Grace That Touches Us - 'Knowing Our Vocation!'

Dear Friends,

Each time I baptize a baby I include family members who are with the Lord in the Litany of Saints - our 'family saints' whose faith has influenced our own growth in faith, whatever condition it is in today. We need to reflect on how God has been and continues to be active in our lives. The recent feast of Mary's parents Joachim and Anne and Pope Francis' initiative in establishing in 2021 the annual World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly on the 4th Sunday of July remind us of the significant people in our lives whom we need to bless and carry in prayer.

The life of each of us is important and celebration of grandparents and the elderly brings us back to basics - respect for all human life actually - to quote Pope Francis, 'Grandparents and the elderly are not leftovers from life, scraps to be discarded. They are a precious source of nourishment... They protected us as we grew, and now it is up to us to protect their lives, to alleviate their difficulties, to attend to their needs and to ensure that they are helped in daily life and do not feel alone.'

In affirming our elders, their lives and dreams, the Holy Father affirms in each of us our personal vocation - our call to be who we are, our identity, family, nationality, religious faith - before any choice of a lifestyle vocation in the single, married or committed religious state. Each is called to live lives of commitment, love and grace in the vocation of our choice. Grace touches each of us through our extended family, parish and wider community - young, old, married, single, widowed, separated, divorced, religious or priest - who make such a difference through their generous love and outreach to their family, community and Church.

Each year at this time, the Church invites us to reflect on our personal call as baptized Christians during National Vocations Awareness Week (4-11 August). Most of us go that extra step to make a difference, to live in response to Christ's call. While we need priests and religious, the Church is about much more than that. Vocation is about all of us - our faithfulness to family life, passion for justice, our need to make a difference, our idealism, commitment and love. Vocation is about living expectantly and being prepared for the unexpected, giving of ourselves in the service of others when needed. Parents know this so well in their ministry within the family - vocation is already built into parenting and family life. Christ comes into our lives unexpectedly and quietly. Could that be why we sometimes miss him? As we pray for Marriage and Family Life, the Single Life, and the call to Ecclesial Ministry in the Church, we remember the Spirit's gifts and fruits which are about hospitality - extending the hospitality of Jesus to everyone who seeks it - foundation of a Christian vocation.

The Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. We acknowledge with respect the elders past and present.

We are a welcoming parish. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of this Community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perhaps you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries as: Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, Choir, etc.

Persons are formally registered by filling out a form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

To know more about the life of the parish, you can grab a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or go to this link on our website:

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God." (St Augustine)

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

We're grateful to those who continue to financially support our parish.

GOD BLESS YOU.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

When we lose our ability to trust, we become afraid. When we are afraid, we may begin to grumble and question whether where we are is where we need to be. For us who have faith, we even question whether God is who God says He is. Trust is so important to our success on our journey. Often, the road of our lives can become a bit treacherous. We may find ourselves feeling more unsettled than comfortable and less fulfilled than we would like to be. As much as we try, the pieces of our puzzle don't quite fit together as they ought. We wonder if we will ever experience happiness again. Then, something reminds us that God is very much present in this mess we call life. God is still bringing hope out of despair and life out of death.

After all, God is the true bread that comes down from heaven to give life. All that is necessary is for us to trust in this truth, even when we may be lacking in some of life's essentials. The God who gives life is the same God who sustains it. He is also the same God who assures us that we will not perish.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Early in their Exodus journey, the Israelites expressed fear and frustration to Moses. God heard and responded to their "grumbling" by sending bread from heaven. When you have you experienced God answering your plea for help?

Second Reading: Paul told the Ephesians that as believers in Christ you should "put away" the bad parts of "your former way of life." How have you done this in your life as a believer in Christ?

Gospel: We hear today the introduction of Jesus' extended "bread of life" discourse. In referring back to the ancient Israelites who ate "manna" (bread) in the desert, Jesus tells the crowds: "I am the bread of life." How would you explain to someone how Jesus sustains you?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

One of Blessed Pope Paul the VI's most famous quotes is, "If you want peace, work for justice." This idea comes from years of Catholic social teaching responding to the world and the issues at hand in any given age. This statement can be clearly understood today. Just take a look at the civil war in Syria. At the heart of the refugee crisis is a lack of justice from a government that has amassed wealth while the people go hungry or without opportunities for education and participation in decisions that affect them. Followers of Jesus Christ must work to alleviate issues that attack the dignity of the human person – with works of charity and acts of justice. What exactly does that mean? When Syrian refugees are hungry and homeless, we must feed them and help them get the safe homes they deserve. Those would be acts of charity. At the same time, we can encourage our government to pressure the Syrian government to alleviate the problem and find solutions that will benefit the people and ensure the people won't suffer so terribly ever again. Policy and political change are both ways to bring justice. Both are needed to make change happen. Your challenge is to choose an injustice you see in your community. Ask questions about the issue. What do I know about this injustice and what don't I know? Who is affected by the issue? Who has the power to change the issue? Who seeks to gain if the issue isn't resolved? Now... what are YOU going to do about the issue? Start today.

AUGUSTINIAN SPIRITUALITY

“Trust the past to the mercy of God, the present to His love, and the future to His providence.”

Augustine of Hippo

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God’s people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaimed the Gospel. Our awareness of God’s presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God’s people.

CREATION CARE TIPS

Then the Lord said to Moses, “I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day.” –Exodus 16:4. So much of our environmental crisis can be traced to people taking, using, and wasting much more than they need each day, month, or year, not trusting that God will provide what we need the following day, month, or year. This week, examine how you consume and store up more food, clothing, technology, or plastic items than you ever need. Choose at least one such item to cut back on so that you only buy or consume what you need each day.
