Jesus heals Simon's mother-in-law.

HE CURED MANY WHO WERE SICK.
- MK 1:34

5th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

VOICE FROM THE PHEWS

After leaving the synagogue, Jesus enters Peter's house and cures his mother-in-law. The town begins to gather at the door bringing their sick and possessed. Jesus cured many of them. He leaves with his disciples and travels to the nearby villages to preach and cast out demons

I believe that most of us have some sort of demon inside us. Something we would really like to change about ourselves, but just can't. I'm not talking about superficial things like the size of our nose or hips. It's an inside thing—some bad habit or personal sin that usually ends up hurting the people closest to us or even ourselves.

It could be something like losing your temper, not thinking before you speak or not speaking when you should. It might even be some sort of addiction. With me it was letting my anger loose in unhealthy ways, usually by yelling at the people I loved most.

When my children were little, my husband traveled. I was lucky enough to be a stay-at-home mom, but I got to stay home with five kids under ten. I loved my children; there is no question that I would have died for them. But whenever I thought of Paul's message in 1 Corinthians 13, "love is patient; love is kind... it is slow to anger..." I cringed. That was not me. I woke every morning and said to myself, "I will get through this day without yelling. I will try harder, work harder; I can change."

The truth was I couldn't change, not by myself that is. It wasn't until I could say, "I cannot do this God, please help me," that I could begin to tame my demon. My morning prayer became, "Lord, fill me with your love and strength so that I can get through breakfast without yelling." And then, "Get me to lunchtime, Lord."

I finally discovered that the love Paul was talking about in 1 Corinthians was something stronger than even a mother's love; it was God's love. The great thing is that with God's help (and sometimes some professional help) we can all conquer our own worst demons. We just have to ask.

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

To know more about the life of the parish, you can grab a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or go to this link on our website:

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

Have you ever wondered what life would be like if you could see the future and know how things turn out? While it's intriguing to ponder what life would be like if we possessed this knowledge, actually knowing could easily rob us of the thrill, adventure, and soul-searching graces of our journey. Like Job, life does not always leave us on a happy note. Life experience can bring us face-to-face with our mortality and leave us with a profound sense of helplessness. We do not see the wholeness and fulfillment that will one day come and cannot grasp the certainty that a resolution to our plight will come our way. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet. Living a life of faith means realizing that we are not here to figure out life on our own. In order to drink deeply of what life presents us, we have to wrestle in the depths of our souls, agonize and search, possibly reach the lowest point of desperation, and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. It is no wonder that those who are touched by God's healing power want to then serve others and show them the deeper waters that can be explored. Knowing too much can rob us of joyful surprises.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

First Reading: We hear how Job struggled to find meaning and hope in his life. How does your faith help you get through difficult times in your life?

Second Reading: Paul speaks of his singular desire to preach the "gospel" (the Good News of Jesus Christ). When do you share the gospel message with others?

Gospel Reading: We learn that from the beginning of his public ministry Jesus was very purpose-driven: healing the sick and preaching the good news. How intentional is the practice of faith in your daily life?

Parents wishing to have their child baptized are asked to contact the Parish Office prior to attending a preparation evening. Next Baptism Preparation session is on Tue 13th Feb 7.00pm. Presenter will be Seaview Kama.

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

The Gospel reading for Sunday describes Jesus healing people all day, and then getting up the next morning to be deeply absorbed in prayer. Jesus cared for the poor and the sick and those marginalized by society. But he never forgot the source of the healing which he did—his heavenly Father, whom he called "Abba," or "Daddy." He kept in close contact with the Father throughout his life. Your challenge this week is to reflect on the relationship between prayer and action in your own lives—as individuals and as a family or household. Do you have a healthy and holy pattern of prayer which is part of your daily routine? Do you let that prayer lead you to the actions which God wants you to take to help heal a hurting world? Remember that part of a vibrant prayer life is letting God speak once you are done talking. Listen to what God wants you to do just as Jesus did when he lived on earth.

CREATION CARE TIPS

"In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed." – Mark 1:35. Many people find it easier to pray when surrounded by nature. Can you go to a quiet place in nature to pray this week?

Do you live in the desert? Is there a forest nearby where you can take a walk?

Or is there a body of water you can sit by?

What about praying while working on your farm or in your garden?

Even if you live in a busy city, see if you can find a sliver of nature to pray in this week.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Is it ever Ok to leave Mass before it ends?

Answer:

This is an interesting question because beneath the surface there seems to be an assumption that if it's okay, then why do we have to stay after we receive communion? The short answer is "no," but we definitely want to go a bit deeper as we consider why.

We will be a better Church if we have a clearer understanding and knowledge of Who and what we celebrate.

First, when we think about questions like this, we must consider this in adult terms. If there is something gravely important that we need to do, then we must attend to that. However, if it is a matter of convenience or preference, then we really have to stop and think again. First, while we always want to recognize the importance of sacramental communion in the Mass, we also need to understand how important the time of thanksgiving and prayer after communion is. This is summarized in the Prayer After Communion offered by the celebrant and then we are also commissioned to "Go forth" during the Dismissal of the Mass, reminding us that we have been entrusted with a gift — the Word of God and the Presence of Christ in the sacrament — and that we are to share that gift with others.

If we simply leave after we receive communion, we risk two things. First, there is the possibility that we will turn our reception of communion into a purely personal, individual experience that is separated from our common experience of worship — and communion in the fullest sense — and, second, we lose an opportunity for gratitude and serious reflection if we simply leave after communion. This time of thanksgiving, reflection, and, ultimately, missioning, are important and, in the end, an essential part of the celebration of the Mass.
