The Christian Life – 'Born into a Holy Family!'

Dear Friends,

During Advent, we listened to the prophecies of Jesus' birth and key events - Mary's invitation to become the Mother of God and her response, Joseph's struggle to come to terms with the situation. Having celebrated Jesus' birth, we now honour this Holy Family.

Faith related or not, Christmas celebrations invariably focus on family life, with its many joys, highpoints and challenges – God's grace is at work wherever love is found. We are very mindful of families struggling at this time, especially those impacted by the tragedy at Bondi – the Jewish Community and wider Australian Society who share this pain – and we embrace them in love and prayer. We pray too for those who struggle with the flaws and the brokenness in families.

We need to work at family life. Pope Francis' 2016 Apostolic Exhortation – Amoris Laetitia – The Joy of Love: On Love in the Family – expresses the beauty of Jesus' teaching on Love and the Church's teaching on married and family love. The foundation of all love is God's love for us and his ultimate, loving embrace of us in the birth of Jesus as one with us, Jesus who himself was formed in the family by Mary and Joseph.

The Holy Family models family life for us, but we must take care not to de-power their human example by surrounding them with an aura of unreality. In every family, people's lives bump against each other as they grow through different ages and stages - true of Jesus as he moved into adolescence and adulthood and grew in his awareness of who he was and his mission from his Father.

In Amoris Laetitia, Francis shares frank common sense about family and relationships:

The strength of the family 'lies in its capacity to love and to teach how to love. For all a family's problems, it can always grow, beginning with love.' (n 53)

The Church is a family of families, constantly enriched by the lives of all those domestic churches. "In virtue of the sacrament of matrimony, every family becomes, in effect, a good for the Church. The Church is good for the family, and family is good for the Church." (n 87)

The Lord's presence dwells in real and concrete families, with all their daily troubles and struggles, joys and hopes. (n 315)

Jesus' call to 'Love your neighbour as yourself!' is his call to families – that's where love starts. Family life and love demand the best from us. Family holds us to the best dreams of our youth - the friends who challenge and stretch us to the limit of our ability and beyond so no gift is lost. In our family, we are God's gift bearers and we must remember that, no matter what age we are - old, young or in the middle - we still have gifts to share.

Fr. Dave

We are a welcoming parish. No matter your current status in the Catholic Church, family or marital situation, past or present religious affiliation, personal history, age, background, race, color, or sexual orientation—regardless of your self-esteem—you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of our community, we encourage you to explore what we have to offer. We serve the community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, and providing comfort to the sick and those in mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organizations, you may be interested in joining one of our many liturgical ministries, such as Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, or Choir.

To formally register, please fill out a form that will be entered into our parish data system (all information provided will remain confidential). These forms are available at the parish office or in the church foyer.

To learn more about parish life, you can pick up a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or visit this link on our website

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God."
(St Augustine)

We are grateful to those who continue to financially support our Parish.

God bless you!

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

PRAYERS FOR THOSE IN OUR COMMUNITY

There is strength and peace that comes from when we pray for one another. If you have a prayer request or want to offer a Mass for a special intention, go to: <https://holyspiritstclair.com.au/mass-prayer-requests/>. We ask you to please submit your prayer intentions a few days before preferred Mass.

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page, but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

“Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you”

Matthew 2:13-23

Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.” 14 Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt, 15 and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfil what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called my son.”

2:16 When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the wise men. 17 Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah:

18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.”

19 When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, 20 “Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child’s life are dead.” 21 Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. 22 But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee.

23 There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, “He will be called a Nazorean.”

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Our Gospel today omits—understandably?— the brutal massacre of the innocents. While the story is indeed brutal, it is unfortunately not unrealistic. Its omission is a pity because the tragic side of life is underscored, in different ways, by both Matthew and Luke, in anticipation of the passion. They were not composing sweet scenes for Christmas cards! On the contrary, they were addressing the full human condition, in its mystery, its joys and its tragedies. It is precisely within the family that we encounter death, life, happiness and the sheer wonder of being at all. Today’s feast invites us to look unflinchingly at the whole picture, in all its complexity.

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. The threat to the child Jesus put Joseph in a situation where he had to make a quick and yet wise decision. Perhaps you have also had to make a speedy response to an unexpected crisis. Who were the ‘angels’ who guided you to wise decisions? Remember them and give thanks.
2. The whole narrative is designed to bring out the guidance of God’s providence for the child Jesus. Have there been times when you have been grateful that things worked out well for you despite adverse circumstances or experiences?
3. External forces forced migration on Joseph and his family, until he came to establish a home in Nazareth. Where have you lived before coming to the place you now call home? How has this journey helped to fashion the person you are now? Perhaps you have a mixture of gratitude and regrets as you look back. Give thanks for the good memories. What helps you to deal with the disappointments and hurts in the past? Bring them to God with a prayer for further healing.
4. The story and today’s feast remind us of the importance of the family in nourishing and fostering new life. Recall and give thanks for those in your own childhood who helped you to find your way in life.

PRAYER

God, bless us all as members of our different families. As we thank you for the gift we are to each other, we ask your guidance and grace in all we do. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Wishing you a restful and meaningful Christmas break.

A Heartfelt Thank You From the Augustinians

As we celebrate the joy of Christmas, we extend our sincere thanks to everyone who contributed to our Christmas liturgies and preparations. A big thank you to all our ministers and choirs for your prayerful service and generous commitment. Thank you to all who lovingly prepared our church and church grounds; to those who set up the Advent and Christmas wreath, the manger, decorations, and the Christmas tree; and to all who helped create a sacred and welcoming space for our community. Your dedication and care have truly reflected the beauty and hope of the season. Through your generous service, our parish was able to celebrate Christmas with reverence, warmth, and joy. May God bless you abundantly for all that you do. Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Thank You for Your Generous Support – Cebu Flood Relief

On behalf of the Augustinian Parish of Santo Niño de Cebu (Mohon, Talisay City, Cebu, Philippines), we extend our heartfelt thanks to you for your generous financial support for the flood victims in Cebu.

For several weeks, the parish sheltered around 200 people within the parish grounds, providing safety and care during the crisis. As of now, around 50 people remain in the parish because they still have nowhere to return to—their homes were totally destroyed by the floods. Thankfully, many of the original 200 have already moved to new or temporary homes.

Through your kindness and solidarity, we raised a total of $5,000.00 AUD, broken down as follows:

- Simbang Gabi collections: $2,008.25
- Special appeal (21 Dec Sat 6pm & Sun 6pm Masses): $2,084.60
- Anonymous donation: $50.00
- Anonymous donation: $857.15

Your generosity is bringing real help and hope to families who are still rebuilding their lives. May God bless you abundantly for your compassion and support.

SAFEGUARDING is EVERYONE'S responsibility

The Parish and Diocese of Parramatta takes the safeguarding of children and vulnerable persons seriously. This includes past or present forms of abuse. Safeguarding those who are vulnerable is part of the mission that Jesus Christ entrusts to our Church. We all have a role to play in safeguarding those who are vulnerable.

If you have any concerns about someone's immediate safety, or you suspect a crime may have or is likely to occur, please contact NSW Police on Triple Zero (000).

Concerns about safeguarding in the Parish and the Diocese may be referred to our Parish Priest:

Fr. Percival Severe, OSA

Ph (02) 9670 8222

Email: pp@holyspiritstclair.com.au;

or directly to the:

Office for Safeguarding and Professional Standards

Email: safeguarding@parracatholic.org.

Information about the Diocese's response and support about safeguarding children and vulnerable people are available at www.safeguarding.org.au.

CHRISTMAS LOVE CHALLENGE

Grow in your observance of Advent and Christmas — the seasons in our Church when we give special attention to the birth of our Saviour and what his coming means for us today.

You are invited to take a “Christmas Love Challenge” card from the Christmas trees on both sides of our Nativity scene. Each card suggests a simple act of love or kindness you can do for others.
