Dear Friends,

The Season of Easter may be over but we still have a couple of magnificent Sunday Feasts to celebrate – the Most Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. This weekend it is the Trinity – the very essence of who God is as a God of love.

Just as love is the 'real thing', talk about love is no substitute for it. The same goes for God. There's something engaging about a God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit because each dimension of God expresses an openness towards us, an invitation for us to participate in the life of the One in whose mind you and I have been since the creation of the world. God as Trinity is the defining model of community from which we derive our energy and identity.

Understanding the Trinity is an incredible challenge but we must remember that we really don't have much of a clue about who God is - echoes of Augustine: 'If you think you understand God, it is not him that you have understood!' Better to leave the head aside and approach God with our heart. Through the Holy Spirit, we become sons and daughters of God and with Jesus, we can pray to God as 'Abba, Father'. The Our Father is the prayer of Jesus and we pray to the Father, we pray with Jesus, we pray in the Spirit.

The Trinity is about who God is but it is also very much about who we are – our identity which we find in the sign of the Trinity, the sign of the Cross! It is the name in which we are baptised; it is the sign we make when we begin our prayer; it is the sign made on the child's forehead by parents and godparents before baptism; it is the sign made with the various holy oils when we receive the sacraments.

Our great God fills us with his gift of love – our heart is where it happens. As our children prepare to receive Confirmation in June, we pray that they will enjoy the mystery, which is God present in their lives.

Fr. Dave

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

To know more about the life of the parish, you can grab a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or go to this link on our website:

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

The immensity, scope, intimacy, and pervasiveness of God’s presence is too intense for the human mind. We often limit God by our expectations of Him and have a hard time just letting God be God. Some people all too easily lose faith because God does not meet their expectations. Worse still, the idea of faith is rejected altogether by others because of polarities and experiences they have that don’t square with who they need God to be. The Holy Trinity is one of those teachings that is best encountered rather than dissected. It is only through being present with the Trinity that we can experience both the immensity and otherness of God’s presence as well as the intimacy of the God who wants us to call Him “dad.” We feel the loving guidance of a God who wants to take us from fear and give us confidence. Our God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow is a God of all ages whose three-fold Presence invades all senses, seasons, and times. God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is much more than any of our expectations if we simply let God be who God is.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

First Reading:

In the closing remarks of the speech delivered to the Israelites in the desert, Moses reflects on God’s fidelity and love for them. In return for God’s favor, the Israelites are instructed to keep God’s statutes and commandments. Why do you think so many people are resistant to this divine expectation?

Second Reading:

Paul sees the Holy Spirit as integral to our identity as “children of God” and “joint heirs with Christ.” How do you sense our Triune God at work in your life?

Gospel Reading:

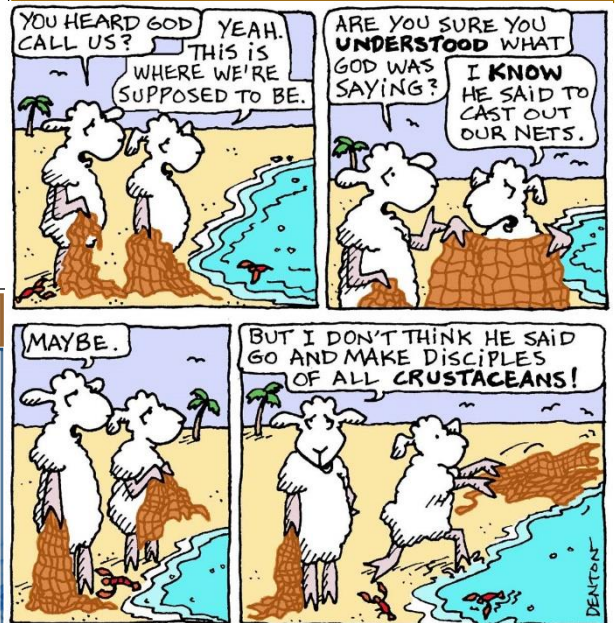

We hear today the closing words in the Gospel of Matthew — Jesus’ final commissioning of the disciples to evangelize and baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. What insights to the nature of God does this divine relationship offer?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

This week we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity and remember one of our most beloved popes – Pope John XXIII, who died on June 3, 1963. The Trinity, our belief that God is a communion of Father, Son and Spirit, reminds us that we are called to live in communion with each other. Catholics are people who build unity in the world. Pope John XXIII nudged the Church to build communion not only inside the Church, but also with the rest of the world. He knew that people had to live their faith in the world and encouraged Catholics to do so. He called the second Vatican Council and had a dream...a vision... that the church would be a light of unity to all the world. While the Trinity is a mystery, isn’t a mystery at all as to HOW the Church is to be a light. Each of us has gifts and must use those gifts in the service of others to build unity. How are you a light to your friends, family, school, co-workers and even strangers or enemies? This week, explore the areas of division in your life and try to be a light to someone each day.

PENTECOST CELEBRATION – THANK YOU!

Last Sunday’s Celebration of our Parish Feast Day was a wonderful occasion for our Community, beginning with the Eucharist which was very well-attended and followed by our gathering in HSP grounds for refreshments and activities. We thank all those responsible for the Liturgy, including ministers, readers, musicians and presiding Augustinians. Students from Holy Spirit Primary, Trinity and Emmaus participated in the Mass, along with staff and school families, and enhanced the celebration. Decoration of our worship space was very striking and we thank the banner team, flower ministry and donors for their contribution. Small groups attended the Triduum and generous parishioners provided supper. Organisation of Sunday’s activities was overseen by the PPC Executive, with the help of many volunteers who provided delicious food, including cookies for those attending other Masses and a celebration cake. Entertainment, music and other activities were provided by parish volunteers and groups, including our children’s choir and cultural dancers. As usual, the set-up and clean-up were very efficient and we thank our volunteers, Parish staff and all who contributed in any way. Together, we are a stronger Faith Community!

Safeguarding Information Series –

Standard 3: Families and communities are informed and involved.

As you'd be aware, the Diocese is committed to keeping children, young people, and vulnerable adults safe. We have processes in place to keep this commitment. The Diocese Safeguarding website has links to Government and non-Government safeguarding websites with useful information for parents in relation to keeping their children safe (<https://parracatholic.org/safeguarding>).

Our relationships with our children, however, place us in a privileged position where we can have important conversations about how they can keep themselves safe, and who to talk to when they don't feel safe.

It's not always easy to know where to start the "safety" conversation, but a range of resources are available to parents on the internet which can advise parents on what to discuss and even how to approach the conversation!

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

"The Father is the one who loves, the Son is the one who is loved (the 'beloved Son' revealed in the baptism of Jesus), and the Holy Spirit is the love that flows between them and binds them together."

Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

If it isn't only for people who are dying, when should someone receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

Answer:

One of the unfortunate realities in the Church today is that so few people understand the meaning and value of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, largely because so many people still mistakenly think of this sacrament as "Last Rites" or "Extreme Unction."

In his life and ministry, Jesus healed the sick. In this sacrament, the Church continues the healing mission of Jesus and, in hope, prays that God will grant healing to the person who is suffering. But even if there is no physical healing, the sacrament offers spiritual healing through the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage.

And so, anyone who is living with serious illness (including emotional or psychological illness) and the elderly are encouraged to celebrate this sacrament when it is needed.

The ritual for Anointing of the Sick does also include special prayers and blessings for those who are facing death, including viaticum (communion given to the dying, trusting that the Lord Jesus will be their companion along the way, as they make their final journey).

CREATION CARE TIPS

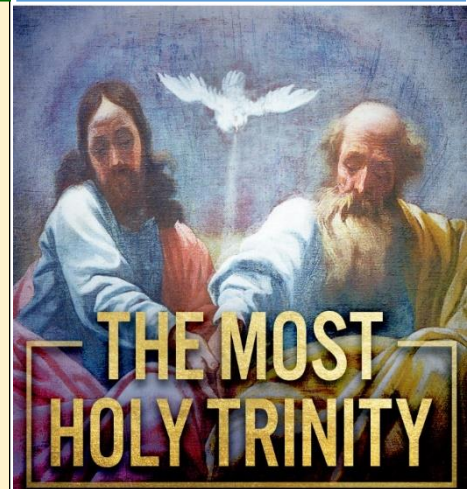

"And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

—Matthew 28:20.

Being conscious of climate change and environmental disasters can be frightening, depressing, and exhausting.

Just before Jesus left his apostles for the last time, and they were frightened about what was in store for the future, he spoke these words of reassurance.

Instead of dwelling on the bad news this week, take some time in nature to meditate on these last words of Jesus spoken in Matthew's Gospel.
