VOICE FROM THE PEWS

PUTTING THE GOOD IN BASKETS

Jesus' parables are about claiming what is of value and discarding what is not. We spend a lifetime choosing what is important to us—not just the physical things we own, but also those personal characteristics we call values. The foundation for this choosing begins in the home in our earliest years.

Unless a family consistently articulates its values, its members will assume the values of the culture around them. This can be a pretty scary thought today when we consider how society's values are portrayed on television, social media, and in movies. The truth is, if we want our children to grow up with Christian values, we need to name those values for them, talk about them, as well as live them. If we want our youngsters to identify themselves as Catholics (not just Christians), we have to articulate that, too. We need to talk about what it means to be Catholic. For example, make the Sign of the Cross reminds your children that this is how Catholics often begin prayers.

Celebrate your favorite saint's day. Let youngsters know that saints are your heroes and heroines. They remind us of God's holiness.

Let them know that Catholics, like most families, have their own set of dos and don'ts. For example, along with the Ten Commandments and Beatitudes, we go to Mass every Sunday. We receive the sacraments, and during Lent we fast and abstain from meat on Fridays. Our Catholic family rules and customs distinguish us from other families (TV families included) and give us a reason to act differently from more prevalent, but not-so-Christian values. Make sure one of the don'ts firmly implanted in your family's values is "people don't have to be perfect." We don't want youngsters ever to think that mishaps or even big mistakes can separate them permanently from their family, and that includes their Catholic family.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

When a merchant finally finds a priceless, perfect pearl, he sells all he has and buys it. He does this because that pearl matters to him. It has significance and brings a depth of joy like none other. What matters and is of importance to you? When what matters to us has something to do with the kingdom of God, God is delighted. His exuberant happiness is hard to contain because He knows that we are happy stumbling upon this beautiful wisdom. Ask God to help you discover this pearl of great price. There are many things competing for our attention every day. But not all of these things are important. We focus too much energy on the unimportant, superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really make a difference and have the greatest impact. Things all too easily become more significant than people, and our agendas become more essential than God's. We do not have to empty our bank accounts and totally detach from everything we have in order to serve God. But, we are asked to prioritize our lives and make what matters to God what matters most to us. In doing so, when we rise each day, we will be able to see what really needs our attention and embrace it with great joy.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: As a young man and new king of Israel, Solomon asks the Lord for the gift of wisdom. How do you exercise the virtue of wisdom in your daily life?

Second Reading: How do you think Paul can assert with such certainty: "We know that all things work for good for those who love God"?

Gospel Reading: Jesus offers several "end of the age" parables to the disciples: buried treasure and fine pearls (a priceless discovery) and the large catch of fish (an inclusive invitation). What do you think Jesus is teaching his disciples about the kingdom of heaven?

Parents wishing to have their child baptized are asked to contact the Parish Office prior to attending a preparation evening. Next Baptism Preparation session is on Tue 8th August 7.00pm. Presenter Seaview Kama.

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

Family reunions happen a lot during the summer months. You may have seen signs or notices in parks where families have reserved space to come together to catch up on news, share family stories and food and to celebrate their heritage. When we take time to nurture relationships and to support and celebrate our families, it is a blessing. Our families are the first places we learn about faith and what it means to be a part of God's family. There are some things we know about being a part of God's family: we must feed the hungry, clothe the naked, give drink to those who thirst and visit those in prison. Our families help us do this good work. How has your family been a witness to you of being Christ in the world?

SYNOD 2023 – INVITATION TO PARTICIPANTS - URGENT!!

Bishop Vincent has officially invited baptised Catholics, 18 years and over, in the Diocese of Parramatta to consider applying to be a member of the first ever Synod gathering to be held 13-15 October 2023. Applicants should reflect the diversity of the People of God. Already a few parishioners have indicated interest and we hope more will do so. Synod members who are selected will have a consultative vote at the Synod on a range of issues raised from the submissions received through the listening stage of the process. The consultative votes will inform the decrees and declarations which the Bishop will officially sign and announce in early 2024. The outcomes of the Synod will directly impact the new Diocesan Pastoral Plan to be developed and launched next year.

The application portal is now live and available to access on the Diocesan website www.parracatholic.org/synod2023. Here you will find the selection criteria and requirements of a Synod member. This includes commitment to and availability to be present at all sessions of the Synod from 13 -15 October 2023, at St Patrick’s Cathedral, Parramatta, and CommBank Stadium. Please advise Fr Dave if you intend to apply. Applications close 31 July 2023.

Please note that all Synod Submissions from individuals, families or groups must be submitted by this coming Monday 31 July – preferably online - www.parracatholic.org/synod2023.

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

“Do not be afraid to dream of great things!”

St Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do Catholics light candles in church?

Answer:

Candles have been part of the Church’s worship from the earliest times. In the days before electricity, candles and oil lamps were the ways that people lighted buildings. Even today, we often still depend on candles during power outages, relying on their flickering flames to bring light into the dark.

Like our ancestors, we also light candles on special occasions. Think about a festive family meal or a romantic dinner for two — there will often be candles on the table, special objects for a special event. We light candles on birthday cakes and carry them in processions. We also place candles at makeshift memorials that appear when there has been an accident or act of violence. In these moments, their light casts aside a different kind of darkness — the darkness of grief, fear, and death.

The custom of the early Christians lighting candles and lamps at the tombs of the martyrs gave way to the practice of having candles at Mass, honoring the sacredness of the celebration.

As Christians decorated their worship spaces with statues and icons, they would burn candles in front of sacred images and the relics of the saints, basically “shining a light” on what they held to be sacred. When pilgrims would visit these shrines, they would often bring candles to light before the image or relic. These candles came to be a symbol of the person, and their prayer and the burning these candles came to be understood as an extension and continuation of the prayer that was offered. What began as a practical way to provide light has come to be a symbol of the hopes, desires, loves, losses, fears, and faith of everyday Christians offering their prayers to God and his saints.

KIDS CORNER Read the Gospel and Color picture

When you search for something, God will help you find it. When you look for a birthday present for your cousin, God may help you pick a good one. If you lose your lunch money, God may help you find it. When you need a new friend, God may send one. Whatever you ask for, he will listen to you. God does this for you because he loves you very much.

PRAYER

Lord, remind me to ask you for what I need.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will help my family find items that they have lost.
