CELEBRATING 30 YEARS of THE AUGUSTINIANS 1995 - 2025

Under the Pastoral Care of the Augustinians

Simply Advent! - 'God's Closeness and Our Watchfulness...'

Dear Friends,

During Advent, Pope Leo shares daily wisdom with us and invites each of us to prepare for and celebrate the 'sudden coming of the Son of Man.' Born at Christmas, Jesus enters into the intimate and ordinary events of our lives and we are invited to a deeper mindfulness as we seek to understand our experience.

Our lives are usually defined by the calendar year and these final weeks are often intensely busy as businesses and schools wind up and families plan holidays and reunions before another year begins. Advent offers us a 'prophetic word' in our lives that will hopefully prompt us to pause a little more often as the surprise of Jesus' birth heralds an even more intimate presence of the divine in our daily lives.

The familiar Advent message to 'stay awake' invites us to live humanly to the best of our ability, continuing to do the necessary mundane things but always with a genuine care for the other – the neighbour in need. Call it the Sacrament of the Neighbour if you will. Just as Jesus is the Sacrament of our Encounter with God, so must we be 'sacraments' for each other. Our understanding of the later teaching of Jesus illuminates the meaning of this Advent experience.

This year, the Church is celebrating the 1700th anniversary of the First Ecumenical Council of Nicaea, held in 325 to resolve issues relating to the divinity of Christ and affirmed that Jesus is the Only Begotten Son of God, one in being with the Father. Pope Leo highlights the Nicene emphasis on the full humanity of Christ.

A simple way to retain some focus during Advent is to pray the Advent prayer: 'Come, Lord Jesus.' This mantra connects us with Jesus no matter where we are or what we are doing – working, studying, traveling, walking, relaxing. Prayer allows God to be close to us and this comforting greeting evokes a response from the Lord himself as he draws us into a conversation that deepens our appreciation of our identity as Christians.

Loving God requires daily engagement on our part so that our lives do not become mediocre. In faith, we nurture our desire for God and our courage to love. Desire, as we know, is the heart of our spiritual life – both our desire for God and God's desire for us.

Our faith journey is reflected in the progressive lighting of the 4 candles on the Advent wreath which gradually weaves the thread of light that helps us prepare for the splash of brilliant light that bathes us in our celebration of Christ at Christmas. In this Jubilee Year of Hope, we light the 1st Candle, the Candle of Hope.

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page, but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour

Gospel: Matthew 24:37-44

37 [Jesus said] For as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 38 For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, 39 and they knew nothing until the flood came and swept them all away, so too will be the coming of the Son of Man. 40 Then two will be in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. 41 Two women will be grinding meal together; one will be taken and one will be left. 42 Keep awake therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. 43 But understand this: if the owner of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. 44 Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Thought for the day The liturgical cycle helps us not only by telling once more the story of salvation but also by underlining movements of the heart appropriate for each season. Thus, Lent invites us to conversion and Easter promotes joy in believing. What of Advent? The season encourages us and takes us back to our original longing and quest which brought us to God in the first place. Especially in the readings from the prophets, the lectionary explores again that restlessness of heart and helps us name our desire for the One who alone fills our hearts with his peace "which surpasses all understanding."

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. The 'coming of the Son of Man' can be applied to the end of the world, to the moment of death, or to any moment of grace. We are not given advance notice as to when any of these will happen, so the message is to be alert and ready. When have you found that your alertness meant that you were able to receive an unexpected grace (e.g. take an opportunity which presented itself, or respond to a hint from another person that you might easily have missed, etc.).

2. One of the enemies of alert living is constant busyness. Have you ever found that being caught up in your own agenda makes you less sensitive to what is happening around you? Recall times when you paused in your relentless busyness and were rewarded by a significant interchange with another person, a moment of grace.
3. You probably know the difference between being ready for a visitor and the unannounced caller who catches you unprepared. Let the memory of the discomfort of being caught off guard spur you on to a constant readiness for the coming of the Lord.
4. The scene also puts before us the liberating power of forgiveness. The forgiveness of Jesus brought new life to the criminal hanging on the cross with him. When have you found that forgiveness given, or received, was a source of new life for yourself or for others?

PRAYER

God of majesty and power, amid the clamour of our violence your Word of truth resounds; upon a world made dark by sin the Sun of Justice casts his dawning rays. Keep your household watchful and aware of the hour in which we live. Hasten the advent of that day when the sounds of war will be for ever stilled, the darkness of evil scattered, and all your children gathered into one. We ask this through him whose coming is certain, whose day draws near: your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Bishop's Christmas Appeal – supporting Catholic Care Grief and Loss Counselling

Christmas is drawing near, and with it the promise that God is with us. For many in Western Sydney and the Blue Mountains, that promise is needed right now. Many individuals and families are carrying grief, stress and uncertainty - wrestling with the rising cost-of-living, unstable work and the heartbreak of losing a loved one. Your generosity is the way to open the doors of hope for the broken-hearted ensuring that no one in our community grieves alone. Please give generously. Envelopes are available in the foyer or scan the QR code. Thank you.

VINNIES CHRISTMAS APPEAL 2025

St Vincent de Paul Society

good works

This year our conference has assisted our friends in need in St Clair, Erskine Park and Colyton.
It's that time of year again when we launch our annual Christmas Appeal for food and gifts.

Storing and distributing of hampers has become a challenge for us. If you can find it in your heart to donate a gift card or cash rather than an actual gift it would be beneficial to our mission. It would eliminate handling/wrapping and storage. Gift cards are easy to pop into a Christmas card, and our friends can choose something they would like, suggestions could be Visa, Hoyts, Kmart or Big W vouchers. This way each child in the family can choose an age-appropriate gift of equal value.

In previous years you have also generously supported with donations of food items. We will accept and distribute these food items however, food vouchers are preferred (Coles, ALDI or Woolworths card), of any denomination. How nice would it be for our friends to receive a voucher to enable them to purchase fresh meat and vegetables for Christmas?

Please return all gift cards or donations to the parish office addressed in an envelope marked St Vincent De Paul St Clair Conference by Monday 8th December OR drop them in the Vinnies Christmas box at the back of the church. If you choose to donate non perishable food items, please consider the heat and DO NOT include things such as chocolates or sweets which may melt.

Christmas is most truly Christmas when we celebrate it by giving to those who need it most.

Thank you so very much for your continued support of our parish conference.

We wish you and your families many blessings at this very special time of year.

Job Vacancies in our Diocese

Catholic Chaplain – Catholic Care Western Sydney and the Blue Mountains: We're seeking a Catholic Chaplain to join our dedicated team at the Children's Hospital, Westmead, providing compassionate pastoral and spiritual care to children, adults, families, and hospital staff during times of need. This role is integral to the mission of the Catholic Church, supporting patients and families through prayer, presence, and accompaniment consistent with Catholic faith and sacramental life within the hospital setting.

Parish Secretary – Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Wentworthville: Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish in Wentworthville is seeking a dedicated and compassionate Parish Secretary (part-time) to provide administrative services to the Parish. The role requires compassion, discretion, complete confidentiality, a "can do" attitude and a willingness to work autonomously. It requires a person who understands the nature of the front-line responsibility for "Sharing God's Love". This position does require an understanding and support of the ethos of the Catholic Church.

Liturgical Ministry Formation Courses will recommence in 2026 in Blacktown and Penrith. This free formation run by the Office for Worship, is open to anyone in the diocese interested in serving within the Liturgical Ministries either as Readers, Extraordinary Ministers of Communion, Communion to the Sick and Dying and Ministers at the Altar.

Applications must be completed and signed by the Parish Priest, before being returned by Friday 23 January 2026 to ofw@parracatholic.org. Spaces are limited so please enrol ASAP to avoid disappointment. Pick up your application form from the parish office.
