Social Justice Statement 2023 - 'Listen, Learn Love'

Australia prepares for the Referendum on the Indigenous Voice to Parliament, our Catholic bishops have invited the nation to seek 'a new engagement' with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples in their annual Social Justice Statement – Listen, Learn, Love: A New Engagement with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples - launched at Emerton on 17 August by Bishop Vincent Long OFM Conv, chair of the Bishops Commission for Social Justice, Mission and Service.

Bishop Long said, 'One of the objectives of this statement is that we want Catholics to understand that Catholic social teaching and Catholic social action are not simply theoretical and academic exercises. We hear what God is saying to us about justice by being with our sisters and brothers on the peripheries of society.'

Recent preparations for the Diocesan Synod have reminded us of the importance of 'deep listening' and this is at the heart of the Statement. Bishop Long commented, 'Listening is hard. Hearing about young people taking their lives, about so many people ending up in jail, of children still being taken away from their parents and grandparents and about the ongoing racism is tough. It must be so much more difficult for these people to tell us about their painful experiences. We are deeply grateful to those who shared their stories of pain with us.'

It is worth noting that the Statement's theme was chosen in May 2022, long before the decision to propose the Voice to Parliament. The bishops are not suggesting how people should vote but reminding us of our responsibility as Church, 'to listen with deep respect and learn from (indigenous people) about what needs to be done to improve their situations. We need to walk with them, day by day, and work with them to bring about change for the better – for their people and for all of us.'

'Our attitudes and actions towards First Nations Peoples need to be grounded in justice, love and humility,' Bishop Long said.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

To stand in the presence of God is to stand in the presence of incomprehensible mystery. We are people of proofs and facts. With good reason, we are becoming more doubtful of what presents itself to us, as technology makes it easy to fabricate false images and distort what is actually true. What we think is real actually may not be. We become skeptical. Does this skepticism affect our relationship with God? To have faith in God means that we must be willing to trust in the absence of full knowledge. To know the mind of God means we would know God himself, and that is impossible. To acknowledge Jesus as the Christ means we acknowledge that the reality and presence of an incarnate God has a fundamental claim on who we are. When we name this truth, we participate in a depth of knowledge that stretches us far beyond the scope of our minds. It brings us to silence, which is the only way to touch our soul.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: The Lord condemns Shebna (a scribe under King Hezekiah) for ignoring Isaiah’s prophetic warning and elevates Eliakim with “a seat of honor.” How well do you listen to prophetic voices?

Second Reading:

Today we hear Paul’s concluding remarks from Romans 9:11 (reflections on God’s plan of salvation for Jews and Gentiles). Paul contends that God’s ways are beyond our understanding. Do you find this comforting or unsettling?

Gospel Reading:

Jesus informs Peter that his confession of him as “the Messiah, the Son of the living God” is divinely inspired. How do you imagine Peter personally reacted to the news of this revelation?

Parents wishing to have their child baptized are asked to contact the Parish Office prior to attending a preparation evening. Next Baptism Preparation session is on Tue 12th Sept 7.00pm. Presenter will be Michael Zammit.

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

Saint Rose of Lima (August 23) and Saint Monica (August 27) are both known for the power of their prayer. Saint Rose is believed to have prevented a devastating earthquake from destroying Lima by praying for the safety of the city. Saint Monica’s persistent prayer helped in the conversion of her son, Augustine, who turned from his hedonistic life and became a Father and Doctor of our Church. Your challenge this week is to tap into the power of prayer. Prayerfully choose an injustice which you see—in your local community, in our country, or in the world. Then pray every day this week for an end to the injustice. Open your heart and listen to what God wants you to do to help end the injustice.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained:
Priestly Ordination of Men

Question:

Why are only men allowed to be priests.

Answer:

One of the most debated and — in some circles — contentious teachings of the Church is that only men can be ordained as priests and deacons. Critics see it as a way of strengthening a patriarchal system in which women have little or no voice. Those who support this teaching look to New Testament teaching (where we read of Jesus choosing only men to be apostles) and the long-standing practice of the Church. This was certainly the perspective of St. John Paul II who, in his 1994 apostolic letter, Ordinatio Sacerdotalis, closed the discussion on the possibility of ordaining women as priests.

In the letter, he reflected on the dignity of women and their call to share in the life and mission of the Church, but he concluded by solemnly declaring that “the Church has no authority whatsoever to confer priestly ordination on women and that this judgement is to be definitely held by all the Church’s faithful” (no. 4).

This position has been upheld by Pope Francis in interviews, most notably as he returned from his 2016 visit to Sweden.

The ordination of women to the diaconate is another question and one which is being studied. In 2016, Pope Francis created a 12-member commission to study the question from several perspectives (theological, liturgical, historical, etc.). The commission issued an initial report for Pope Francis who later said that the commission had not yet produced a “definite response” to the question because of a lack of agreement on the role of female deacons in the Early Church.

For now, however, regardless of what changes might come from ongoing study and debate, the Church continues to reserve ordination to the diaconate to men only, recognizing a vital link between the diaconate and the priesthood and the lack of certainty about the presence and function of female deacons throughout history.

CREATION CARE TIPS

With the back-to-school season upon us, shop at a second-hand store or organize a clothing swap for what the kids need this year, rather than buy all new clothes, backpacks, and school supplies.

Over-consumerism and the desire for new things contribute to an unsustainable economy that continues to deplete the earth of natural resources. Remember the old saying, “Use it up, wear it out, make it do, or do without.”
