VOICE FROM THE PEWS

"Our faith is strengthened by the resurrection of Christ. The passion of Christ represents the misery of our present life, while the resurrection of Christ gives us a brilliant glimpse of the happiness of the future life. Let us apply ourselves energetically in the present life and hope in the future." St. Augustine of Hippo.

Jesus was betrayed and abandoned by his own disciples; he was condemned to death and suffered the most brutal punishment of his time; died on the cross while being mocked by the same people who welcomed him in Jerusalem like a king! Today, the glory of Jesus' resurrection overshadows the cruelty of man, and highlights the supreme power of God! People who have seen and walk in darkness will now see the great light! Jesus is showing us that in the midst of life's challenges and difficulties, a new day is dawning. When we are stuck in the mud of shame and despair, Jesus is teaching us to be hopeful. Let us not allow ourselves to be defined by our weaknesses today and let the grace of God renew us to be ready for tomorrow. For we are consecrated in the resurrection of Christ in our baptism; therefore, we share in his glorious and triumphant rising from death into life.

Today, once again, with the eyes of faith, we are looking with awe at an empty tomb. Emptiness, which is far from being void, but rather, filled with the abundance of love and mercy. Let us live our lives, then, with great conviction that He who was raised to new life will one day come to set us free. Celebrate life for Jesus has risen, Hosanna in the highest!

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today's feast, St. Augustine writes: "And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here." Christ's resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ's life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: We hear today part of the speech that Peter delivered in the household of Cornelius, a centurion and Gentile-believer in Christ. Peter bore witness to his experiences with Jesus, including Jesus' resurrection. To whom do you bear witness to your faith in the resurrected Jesus?

Second Reading: Paul urges the Colossians to remain focused on Jesus' resurrection, ascension, and final return — to "seek what is above." What do you find appealing in this spiritual exercise?

Gospel Reading: Mark's account of Jesus' resurrection focuses on the women's discovery of the empty tomb. In fact, Jesus risen from the tomb is the original ending of the Gospel of Mark. Why do you think Mark would end his Gospel with the empty tomb?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

We celebrate the core event of our faith this week, the Resurrection of Jesus. Through the Resurrection, we are brought to new life and grace. We are assured that God's love is more powerful than anything—even death—and that Jesus fulfilled his mission of redemption. Your challenge this week is to celebrate your own new life in Christ by promoting respect for life in your community. Think of a way you can promote life. You could pray for women who are considering abortion so that they have a change of heart, and pray for doctors who perform abortions, that they, too, will have a conversion and remember their oath to protect, not destroy, life. You could pray for an end to war and violence, or for an end to the death penalty in our nation. If you aren't already, consider becoming active in your local pro-life community. How can you promote the Catholic vision of life that says every human life is sacred, from womb to tomb?

Good Shepherd Appeal – Thank you

Dear Parishioners:

Thank you so much for your generous support of our Holy Spirit Seminarians through the Bishop's Good Shepherd Appeal last weekend. Your gift will ensure that we can train more visionary young men to become priests and good shepherds of Christ's flock.

For those who haven't had a chance to support these faithful young men in their vocation as good shepherds of Christ's flock, please complete the giving envelope and place your gift in the receptacle provided. All donations over $2 are tax-deductible and will be receipted. Your generous gift will help provide for the education, formation and training of our 11 Holy Spirit Seminarians.

Thank you.

CREATION CARE TIPS

Celebrate new life today by planting some seeds or seedlings, or plan your summer garden. Pot up some herbs on a windowsill or plant a dwarf tree in a container on a porch or deck. Eating food grown locally saves drastically on the carbon footprint from food grown at great distances. Check out Barbara Kingsolver's book Animal, Vegetable, Miracle for some great inspiration about growing and eating locally grown food.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Do we need to fast for one hour before Mass, or one hour before communion?

Answer:

The practice of fasting before receiving the Eucharist is a centuries-old act of devotion that was once very different than it is today. In the 1917 Code of Canon Law, for example, anyone who wanted to receive the Eucharist had to fast from midnight until the time of communion (even water and medications were forbidden). Over the following decades, the rules for the eucharistic fast were relaxed, first by Pope Pius XII and, later, by Pope Saint Paul VI.

The current Code of Canon Law (1983) states very clearly: "A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before holy communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine" (Canon 919, §1). And, in the case of those who are ill and the elderly, the rules are even more accommodating, "The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour" (Canon 919, §3).

So, if we strictly follow the "letter of the law," the fast is calculated from the time of Holy Communion and not the start of Mass. However, when we remember why we fast — it is a reminder of the deeper hungers of the spirit that our physical thirst or hunger symbolize — we see that the issue is much bigger than simply fulfilling what is called for by Church Law and tradition. Joining fasting to our prayers and reflection before Mass is an opportunity to really center ourselves and to prepare our minds, hearts, and bodies to welcome the One we receive in the Eucharist. ©LPI
