why there is an or? Vietnamese don't celebrate birthdays and his uncle who registered his birth just made up the date. He attended his primary and high school schooling in Thanh. Upon finishing high school, he studied Mechanical Engineering majoring in Automotive in Dong Nair University of Technology in 2010.

His parents' house is just 10 minutes from the church by bicycle. Ut is no stranger to hard work. His mother used to wake him up at 4:00 am in the morning to attend the 4:30 mass. Then he quickly dashed home to have his breakfast and sped again for the 7:00 class. He shared the bicycle with his older brother (he only got his own bike when he was in high school.) After school, he helped in the farm, and household chores. His day ended at 9:00 pm.

When he was 7 years old, he was asked by the parish priest to be an altar server. He did that for two years.

Studying and living away from home posed new challenges for UT. He shared a room and chores with his older brother who was also studying to be an accountant and like UT was also a working student.

UT met Fr Hanh a Dominican in 2009, who introduced him to the Dominican community. In 2012, UT sat for the novitiate exam and passed, but asked the postulant master if he could stay outside for another year. In the same year, the Filipino Consolation Sisters (Augustinians) introduced him to Fr. Tony Banks and Fr Tan. In 2013 he quit his job to study English.

On June 25, 2014, he arrived in Australia. He met new challenges that broadened his horizon. He studied English again. He was sent to Cebu, Philippines for his novitiate. In 2017, he returned to Sydney to study Philosophy and Theology.

Who is UT? He is none other than NGUYEN HOANG HUY. Why UT? That's what his mother calls him being the youngest in the family!

Elsa Roberto.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

Want to be a real revolutionary? Defy the fallen impulses of human nature. Love your enemy. Pray for your persecutor. Give to those who would take. We can do hard things, Christians. We aren't perfect, but our God is.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Leviticus teaches us that one way to be holy is to have an attitude of love and non-retaliation toward your family and neighbors. Can you name some examples when you have acted in this manner?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches that as believers we are now "the temple of God" with the "Spirit of God" dwelling in us. How might we celebrate this new reality?

Gospel Reading:

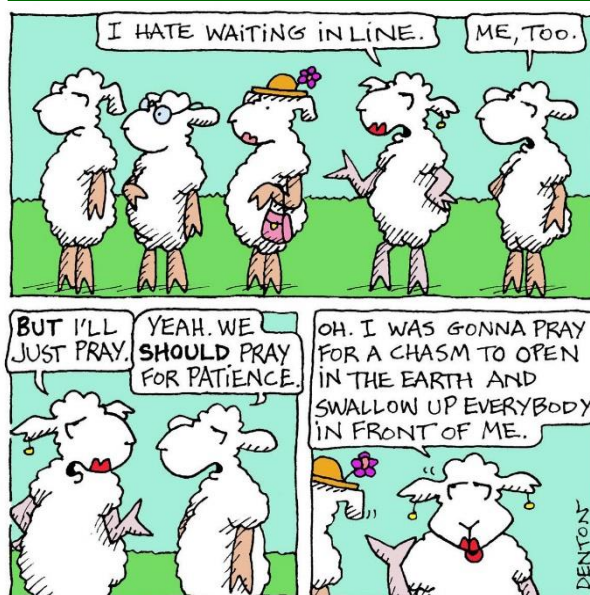

Jesus challenges his disciples to love and to pray for your enemies. Why do you think Jesus encourages us to behave this way?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

The first reading for this Sunday is one with which we are familiar. It is the passage from the Book of Isaiah (2:1-5) describing what the world will be like when the Messiah comes. The image of people beating swords into plowshares—taking instruments used to kill people and changing them into instruments which help grow food to feed people—is a powerful one. Your challenge in this first week of Advent is to spend some time reflecting on how you are peacemakers (as a family and as individuals). Do you bring people together by your words and actions or do you create conflict? Then decide on one action you can take to make the world a more peace-filled place. Do you want to pray for peace in our world, our country, and our families? Do you want to write to government leaders to advocate for a more peaceful approach to a particular issue? Do you want to take a stand for more gun control? How do you want to bring peace?

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

"It was pride that changed angels into devils; it is humility that makes men as angels."

St Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained

Question:
Is gossip a mortal sin?

Answer:
To really ask this question, we must consider the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness." In its reflections on this commandment, The Catechism of the Catholic Church invites us to not only think about what bearing "false witness" means, but to also consider how we understand the truth and how we communicate more broadly. This is why so much of this section of the Catechism has to do with the gift of language. With this in mind, we will notice that the word "gossip" isn't used by the Catechism. Instead, we find the words "detraction" and "calumny," which are actually two forms that gossip can take, and both can be quite serious. First, detraction is the of revealing "another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them," without morally valid reasons. Calumny, by extension, is saying something about another person that is untrue, and it is sinful because it "harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgements" (see no. 2477). In all of our communication, we have to always recognize that we have a moral obligation to the truth and to always work to protect the reputation and honor of our neighbors (see no. 2479). Gossip can, in fact, prove to be a very serious sin. After all, the Catechism reminds us: "No one is bound to reveal the truth to someone who does not have the right to know it" (no. 2489). When we have gossiped, especially if we are aware we have damaged another person's good name or reputation, we want to make every effort to undo the damage we have done, including seeking the grace and forgiveness offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

CREATION CARE TIPS

"Though you may have to reprove your fellow citizen, do not incur sin because of him."
—Leviticus 19:17

It's not fashionable "reprove your fellow citizens" and tell them what they should or shouldn't be doing to care for creation. Besides, approaching someone in the grocery store who is using plastic bags instead of cloth bags and "reproving" them will probably have the opposite effect, eliciting anger or defensiveness.

This week, commit to one concrete action you can take to make it easier for someone you know to choose a more environmental alternative. Buy cloth grocery bags for someone you know who doesn't use them. Help a friend or co-worker dust off their bike, inflate their tires and go on a bike ride with you as you demonstrate running an errand without a car. Ask an aging neighbor or relative if you can replace their incandescent light bulbs with LEDs. Turn any judgment you have for another into action to help them.
