'November – Month of Contrasting Moods!'

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed is unique on the liturgical calendar. It is neither a Solemnity nor a Feast, yet it outranks other feasts and can even take the place of a Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our Christian tradition acknowledges our transition from this life, our life in time, to our life in eternity, perhaps with some purification, though the nature of this 'journey' remains a mystery.

Prayer for the dead is part of our history from the earliest days of the Church. As the Month of the Holy Souls, November is a time when we are invited 'to remember our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection' (Eucharistic Prayer II).

Customs vary from place to place but include recording the names of our beloved dead in a special book, asking that they be remembered in Masses during November, visits to the cemetery, parish and family prayers for the dead. Some hold a special Mass or Liturgy at which parishioners and family members gather.

In any event, our prayers are important as we face the great mystery of death, both as a way of becoming more closely bonded with those who have died and especially those with whom we were not always at peace in this life, confident in the promise of ultimate reconciliation in the kingdom where God 'will wipe away every tear from our eyes' (EP III).

While we should pray for those who have died, we pray with faith in the God who is all merciful and wills our salvation. Our prayers are prayers of loving petition and not 'bargaining' with the Lord. In St Augustine's Confessions, St Monica's optimistic faith in God's mercy is expressed in her words to her family when they voiced concern that she might die in Ostia, far from her home in North Africa:

'Nothing is far from God. There is no danger that at the end of the world he will not know where to find me and raise me up.' (Book IX, 28)

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

To know more about the life of the parish, you can grab a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or go to this link on our website:

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

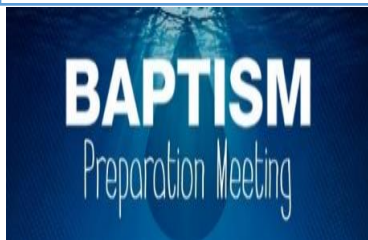

God does not set things in motion or create something and then step back to attend to other matters. When God creates, God remains connected. God's continued and constant presence is necessary for everything we see to exist. Without God, life as we know it would cease. God's imperishable spirit is in all things! Being the author of love, God cannot despise or hate Himself. Therefore, God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. How can God be repulsed by the image of Himself reflected in a human soul? Jesus goes to the homes of sinners. His very presence there is enough to change even the most conflicted and self-serving of hearts. The soul who realizes its utter dependency upon God is a soul who knows salvation. The beginnings of salvation's blessings are discovered when we understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We find what our selfishness lost.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

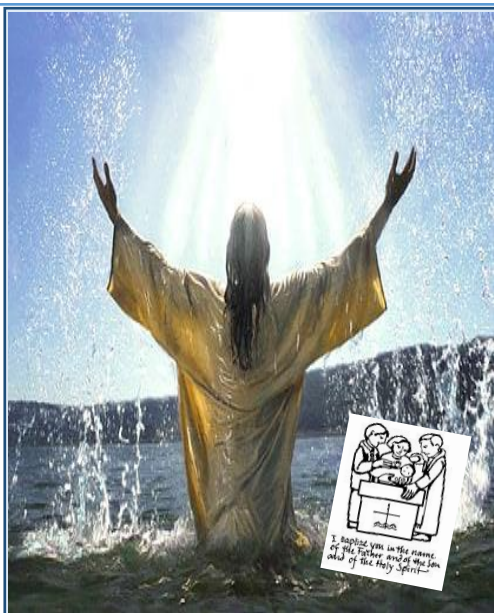

First Reading: Wisdom teaches us that the Lord mercifully and lovingly awaits us to stop sinning and return to Him. What behaviors in your life are holding you back from a deeper relationship with Jesus?

Second Reading: Paul is concerned that the believers in the city of Thessalonica are being misled by others about the second coming of Christ. What do you think is an effective way to address any messages that belittle or disregard our beliefs?

Gospel Reading: Jesus sees in Zacchaeus, the chief tax collector, an opportunity to teach the crowds that as the Son of Man, he has "come to seek and to save what was lost." Are you included in that description? How does that make you feel?

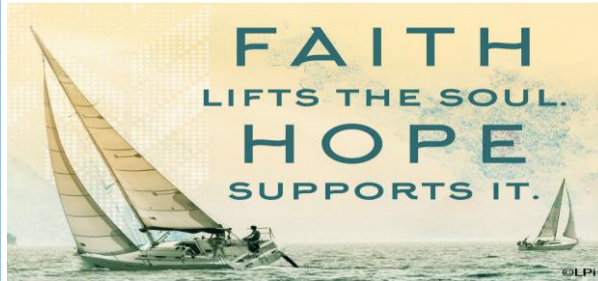

Parents wishing to have their child baptized are asked to contact the Parish Office prior to attending a preparation evening. Next Baptism Preparation session is on Tue 14th Nov 7.00pm. Presenter will be Joyce McMahon.

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

November is Native American Heritage Month. One of the most precious gifts which Native Americans have given to our country is their deep respect for God's creation. They remind us that nature is a gift from God to be treasured and protected. As Chief Seattle said in his eloquent address to the U.S. Congress in 1854, "Every part of this soil is sacred in the estimation of my people. Every hillside, every valley, every plain and grove, has been hallowed by some sad or happy event in days long vanished." Your challenge this week is to choose one action you can do to protect our planet. It might involve better recycling or deciding not to drink bottled water. It might be taking a bus or walking instead of using your car for a quick trip to the store. Reduce your carbon footprint while honoring our Native American brothers and sisters this month. At the end of the week, make a commitment to protecting the environment by taking the St. Francis Pledge (CatholicClimateCovenant.org).

5km a Day in October

Making change, one step at a time

I am walking 5km a day during October to raise funds for the 40,000 people living with Dementia. The dementia rate is expected to double by 2028. It is the second leading cause of death in Australia. Donations will fund medical research to find a cure for dementia and will ensure essential support services including the National Dementia Helpline are available.

Donations can be made until 15 November using the following link:

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

"Right is right even if no one is doing it; wrong is wrong even if everyone is doing it."

Augustine of Hippo

Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

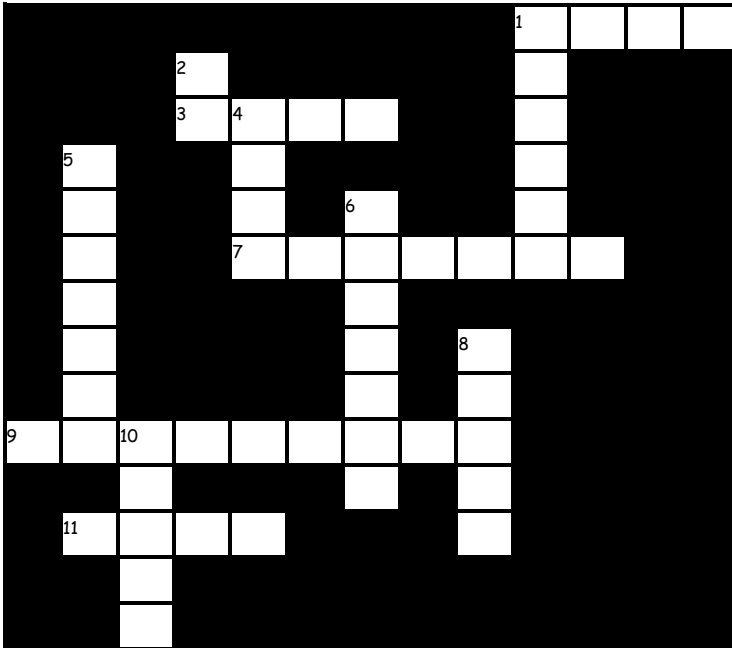

Why do some sacraments leave a character or mark on the soul? Don't all sacraments affect the soul?

Answer:

All sacraments mediate grace and connect us to Christ and to the Church. Some sustain us in our faith journey, while others help us heal from the effects of sin. Each one offers a share in God's life, giving us what we need to be faithful followers of Jesus. But some sacraments change us in ways that are irreversible. The three sacraments that leave a character are Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders. We are literally different people because of the effect of the grace of those sacraments. We are changed at the core of our being in such a fundamental way that we cannot go back to what we once were.

In Baptism, we are freed from original sin, initiated into the Body of Christ as adopted sons and daughters. In Confirmation, we are given the fullness of God's Spirit, sealed in his grace and gifted with what we need to live a Christian life. In Holy Orders, a priest is marked as an 'alter Christus,' another Christ, and is once and forever a priest who offers sacrifice, forgives sin, and acts in the person of Christ. In these three sacraments, we are conformed more closely to Christ, reflecting his love and truth.

CREATION CARE TIPS

As winter approaches and heating bills creep higher, remember what Pope Francis wrote in Laudato Si': "A person who could afford to spend and consume more but regularly uses less heating and wears warmer clothes, shows the kind of convictions and attitudes which help to protect the environment." The next time you think of turning up the heat, put on another layer of clothes or cuddle up with a blanket instead.
