Easter Faith – ‘Healing the Broken!’

Dear Friends,

I’ve always been fascinated by the ‘earthiness’ of Jesus’ appearances to his disciples - ‘Have you anything here to eat?’. Perhaps his question to them in today’s Gospel is his way of helping them to appreciate and understand that his rising from the dead can make a difference in the ordinariness of our everyday lives.

The disciples’ response is agitation, fear and doubt but Jesus reassures his astonished disciples, ‘Touch me and see for yourselves.’ In his wounds, the disciples recognise him - echoes of Jesus’ encounter with Thomas who needed to be convinced that Jesus was still alive by touching his wounds.

The heart of Jesus’ ministry is about his special care and healing of the ‘wounded’. We know well how his teaching and loving care often soothe our ‘wounds’. Through apparent woundedness, we learn about how we are to follow him. In Matthew 25, Jesus identifies with the ‘wounded’ - those who are hungry, thirsty, naked, sick, in prison, strangers. It took the just a little while to recognise the risen Jesus in these people.

The woundedness of humanity is constantly before our eyes - in Gaza, Ukraine and many other nations - victims of war, famine, natural disasters, and different forms of abuse. South African civil rights advocate Allan Boesak suggests that, when we enter the next life, Jesus will only ask us to show our wounds - the outward sign that we’ve spent our lives imitating him.

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

You are witnesses of these things.

—LUKE 24:48

When the greeting “Peace be with you” is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate very deep within, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds so that we can more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God’s compassionate, loving, tender, and untiring embrace constantly present and offered to people throughout history. Without the anchor of truth that only God can provide, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God’s offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God’s gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim the Good News.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

First Reading:

In publicly bearing witness to Jesus’ resurrection, Peter urged the people to repent of their sin of ignorance and their denial of Jesus. How does Jesus’ resurrection from the dead inspire you to repentance?

Second Reading:

John teaches his community that the key to avoiding sin is to follow Jesus’ commandments. What do you find challenging in this seemingly simple and clear instruction?

Gospel Reading:

Luke tells us that the resurrected Jesus opened the minds of the disciples “to understand the Scriptures” and see how his suffering, death, and resurrection was connected to repentance and forgiveness of sins. What tools do you use to better understand our faith?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

April 18 is Vocations Day. In Sons and Daughters of the Light, our U.S. Catholic Bishops encourage young adults to answer the universal call, or vocation, to holiness, community, and service. While each person lives out his/her vocation through a particular lifestyle—marriage, priesthood, religious life, or single life—we are all called to holiness and community and service. This means that service is not just for Confirmation candidates. It is part of lifelong discipleship. Your challenge this week is to focus on the call to service. Is service a regular part of your life—as an individual, but also as a family or household? How often do you serve? Where do you serve? Is there one particular cause to which you can give more of your time and talent for the good of those in need? If there is, then just do it because the JUST do it—they serve others!

‘Infinite dignity’ – Vatican Document

Dignitas Infinita is a Latin phrase that means "infinite dignity". It refers to the idea that every human person possesses an infinite dignity, which is inalienably grounded in his or her very being, and which prevails in and beyond every circumstance, state, or situation the person may ever encounter. The phrase is often used in the context of people with disabilities, who can often be marginalized or oppressed.

Australia’s Catholic bishops have acknowledged the release in Rome of the document, Dignitas Infinita which was 5 years in the making.

Prefect for the Dicastery of the Doctrine of the Faith, Cardinal Victor Manuel Fernandez, described the document as offering ‘some points for reflection that can help us maintain an awareness of human dignity amid the complex historical moment in which we are living... This is so that we may not lose our way and open ourselves up to more wounds and profound sufferings amid the numerous concerns and anxieties of our time.’

The document states that ‘every human person possesses an infinite dignity, inalienably grounded in his or her very being, which prevails in and beyond every circumstance, state, or situation the person may ever encounter’.

It talks of four types of dignity (ontological, moral, social and existential) the most important of which is ontological – that is the dignity which belongs to the person “simply because he or she exists and is willed, created, and loved by God ... (it) is indelible and remains valid beyond any circumstances in which the person may find themselves”.

The document notes that ‘there is an ever-growing risk of reducing human dignity to the ability to determine one’s identity and future independently of others, without regard for one’s membership in the human community. In this flawed understanding of freedom, the mutual recognition of duties and rights that enable us to care for each other becomes impossible.’

It identifies 13 ‘grave violations’ of human dignity: poverty; war; the mistreatment of migrants; human trafficking; sexual abuse; violence against women; abortion; surrogacy; euthanasia and assisted suicide; the marginalisation of people with disabilities; gender theory; sex change; and digital violence.

The ACBC commends Dignitas Infinita for study and reflection.

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

Answer:

For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child's "First Confession" can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their "First Confession" and "First Communion" help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church.
