Our Lenten Invitation – 'Listening and Fasting' (Pope Leo XIV)

Dear Friends,

One of the things Pope Leo does really well is to listen - so it's no surprise that the title of his Lenten Message this year is 'Listening and Fasting'. Many of us are acutely aware of how difficult listening can be – especially the times we eagerly wait for the other to finish what they're saying so we can have our say!

The heart of Prayer must be listening if we are to grow in our relationship with God... worth thinking about if we are to hear what the Lord has to say to us, worth thinking about as we reflect on our own practice of prayer where words often dominate. Might we consider trying some different forms of prayer this Lent – perhaps with fewer words.

Let's see what Pope Leo has to say.... He begins with a beautiful image of the Church inviting us to 'place the mystery of God back in the centre of our lives' during Lent. The Church is, 'guided by a sense of maternal care' – a particularly beautiful, pastoral image of the Church - lest our hearts be 'consumed by the anxieties and distractions of daily life.'

Our Lenten journey is about conversion and this involves, 'allowing the word of God to touch our hearts and welcoming it with a docile spirit.' Leo reminds us about the relationship between the word, our acceptance of it and the transformation it brings about, enabling us 'to heed the voice of the Lord and renew our commitment to following Christ.'

We are encouraged to make room for the word through listening. 'The willingness to listen is the first way we demonstrate our desire to enter into relationship with someone.' Listening is a central theme throughout the Scriptures. What are we likely to hear?

The Holy Father reminds us that, 'Our God is one who seeks to involve us. Even today he shares with us what is in his heart. Because of this, listening to the word in the liturgy teaches us to listen to the truth of reality.' The Scriptures, we are told, help us, 'to recognize and respond to the cry of those who are anguished and suffering. In order to foster this inner openness to listening, we must allow God to teach us how to listen as he does.'

I suggest we try the prayer of stillness or quiet at some time this Lent. Next week, we'll explore Pope Leo's reflections on fasting.

We are a welcoming parish. No matter your current status in the Catholic Church, family or marital situation, past or present religious affiliation, personal history, age, background, race, color, or sexual orientation—regardless of your self-esteem—you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of our community, we encourage you to explore what we have to offer. We serve the community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, and providing comfort to the sick and those in mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organizations, you may be interested in joining one of our many liturgical ministries, such as Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, or Choir.

To formally register, please fill out a form that will be entered into our parish data system (all information provided will remain confidential). These forms are available at the parish office or in the church foyer.

To learn more about parish life, you can pick up a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or visit this link on our website

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God."
(St Augustine)

We're grateful to those who continue to financially support our parish.

GOD BLESS YOU.

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office at 9670 8222 or admin@holyspiritstclair.com.au.

PRAYERS FOR THOSE IN OUR COMMUNITY

There is strength and peace that comes from when we pray for one another. If you have a prayer request or want to offer a Mass for a special intention, go to: <https://holyspiritstclair.com.au/mass-prayer-requests/>. We ask you to please submit your prayer intentions a few days before preferred Mass.

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page. but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

GOSPEL: Matthew 4:1-11

Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, after which he was very hungry, and the tempter came and said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves.' But he replied, 'Scripture says:

Man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'

The devil then took him to the holy city and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said, 'throw yourself down; for scripture says:

He will put you in his angels' charge,
and they will support you on their hands
in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

Jesus said to him, 'Scripture also says:

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.' Next, taking him to a very high mountain, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. 'I will give you all these', he said, 'if you fall at my feet and worship me.' Then Jesus replied, 'Be off, Satan! For scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God,
and serve him alone.'

Then the devil left him, and angels appeared and looked after him.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The temptations of Jesus are not at all temptations to this or that sin but rather fundamental options which matter for the direction of his life. Jesus was tempted in the course of his ministry to choose other ways of being God's prophet, the Messiah or anointed one. In a less obvious way, we too can be attracted by choices which can shape the way our life unfolds. We ask ourselves, what do I live on? What's my true goal? Where is my nourishment? The human, no less than the Kingdom, is more than food and drink. Only the Word of God truly nourishes and illuminates

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. In today's gospel Jesus is enticed to gratify his own needs, or to perform some spectacular act in public. He rejects the temptation because he chooses commitment to his mission and dependence on his Father over any immediate gratification. We can all be tempted to go for some immediate satisfaction...but is that where true happiness lies? Have you found that sometimes it can be more life-giving to say "no" to your immediate desires for the sake of some long-term goal? What are the goals, aims, values, which inspire you in this way?
2. One way of looking at this gospel is to say that Jesus went into the desert to face his demons. We all have demons we need to face—compulsions, fears, prejudices, anger, and urges that lurk within. It is in facing our demons that we find a way to live a fuller life. Can you recall a time when you grew through facing a "demon" in this way?

PRAYER

Lord our God, in every age you call a people to hear your word and to do your will. Renew us in these Lenten days: washed clean of sin, sealed with the Spirit and sustained by your living bread, may we remain true to our calling and, with the elect, serve you alone. We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

PARISH LENTEN RETREAT

14 March, Saturday, 2:30-5 PM.

Facilitator: Fr Percival Severe OSA

Come and rediscover the meaning of Lent through prayer, reflection, and renewal. Let this be a time of conversion, hope, and spiritual growth for us as a parish community.

The Lenten Banners feature trees filled with leaves, symbolizing our spiritual journey during Lent, a time for renewal and reflection leading up to Easter. As Lent progresses, leaves fall, representing our willingness to open our hearts to God. This imagery reminds us that through Jesus' sacrifice, his total self-giving on the cross, He becomes the centre of our lives. - Thanks to Christine and her team
