6th SUNDAY of EASTER, Year C

25th May, 2025

EASTER – ‘Feeling at Home in our Faith!’

Dear Friends,

The Gospel readings during the Easter Season focus on relationships – the relationship between Jesus, the disciples and the women at the tomb; Jesus’ showing himself to the disciples on the shore of the lake; shepherd and sheep; the community of the Trinity; love as the essence of discipleship; and today our being drawn into the hospitality of God’s own life – the remarkable promise that God will come to us and make his home with us.

In recent weeks, we have been reflecting on our new Pope Leo, known to some of us from his visits to Australia and particularly to St Clair in 2005. Today’s readings open up for us a familiar insight about ‘feeling at home in our faith’. Even our early perceptions of Pope Leo make present that sense of being ‘at home in the Church’, feeling safe under his leadership, confident as we face present and future challenges... Leo is someone we know.

Feeling at home does not always come to us naturally. Much as I have enjoyed my periods of overseas study in the US and Ireland and participation in conferences in different countries, returning home brings a sense of relief. This is a timely reminder as our political leaders debate the merits of migration that we should not underestimate the effects of dislocation on those new to our country – certainly the experience of many in our parish. We need to extend ‘thoughtful hospitality’ – not just as human beings but as people of faith.

Our sense of ‘being at home’ suffered a jolt during the pandemic, particularly the separation from family members and community – perhaps a dim memory but we are still learning about the true impact on individuals, families, workplaces and communities. Parish-wise, we describe ourselves as a welcoming parish and that all are ‘invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit’. By its nature, we are continually ‘growing into’ this reality.

Not all of Jesus’ teachings and miracles are recorded in the Gospels but what is there helps us believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God. We are blessed to have so many accounts of Jesus’ appearances after his Resurrection. So many occur in a ‘homely’ setting – with the disciples in the upper room, walking with the 2 followers heading back to Emmaus, and cooking breakfast by the lake. The original prophecy of Jesus’ coming was as Emmanuel - ‘God-with-us’ – a strong focus at Christmas but perhaps not so much in this Easter Season. The Risen Jesus is more than ever God-with-us, Jesus’ message in John 14:23, how Jesus’ Father will love us and they shall come to us and ‘make their home’ with us.

The Hospitality of God is a strong theme in Luke’s Gospel. This invitation is not just about the hereafter but about what happens now in our awareness of Jesus’ inner presence, in how we pray. Why not make God ‘at home within each of us’ our prayer focus today?

Fr. Lane

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page. but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; I do not give it to you as the world gives”

GOSPEL: JOHN 14:23 –29

22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to Jesus, “Lord, how is it that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?” 23 Jesus answered him, “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. 24 Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

25 “I have said these things to you while I am still with you. 26 But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you.

27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. 28 You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. 29 And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.”

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

There is a move afoot to replace church teaching on the just war with a more proactive doctrine of just peace. As Paul VI observed long ago, peace is much more than the absence of war. In a world riven by conflict, peace is a matter of discipleship and, at the personal level, a matter of deliberate choice even in the everyday conflicts of our ordinary lives. The prayer for peace goes well beyond praying for individualistic freedom from stress.

PRAYER

O God, though the human race is divided by dissension and discord, yet we know that by testing us you change our hearts to prepare them for reconciliation. Even more, by your Spirit you move human hearts that enemies may speak to each other again, adversaries may join hands, and peoples seek to meet together. Amen.

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. Jesus seeks to reassure his followers in the face of his imminent death. Although he will be leaving them he promises them the gift of the Spirit. How have you been aware of the gift of the Spirit of God in your life?
2. Remember times of separation from a loved one through change of residence or other circumstances. How has the love between you been a support after the separation?
3. To his followers Jesus, promises ‘we will come and make our home with them’. Our God is not a distant God but one who lives in us. What has helped you to be aware of the closeness of God to you?
4. ‘Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid’. When you have been anxious, who have been the Jesus people for you who were able to calm your anxiety. How did they do this? For whom have you been one who calmed anxiety?

PRAYER

Great and loving Father, your will for us in Jesus is the peace the world cannot give; your abiding gift is the Advocate he promised. Calm all troubled hearts, dispel every fear. Keep us steadfast in love and faithful to your word, that we may always be your dwelling place. Grant this through Jesus Christ, the firstborn from the dead, who lives with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Message of Thanks From the Dowsett Family

On behalf of our family, I would like to extend our deepest and most sincere thanks to the Augustinian Priests, Fr Anthony, Fr Andrew and our beautiful parish and school community for the overwhelming love, support, and kindness shown to us during this incredibly difficult time following the passing of my dear husband, Jamie Dowsett.

Your prayers, words of comfort, and presence have been a great source of strength. We are especially grateful to all who attended the Rosary and Funeral Mass, and to everyone involved in organising and supporting the beautiful wake. It was a blessing to come together and celebrate Jamie's life. A life filled with love, laughter, and deep faith.

We have truly felt the presence of God through the compassion and care of this parish. Your support has reminded us that we are not alone, and we are so blessed to be part of such a faithful and loving community.

We will forever hold you all in our prayers.
