'LIVING SYNODALITY' – WHY WE NEED THE PARISH LISTENING CONSULTATION!

Amidst all its imperfection, it's probably true to say that we love the Church and acknowledge the many opportunities we receive to deepen our relationship with God. Imperfect? Yes! Sometimes frustrating? Yes! Yet the bonds of community hold us together.

Many hold strong views on what the Church should be and how that might be achieved. Some are at a loss as to where we go from here. These are among the reasons why Pope Francis is convening a World Synod of the Church in Rome in October this year. It is also why Bishop Vincent is convening a Diocesan Synod at the same time.

According to the Roman Preparatory Document, 'synodality' offers Catholics the 'ability to imagine a different future for the Church and her institutions, in keeping with the mission she has received.'

Our Parish recently hosted the final Deanery Consultation in preparation for the Diocesan Synod. Over 160 representatives from the 12 Western Deanery parishes gathered with Bishop Vincent and the Mission Enhancement Team to share hopes, dreams, insights, personal and communal experiences, frustrations and challenges. Since then, religious sisters, brothers and priests met for a similar discernment session and in the coming week, priests of the diocese will do likewise.

Synodality works best when the entire community has the opportunity to share their hopes and dreams, joys and struggles. Bishop Vincent wants to hear from persons from all walks of life so that together we can listen more closely to the Holy Spirit and renew participation, communion and mission in the life of our local Church. Community functions best when we are 'journeying together'!

Recently, we celebrated the feast of St Iraneus, famous for the quote – 'The glory of God is the human person fully alive!' This is Jesus' dream for us, our dream for those we love most – the wonderful energy that gives life to our Parish Community, our families, our relationships, and all we do – the Joy of the Gospel!

So why do we need the Parish Listening Consultation? To grow as a community, we need to engage in dialogue with one another about the things that really matter – our loves, our hopes, our family life, our personal, faith journey, our place in the Church. The parish listening consultation offers us a great opportunity to do this.

Please come along on Friday evening 21 July and participate in this important experience. To assist us with planning, we ask that you sign the sheet in the church foyer.

See you there!!

Fr Dave

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

To know more about the life of the parish, you can grab a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or go to this link on our website:

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

PRAYERS FOR THOSE IN OUR COMMUNITY

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

A MESSAGE OF JOY & HOPE

©LPI

God calls us to bring His Word to all corners of the earth. What does that mean for you and me? We are just simple and humble folks trying to find our way through the Gospel and our world. After all, we are not professional preachers but gentle servants. Jesus summons us to take his message on the road and bring it from the pew to the pavement. We cannot keep the joy of the Gospel to ourselves but must bring it into every aspect of our lives: our families, our schools, our work, our corporations, our politics, our social circles, and our philosophies. We cannot just accept the wisdom of the world as true and conduct our lives as if the Good News is a separate matter. They are one. Jesus never asked his friends to go and construct buildings where people could come to hear the truth. He asked them to go to their homes and meet them one on one, face to face. When the rubber meets the road and the message is challenging, rejection is quite possible. That's the litmus test for whether we're really doing what we have been asked.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: The priest Amaziah was threatened by the visions of the Lord received by Amos that warned of Israel's destruction. Amos' defense is that he was chosen by God to prophesy. When has your faith been a threat to others?

Second Reading: Paul speaks of the abundance of blessings we receive from God as believers in Jesus Christ. Paul asserts these blessings make us "holy and without blemish" before God. To whom in your life should you share this message of hope and redemption?

Gospel Reading: During his public ministry, Jesus commissioned the twelve Apostles to evangelize by preaching repentance and healing the sick and demon possessed. What do you see as effective tools for evangelization today?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

Saint Camillus de Lellis, whom we honor on July 18th, is one of the patron saints of those who are sick. He himself was afflicted with illness, yet he reached out to care for those who were suffering—in hospitals, on plague-ridden ships, even on battlefields with injured military troops. He risked his own life to relieve the pain of others. Your challenge this week is to reach out to someone who is suffering—from physical pain, from depression or sadness, from alienation or bullying. Can you be the gentle hands and compassionate heart of Jesus for him or her? Who is it in your family, neighborhood or community who needs a healing touch?

St Augustine of Hippo

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God’s people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God’s presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward.

Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts.

By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God’s people.

KIDS CORNER

Read the Gospel and Color

SHARING THE GOSPEL -The farmer is God. The seed is God’s Word. That makes the soil your heart. If your heart is angry or stubborn, God’s Word can’t sink in. If your heart is shallow, God’s Word can’t take root. Instead, you will worry about getting power or riches. If your heart is discouraged by people who hate God, your faith will choke. If your heart is soft, God’s Word will change your life, and it will show.

CREATION CARE TIPS

“Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.”

—Matthew 13:8

Jesus uses an analogy of how God’s kingdom grows through a multiplier effect. Take an action that will help you care for creation over and over. For example, get a re-usable water bottle and commit to taking it with you wherever you go so that you can avoid buying a disposable cup or bottled water. It takes roughly 17 million barrels of oil to make plastic water bottles every year, and approximately 1.5 million tons of plastic are expended in the bottling of water each year.
