Parable of the weeds in the field and the mustard seed.

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

BEING THE MUSTARD SEED

When I think about that tiny mustard seed and the kingdom of God, I think about the rippling effect one small act of kindness can have. When a person offers a smile or a simple courtesy, it can sometimes change the course of another's day.

I am not a morning person, and with very little effort I have managed to raise a whole family of morning grumps. I remember the days when all seven of us were playing "beat the clock" at 6:30 AM. At best, our "good mornings" were grumbled as we tried to keep out of each other's way. Some mornings our house felt like the proverbial powder keg, just one missing sock away from disaster. On those mornings, one person's outburst over an empty milk carton could sour everyone's day.

I developed my mustard seed theory by watching how that powder keg could be defused—a shared cinnamon bun, some help searching for missing keys, or a ride offered to school. One person's act of kindness could affect everyone. Since I am not my best at daybreak, it took a conscious effort for me to be that person.

I discovered that when I started the day with prayer, I could often find a quiet peace inside myself that helped me respond rather than react. It was wonderful to watch how sometimes that mustard seed experience of peace could even grow to fill a household. I picture the kingdom of God as an eternal experience of that peace—an experience we can sometimes taste even on grumpy mornings.

FAMILY RESPONSE: Ask family members to share what gets them out of grumpy moods. How can they get themselves out of a bad mood?

PERSONAL RESPONSE: What are some of the things that set you up to be grumpy? How can you avoid them or work around them? What do you want to remember from last week? What are you looking forward to next week? What are your concerns?

*The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God.
We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.*

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

We only have so much psychological and spiritual energy. We easily get tired. Responding to life’s demands and people’s needs can really zap us of all of our energy. Anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and even apathy can run wild. We can find ourselves bitter and irritated by the fact that we have to do it all again. We need to rest, connect, and focus. Deserted places, free of unnecessary distractions and demands, are great places of refreshment and we all need them. Desiring to be alone for a bit and rest does not indicate selfishness. Rather, it radiates wisdom. God is the source of all we do and the satisfaction of every human heart. If we are going to use the gifts God gave us well, then we have to make sure our batteries are recharged and replenished. Jesus invites us to go to a desert place to rest and pray. Where is yours?

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: The prophet Jeremiah spoke of God’s negative reaction to “the shepherds” (false rulers) who neglected and mislead his “sheep” (the people of Israel and Judah). What characteristics make for an ideal leader?

Second Reading: Paul taught the Ephesians that through his cross and resurrection, Jesus established unity and peace for all believers. When have you experienced harmony in your faith community?

Gospel Reading: Jesus encouraged the apostles to retreat and rest after their successful missionary work, but the crowds made that difficult. What gets in your way from resting and retreating?

Parents wishing to have their child baptized are asked to contact the Parish Office prior to attending a preparation evening. Next Baptism Preparation session is on Tue 8th August 7.00pm. Presenter Seaview Kama.

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

On July 26 we celebrate the feast day of Joachim and Anne, the parents of Mary. Anne is the patron saint of grandmothers, since she herself was Jesus’ grandma. While many cultures around the world honor the elderly and give them the highest respect, in our own country we have witnessed the neglect and sometimes even the abuse of our elders. Your challenge this week is to be an advocate for the “wisdom people” in your life. How can you show respect for the older people in your own family, or on your block, or in a nursing home in your community? How can you support the needs of the elderly through legislation? Can you offer a smile, a greeting, and perhaps even a visit with an elder who is lonely and gets few visitors?

A Blessing Prayer for Grandparents

by Greg Sunter

God of all the generations

Your gift of faith and gift of love have been handed down to us through parents, grandparents and great-grandparents for all of time.

Look with favour on all our grandparents and bless them.

Bless their eyes that look on us with love and affection.

Bless their ears that listen to our questions and our stories.

Bless their knees and laps we sit on.

Bless their arms that hold us and their hands that help us.

Bless their legs that walk beside us.

Bless their hearts that swell with pride for us.

And bless their faces that bring us joy.

Bless them and keep them as they bless and keep us.

We make this prayer through Saint Joachim and Saint Anne, the grandparents of Jesus.

Amen.

SYNOD 2023 – Submissions, please!!

Thank you to our PPC members for helping organize the Parish Listening Consultation on Friday evening and all those who braved the cold conditions to participate. A variety of submissions were forthcoming but we’re not finished yet! There is still an opportunity for submissions from individuals and from the following groups:

- HOUSEHOLDS – Families and households are encouraged to pray, listen and discuss questions about practical ways in which the Church can meet specific community needs, joys and challenges that impact your family’s participation in Church, and the mission of the Church in Western Sydney and the Blue Mountains – Forms are inserted in this Sunday’s bulletin:
- KIDS – Bishop Vincent wants to hear from kids too – about how they walk together with family and friends when they are finding life hard, what is the best thing about being part of God’s family, The Church, and some ways they could share their gifts with the community – Forms are available in the foyer.

Remember that we need to hear from many voices, so please submit your own, your family, your kids or your friendship group’s reflection to the Diocesan Synod here: www.parracatholic.org/synod2023 - Deadline for submissions is Monday 31 July.

Finally, parishioners are invited to nominate to participate in the Synod on 12-15 October. Applications will open in August, so stay tuned!!

From Fr Dave.

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

“Although the life of a person is in a land full of thorns and weeds, there is always a space in which the good seed can grow. You have to trust God”.

St Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I’ve heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer:

As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature — plant or animal — possesses an immortal soul made in God’s image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see.

As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess “I believe in the resurrection of the body.” As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time.

KIDS CORNER Read the Gospel and Complete the Puzzle

SHARING THE GOSPEL - As God’s child, you are the wheat in God’s field. As you love and trust God more, your faith will grow. You will see others around you who love God, too. God will be happy to see you growing up in God’s love. As you grow taller and stronger, you will also notice others around you who ignore or hate God. God will get rid of those weeds. Then he will bring you into heaven.

KIDS CORNER

Find the matching shadow.

PRAYER: God, help my love and faith to grow strong.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK: Help your parents in the garden. Watch how carefully weeds need to be pulled, so you don’t pull up the good plants, too.
