Under the Pastoral Care of the Augustinians

Catholic Diocese of Parramatta

Safeguarding Sunday - Towards a Safe and Welcoming Church!

THE EXALTATION of the HOLY CROSS, Year C,
14 September 2025

Dear Friends,

This past week was Child Protection Week which has been followed since 1990 and provides an opportunity for parishes, schools and other groups to reflect on the environments in which children and adults gather and the professional standards that guide us in providing a safe and supportive place for people to learn and grow.

Safeguarding is the more common term we use to describe policies and practical guidelines that reflect our commitment to the safety of all. Each month, the Parish Pastoral Council includes Safeguarding on its agenda and members receive up-to-date information from the Diocese of Parramatta or other Church agencies on policy and training.

Two documents from the Church that may be of interest are Vos Estis Lux Mundi (You are the Light of the World), issued in 2019 and updated in 2023, and the Universal Guidelines Framework issued by the Pontifical Commission for the Protection of Minors in 2024. These cover safeguarding requirements and the mandatory reporting of offences by clerics and religious within the Church to ensure accountability on the part of Church leaders.

The Church has always been accountable in civil law but the Royal Commission refined the legal requirements for compliance in Australia and the Church accepted the recommendations that were applicable. One outcome of this is a periodic compliance audit by an authorised body such as Australian Catholic Standards Limited. The Augustinians will be audited later this year and auditors will visit St Clair. The Diocese of Parramatta will be audited also in the near future.

A significant development we should be aware of is the extent of accountability in relation to abuse. It not only applies to sexual abuse of minors but to adults as well. For children, this includes physical, emotional/psychological abuse, neglect, exposure to family violence, and for adults the additional categories of elder abuse, financial abuse, exploitation and spiritual abuse. Whereas vulnerable adults or adults at risk were singled out, the guidelines apply to all adults as every one of us may be vulnerable or at risk at particular times in our lives.

Thankfully, Safeguarding has become part of our daily life and an important way for us to love one another.

First Reading
Numbers 21:4-9
When those that were afflicted looked upon it, they were healed.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 77:1-2, 34-38
(R.) Do not forget the works of the Lord!

Second Reading
Phil 2:6-11
He humbled himself, therefore God had exalted him.

Gospel Acclamation
Alleluia, alleluia!
We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you, because by your cross you have redeemed the world. Alleluia!

Gospel
John 3:13-17
The Son of Man must be lifted up.

Welcome

Want to receive the bulletin via e-mail?
Email admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au

We are a welcoming parish. No matter your current status in the Catholic Church, family or marital situation, past or present religious affiliation, personal history, age, background, race, color, or sexual orientation—regardless of your self-esteem—you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of our community, we encourage you to explore what we have to offer. We serve the community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, and providing comfort to the sick and those in mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organizations, you may be interested in joining one of our many liturgical ministries, such as Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, or Choir.

To formally register, please fill out a form that will be entered into our parish data system (all information provided will remain confidential). These forms are available at the parish office or in the church foyer.

To learn more about parish life, you can pick up a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or visit this link on our website

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God."
(St Augustine)

We are grateful to those who continue to financially support our Parish.

God bless you!

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

PRAYERS FOR THOSE IN OUR COMMUNITY

There is strength and peace that comes from when we pray for one another. If you have a prayer request or want to offer a Mass for a special intention, go to: <https://holyspiritstclair.com.au/mass-prayer-requests/>. We ask you to please submit your prayer intentions a few days before preferred Mass.

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page. but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY SON

Gospel: John 3:13-17

13 [Jesus said to Nicodemus:] No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. 14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

17 "Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

People undergoing counselling and therapy sometimes have a block or memory, which is holding them back, usually an earlier difficult experience of some kind. Something like that is happening in the Old Testament folk tale of the bronze serpents: the power of the serpents to cause harm is taken away once they are confronted straight in the eye, through the symbol of the bronze serpent. We may say the same of Jesus as he faced death for us. Being lifted up for our sake, he looked death in the eye and took away its power over us.

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. In John's Gospel the lifting up of Jesus on the cross is the climax of the revelation of God's love for us. How has the cross spoken to you of the love we have been shown in Jesus?
2. Jesus says the purpose of his life is that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life. In what ways has faith given you life and vitality?

3. Jesus said that he was sent to save and not to condemn. Remember what has helped you to see God as one who is fundamentally on your side in life, a God to be trusted and relied on rather than feared..
4. In presenting the purpose of his life as salvation rather than condemnation, Jesus tells us something about the purpose of every human life. It is to be lifegiving, rather than destructive of life. Recall times your life was enriched by the words or actions of another. Remember also when you were able to do the same for another person.

PRAYER

Lifted up among us, O God, is Jesus the crucified: sign of your steadfast love and pledge of your will to save. To those who look upon the cross with faith, grant healing of soul and life eternal. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.
