Fourth Sunday of Advent Year C

22 December 2024

Dear Friends,

Often in the liturgy we hear mention of 'Israel' referring to God's Chosen People in the Advent readings and in the Old Testament psalms from which the Church draws the responses to the Mass readings and the hours of the Prayer of the Church that priests, religious and others pray daily. Especially in times of trial, the verses of the ancient psalms jump off the page – I recall the 9/11 tragedy when these prayers came alive, true also in our time as the Scriptures vision of the House of Israel is tested by current world events.

As our Advent journey nears its end, our focus this Sunday completes the portrait of God's engagement with us through Hope, Peace, Joy and now Love as he continues to remake our world in the coming of Christ. Anglican priest Rachel Mann (The Tablet 30 November 2024) reminds us that the 'waiting' of Advent continues to offer many positives: 'In Christ's Incarnation, we are invited to live in God's time and reality rather than become overwhelmed by our human understanding of what is going on.' In God's story, fear, death and anxiety are not the final words.

Let's allow ourselves to be overwhelmed by the wonder of God, that moment when our words and capacity to understand fail us. Each Christmas, it may seem that we are just beginning again but hopefully our appreciation of God's love for us in the gift of Jesus is being refreshed each year.

The sense of wonder that grows in our hearts during Advent opens us to what is possible, how things might be, and helps us move beyond the grim negativity to which we are so easily prone as individuals and in society.

Today's Gospel describes the power of friendship in family life as Mary visits Elizabeth. Mary, a virgin 14 or 15 years of age, conceiving the one foretold by the prophets, meets her childless, elderly cousin conceiving too. Let's affirm the power of love and friendship in our family life also and trust the mystery of God's surprising plan.

Like these women, you and I are called to look beyond our own needs to the needs of others. Even in our troubled world, 'Come, Lord Jesus!' is always our prayer – our prayer of cosmic hope, our affirmation of Jesus as Lord, our hunger for God as the only one to whom we can surrender, our pledge in Pope Francis' words: '... to open our hearts to God's loving kindness and to respond to His call to be gentle, respectful, and caring for others.'

Fr. Dave

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night.

I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice.

Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love.

So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page. but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

GOSPEL: Luke 1:39-45

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfilment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."

Thought for the day

Even in its resolutely secular form, the Christmas celebration has positive sides to it. People do try very hard to get together with close family and friends. It might help to reflect in advance on this seasonal intensity of encounter. What do I hope for? What do I bring? How can I/we be so that we are not simply in the same physical space but truly meet each other and are the better for it? There should be some leap of joy, so that at the end of the festivities, we are glad we made the effort.

Prayer

God of all loving, bless all our encounters this Christmas. Help us to be both kind and joyful, so that all whom we meet will be the better for it. Inspire us to know when a word of witness will lift the celebration and enable family and friends to get to the heart of it all. Amen

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. The greeting of Elizabeth to Mary "Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb" is a joyful welcome of the child to come. Bringing new life into the world through pregnancy and birth is one of the most awesome human experiences. How have you experienced this for yourself or in someone close to you?
2. The image of the pregnant Mary going a distance to visit her cousin is a symbol of willingness to look beyond one's own needs to the needs of others. When have you witnessed that kind of generosity in others, or have been able to act in this way yourself?
3. Mary is praised for her faith, because she believed the promise made her by the Lord would be fulfilled. In what ways have you experienced blessings from your faith and trust in God's promises?

PRAYER

Who are we, Lord God, that you should come to us? Yet you have visited your people and redeemed us in your Son. As we prepare to celebrate his birth, make our hearts leap for joy at the sound of your Word, and move us by your Spirit to bless your wonderful works. We ask this through him whose day draws near: your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

"Now (Advent) is the time of mercy, a time for us to correct ourselves. The time for judgment has not yet come. There is no need to despair. Because of our human, pardonable and more trivial sins, God has established in the Church set times for requesting mercy. We have a daily medicine in our saying 'Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us', so that we may share in the Body and Blood of Christ."

St Augustine, Sermon 17, 5
