6th SUNDAY OF EASTER

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

A L A B A N Z A to you Lord!

Amen! Amen! I tell you my friends; I felt really ecstatic! When I shared the JOY of singing from my Soul; To a parish friend who speaks Spanish. That's when Elisa Reynolds exclaimed! "ALABANZA!" to that JOY. Which I felt and know the feeling! And yes! my talents are all from You Lord!

Later that evening, I was touched; To find out it translated, to 'Praise and Worship!'.

And so decided to write this S'poem; To capture that joyous moment.

Acknowledging HIS presence 'is' 'the' 'key' you see; And that's all it takes my friends.

Just say 'THANK YOU LORD!' at every passing moment; For the Grace and blessings, HE sends.

"Be not afraid", HE said repeatedly; More than a HUNDRED times, after being born, in a stable.

And yet we DO NOT take, HIS word at face value; For we are cowards, that choose NOT to eat 'at His table'.

Allow your soul, to find that INNER PEACE! In this world, so full of rubbish and unrest; And feel HIS presence, Transform you from the inside; With nothing .....but JOY and the very best! Never let doubt, take over; Your conviction to ACCEPT, HIS divine PLAN;

For you know this! my dear family; HE said, "I am the Way, the Truth and The Life!" Zero in on 'HIS' Words, in the Holy Bible (original); And let your soul, take HEED of its contents; Instead of being en-trapped, by man-made doctrines; Which WILL keep you, from experiencing HIS providence.

Alabanza!! Is! what happens! You see! When we choose to sing, with our souls instead; You WILL FEEL HIM caress you with divine Love.

the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God.
We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.*

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

LETTER TO THE PARISH VOLUNTEERS

9 May 2023

Thank You Parish Volunteers

"The main purpose for you having come together is to live harmoniously in your house, intent upon God in oneness of mind and heart." This first sentence in Chapter One of the Rule of St. Augustine has been the road map of every Augustinian and Augustinian ministries for centuries. As an Augustinian parish, Holy Spirit - St. Clair has been guided by this religious ideal. We are all called, the people of God, to come together as one to build this community, the Body of Christ.

One of the pillars of our parish is our committed volunteers. Many extended a helping hand that made a lot of difference in the life of the parish. The Holy Spirit - St. Clair Parish Pastoral Council would like to acknowledge you for extending your time, talent and energy for our parish community.

On the Feast Day of our parish, Pentecost Sunday - 28 May 2023, a special blessing will be given to the volunteers in all our masses. This letter serves as our personal invitation to you for your generosity and service. After the 9:30am mass, a special morning tea will be served to honour you and everyone in the parish is invited to join.

We hope to see you and celebrate with you on this special day!

With prayer,

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

On May 15 in 1891, Pope Leo XIII shared his landmark encyclical Rerum Novarum with Catholics across the world. In this letter, which is considered the beginning of modern Catholic social teaching, Pope Leo defended the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Your challenge this week is to do something special for someone whose job you may be taking for granted or whose job isn't valued the way it should be. How can you honor this person and his/her work? How can you show your gratitude for the service which this person does in your life? Perhaps a thank you note, a plate of home-made cookies, or a simple "thank you" will let the person know his/her work matters.

CREATION CARE TIPS

“All the earth worships you; they sing praises to you, sing praises to your name.” — Psalm 66:4

Sometimes being intentional about helping the environment can feel heavy and depressing, and most of the news seems bad, yet our faith calls us to continue to have hope and praise God. This week, make time to join creation in praising God. Go for a hike and breathe in the fresh scents of the forest; sit on a beach and glory in the expanse of water; sit under a tree, close your eyes and listen to the birds chirping above you. Do whatever it is that will help you join your spirit to that of creation.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I can't explain it. I feel a nudge from God to something out of the ordinary. How do I respond?

Answer:

You're in good company! Abraham was asked to leave all he knew and loved for a strange land, with only abstract divine assurance that such a sacrifice would be worth it. Plenty of prophets protested against God's call, whether it was claiming they were too young (Jeremiah) or running away entirely, only to end up in a whale's belly (Jonah). St. Joseph was asked to do something very strange. He was asked to believe — on the word of an angelic appearance in a dream — that his betrothed was pregnant not from another man, but by a miraculous intervention of God. Then he was called to marry her.

Author Flannery O'Connor once wrote, “You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you odd.” Sometimes God's invitation might seem strange or challenging. It might require sacrifices we never expected to make. Our life might look different than we had always imagined. But as we all know, life throws its own curveballs, regardless of whether or not we're listening for God's will.

Better, one would think, to be open to the promptings of God and to follow along the strange trails that they lead. We have the assurance that, eventually, we will find green pastures.
