Whatever Happened to the Diocesan Synod?

Dear Friends,

Last October eight members of our Parish Community participated in the Diocese of Parramatta Synod. This followed a series of consultations throughout the diocese, the results of which formed the framework of the Working Document. Importantly, our local Synod coincided with the International Synod in Rome, a reminder that the Holy Spirit is present and active across the Church.

On 15 January, Bishop Vincent issued a Synodal Decree promulgating the resolutions of our inaugural Diocesan Synod in preparation for development of a pastoral plan for our Diocese. Many will remember Faith in Our Future, the 2014-2018 Plan during Bishop Anthony Fisher's time as Bishop.

Bishop Vincent has initiated the formulation of a draft Diocesan Plan based on the 24 resolutions adopted by the Synod. The Plan is being drafted by a Writing Group, in collaboration with a Reference Group, composed of members from our Diocesan faith community possessing strong theological or pastoral backgrounds.

In a recent letter, he advised that broad consultation will continue: "By April, a draft of the Diocesan Plan will be ready to serve as the foundation of our continued synodal journey, as we embark on a two-month period of discerning action through targeted 'Think Tank Sessions.' These sessions provide leaders of our local faith communities with the opportunity to collectively reflect on and discuss the practical implementation of the draft Diocesan Plan within their unique contexts.

"Crucially, we recognise that the voices, experiences, and insights of the People of God in our Diocese are essential in shaping a practical, realistic, and hope-filled Diocesan Plan. Your perspectives are integral to creating a plan that authentically reflects our shared mission and vision, propelling our Diocese towards a more synodal Church."

The Diocesan Plan for a Synodal Church will be officially launched on Saturday 10 August 2024 in the St Patrick's Cathedral precinct in Parramatta – something to look forward to!

Fr. Dave

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

With our world in such constant turmoil and conflict, it makes such good sense to return to the simple directives given in the Ten Commandments. God's unassuming guidelines provide the perfect recipe for ordering our relationships with God, others, and even ourselves. But yet, we are so quick to glance beyond them and even remove them from public view because we foolishly believe we can create something better. Arrogance runs far deeper in the members of our society than we can ever imagine. Lent is a perfect time to call ourselves back to our foundations and the basic relationships that comprise our lives. It is also a time to remember that Jesus is the true sign of God's presence. Everything he says and does, including his suffering and death, is a sign of the God who sent him. The anger we witness when Jesus exhorts those in the temple to stop making his Father's house a marketplace can equally be seen in his anger and frustration over humanity's constant mission to turn God's creation into a secular world. We have a lot of work to do for sure.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

First Reading:

In God's revelation to Moses of His "10 Commandments," seven of the ten Commandments regulate how we are to relate to each other. Which of these seven Commandments challenges you most?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of Jesus as both the "power of God and the wisdom of God." How could you prove Paul's assertion to a non-believer?

Gospel Reading:

John connects Jesus' cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem to Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead with a quote from Psalm 69: "Zeal for your house will consume me." During this season of Lent, how passionate is our faith?

WEEKLY
JUSTICE CHALLENGES

In the First Reading (Exodus 20:1-17) for this Sunday, we hear the story of God giving the Ten Commandments to the Israelites. Did you know that many, if not most, of the justice teachings in the Catechism of the Catholic Church are found in the section on the commandments, particularly Commandment Seven—You Shall Not Steal? This is because the Seventh Commandment reminds us of how important it is to be other-centered and to respect their rights and property. Jesus' whole life was a witness to living for others. As disciples, we are called to follow Jesus' example. Your challenge this week is to choose one thing you can do each day which is totally other-centered, something which has no direct benefits for you. Do it, not because it makes you feel good or makes you proud, but simply because it's what God is calling you to do.

PARISH NEWS AND EVENTS

Third Sunday of Lent 2 & 3 March

Samoa may be a country surrounded by water, but access to clean drinking water is scarce in some areas, with many families facing extreme hardship as a result. Leaia lives with her five children, husband, brother and sister-in-law on the island of Upolu in Samoa. Not having access to a reliable source of clean water caused Leaia a lot of worry. Their home is not connected to a piped water system, so they had to rely solely on rainwater collected in old fridges. When their water ran out, Leaia had to walk with her young children to collect water in buckets and containers from a neighbour down the street. With the support of Caritas Australia's local partner, Caritas Samoa, a water tank was installed at Leaia's home. She and her family now have a steady supply of clean drinking water at home. Next year, they will also have a toilet built, with the support of Caritas Samoa, which will further improve their health and living conditions. "We are very thankful and grateful for the water tank. It has helped us so much and made our daily life easier," Leaia said.

Please donate to Project Compassion.

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow for all future generations. You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from your parish, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413.

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

CREATION CARE TIPS

"You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath." –Exodus 20:4. Pope Francis spoke about humanity's new idols: money and profit. "It is no longer man who commands but money; money, cash commands... men and women are sacrificed to the idols of profit and consumption: it is the 'culture of waste.'" (St. Peter's Square, 2013). This week, confront the culture of waste in your life and home. Reduce single-use items (paper plates, plastic cups, etc) and don't buy anything new that is not essential. Donate money and hardly-used items and clothes to local organizations supporting the homeless and those in need.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

What's the difference between priests and brothers, friars, etc.?

Answer:

The distinctions titles and categories used for priests and the male members of religious communities can be confusing, especially since the categories can sometimes be intertwined as a man can be both a priest and a monk, or a brother and a friar. So, to help to piece the puzzle together, it's important to begin by noting some basic distinctions:

The distinction between priests (who are ordained for sacramental ministry) and brothers (who are non-ordained members of religious communities and who are committed to lives of prayer and service). To this, we can also add the incensing of the Blessed Sacrament during eucharistic adoration and benediction, and the body of the deceased at the end of the Mass of the Resurrection (the Funeral Mass).

Priests: A priest is a man who has been ordained for sacramental ministry and these fall into two categories: A) Diocesan (or Secular) Priests can either be attached to a diocese and who serve under a bishop. Their ministry is usually oriented toward pastoral service.

B) Religious Priests are members of religious communities (like the Franciscans, Jesuits, Salvatorians, or Carmelites) and their lives are guided by the special mission and charism of their community. While both kinds of priest practice sacramental ministry, their spirituality and how they live out their priesthood can be very different.

Brothers: Brothers are non-ordained members of religious communities (such as those mentioned above) who live lives committed to prayer and service. Religious priests and brothers serve together in their communities and their ministries include much more than the care of parishes.

Monks, Friars, and Canons: These are broad categories that include religious priests and brothers, and each of these is connected to specific ways of life and spiritualities.
