A New Year Begins - 'Our Invitation to Freshness in Faith!'

Dear Friends,

Our summer holiday period should refresh us, but it sometimes brings pain and sadness – the tragedy of Bondi, now indelibly part of our history and social challenge, more natural disasters in bushfires, cyclones and flooding, often with savage impact on individuals, families, communities, property and life.

While we trust the resilient Aussie spirit, extreme events here and overseas can provoke unexpected reactions and result in emotional brokenness that will be with us as individuals and as a community for a long time.

There is a cleansing power in the Word of God and in the Church's liturgical calendar, not by way of escape from reality, but offering perspective and balance. This Sunday - Sunday of the Word of God - the Church in Australia pauses to reflect on the power of God's Word and our need to proclaim the Scriptures well and listen prayerfully to the message. In times of both celebration and crisis, the sharpness of God's Word offers uncanny clarity.

As Jesus began his public ministry, he often quoted from the prophets, especially Isaiah, with his reference to 'people that lived in darkness' but who now see a great light. The simplicity of lighting a candle to mark the memory of the Bondi victims is profound in both the secular and religious realms.

This Sunday's Gospel of the Beatitudes, read also on Australia Day, may be the very reminder we need as we seek freshness in our faith and a fresh view of God – finding again that sense of awe, wonder and appreciation of the constant goodness of God in our lives – God's total faithfulness to us, whoever we are, however we're made;

Our children are about to return to school, many hundreds of them, and on this day we pray for each child and for their families and the teachers and staff who guide them. As for Jesus and his family, may our children and parents be open to the wisdom in family life and seek suitable role models for our young people.

Have a wonderful year!

02 February 2026: World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life

"How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!"

"I am a son of Saint Augustine, an Augustinian, who said, 'For you I am a bishop, with you, I am a Christian.' In this sense we can all walk together toward that homeland that God has prepared."

-Pope Leo XIV

Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather.

Welcome

We are a welcoming parish. No matter your current status in the Catholic Church, family or marital situation, past or present religious affiliation, personal history, age, background, race, color, or sexual orientation—regardless of your self-esteem—you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of our community, we encourage you to explore what we have to offer. We serve the community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, and providing comfort to the sick and those in mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organizations, you may be interested in joining one of our many liturgical ministries, such as Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, or Choir.

To formally register, please fill out a form that will be entered into our parish data system (all information provided will remain confidential). These forms are available at the parish office or in the church foyer.

To learn more about parish life, you can pick up a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or visit this link on our website

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God."
(St Augustine)

We are grateful to those who continue to financially support our Parish.

God bless you!

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page, but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12

1 When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. 2 Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: 3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 4 "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. 5 "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. 6 "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. 7 "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. 8 "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. 9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. 10 "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Matt 5:11 "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. 12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Who doesn't want to be happy? As St Augustine writes, "all persons want to be happy; and no persons are happy who do not have what they want." (De beata vita 2.10) Augustine knows that it is not so simple: having what, and how do we keep it so that we don't lose it? The question really becomes, what do I desire? In the final analysis, there is a hunger of the human heart for God, often recognised only slowly, and a hunger for goodness and virtue, also a slow conversion. In God, we find a source of happiness which nothing can take away; in virtuous living, chiefly seeking the good of others, we come to our true fulfilment and contentment.

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. The paradox of the cross is not simply to do with Jesus but with all of us. What has experience taught me about "weakness" and "foolishness" as means of grace?
2. The feeling that the initiative is not mine but God's is part of every authentic spirituality. What my own sense of who is leading this relationship?
3. Paul speaks of Christ as wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption. What words would I spontaneously use?

PRAYER

Gracious God, giver of every good gift, help us to recognise you in everyone and everything around us. May we rejoice in receiving all from the you, who are grace in yourself. Amen.

"What is prayer but the pouring out of our hearts to God?"

St. Augustine, Expositions on the Psalms, Psalm 62:8

The session will be presented by Eric Grella, Music Formation Facilitator, Mission Enhancement Team.

SAFEGUARDING is EVERYONE'S responsibility

The Parish and Diocese of Parramatta take the safeguarding of children and vulnerable persons seriously. This includes past or present forms of abuse. Safeguarding those who are vulnerable is part of the mission that Jesus Christ entrusts to our Church. We all have a role to play in safeguarding those who are vulnerable. If you have any concerns about someone's immediate safety, or you suspect a crime may have or is likely to occur, please contact NSW Police on Triple Zero (000).

Concerns about safeguarding in the Parish and the Diocese may be referred to our Parish Priest:

Fr. Percival Severe, OSA

Ph (02) 9670 8222

Email: pp@holyspiritstclair.com.au;

or directly to:

The Office for Safeguarding and Professional Standards

Ph (02) 8838 3419

Email: safeguarding@parracatholic.org.

Information about the Diocese's response and support for safeguarding children and vulnerable people is available at www.safeguarding.org.au.

Thank you for helping keep our parish safe for all!
