'MARY – Source of Consolation and Grace'

Dear Friends,

Every one of us knows sadness and sorrow in some form. This past week, our parish celebrated 5 funerals - different ages and backgrounds, from the beginning of life to old age. This Sunday, I'll preside again at Sunday Mass in Lawson where the community carries the recent tragedy of the Smith children who had attended the Parish school. While most of us know grief and sadness well, we come to realise that some carry sadness far beyond our comprehension.

September is the month of Our Lady of Sorrows and it includes the feasts of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross and Our Lady of Sorrows on consecutive days, so the whole reality of suffering and sorrow is quite prominent in the liturgy. In these final weeks before our Parish Fiesta Novena and Community Celebration, we are invited to be mindful of the fullness of the life that Mary lived.

Sadness and loss are far broader than death as we well know but they can dominate and change lives. Suffering does not mean an absence of hope or value in life – quite the opposite. In many respects our suffering and sadness form our character and make us who we are. Certainly we were not created to suffer, yet it is something we all know well. Remarkably, many families can still celebrate the joy of the person who graced their lives.

Mary is a reassuring and reflective figure for us on our journey. Suffering and sorrow bond us with Mary and with one another in a unique way but we need to keep the balance and remember the incredible joy Mary knew in her life too – the birth of Jesus, family celebrations, marital bliss with Joseph, seeing her son touch the lives of so many, the Resurrection, and her role in the early Church.

Pope Francis reminds us wisely, 'Hope is a constant miracle!' Mary is truly a disciple of hope, our advocate and friend whose various titles reflect this – Perpetual Help, Wisdom, Kindness, Good Counsel, Consolation, Help of Christians, Grace... I suggest we reflect on the earliest known altarpiece by Albrecht Dürer - The Seven Sorrows of the Virgin – as an aid to our prayer in these times.

Fr. Dave

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

What does it mean to be God's servant? In essence, it means being willing to call the world back to its childlike innocence, showing all that a joy-filled playfulness has a place in life. The servant of God serves to foster the Kingdom of God. God's kingdom is not a sterile, unhappy, strict, and rigid reality. It is quite the opposite. It is a kingdom devoid of jealousy and selfish ambition where peace, gentleness, mercy, and good works abound. To be a servant of this kingdom means that selfish ambition must be set aside so that others can be first, and justice pursued at all cost. The prayer of this kind of servant is not focused on self-advancement or need. Rather, the servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. In this way, we who are servants can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led by God. We can then be used to lay the cornerstones of the kingdom: faith, hope, and love. It is upon these that God's firm dwelling is built. Accepting this call may place us last in the world's eyes but first in God's.

FIRST READING: The Wisdom writer reveals the mentality of the wicked, characterized by revenge and treachery. How best should people of faith respond to such behavior?

SECOND READING: James offers insight into the human condition as it relates to how often our ambitions and passions can lead us astray. How do you keep yourself grounded in holy intentions?

GOSPEL READING: We hear today how the disciples were afraid to ask Jesus questions and reluctant to share with him some of their tensions. Why do you sometimes hold back from opening up to the Lord?

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGES

St. Vincent de Paul's Feast Day is September 27. This saint once wrote, "I am for God and the poor." In mid-life, Vincent underwent a transformation which caused him to dedicate the rest of his life to those in need. He taught his followers that we encounter Christ in the needs of our poor neighbors, stating that "The poor are your masters and you are their servants." Your challenge this week is to interview someone in poverty and let them tell you what they most need. You might consider serving at a soup kitchen or shelter to find your "master", the person to whom you are going to listen. Then really do listen—with your heart as well as your head—to this person's wisdom and experience. Try your best to do what he/she recommends to help the poor get out of their
