A Mystery of Faith - 'When Grace Comes and Wakes Us...'

FIFTH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME, Year A
8th February 2026

Dear Friends,

Some years ago, I came across the expression: 'Our personal experience carefully reflected upon is our best teacher!' From time to time I used it as part of a reflection activity where participants were invited to pause and recognise the mysterious hand of God in their lives. Of course, most of us being busy people don't always recognise God at work in us.

By now, we've wished each other Happy New Year and have moved on to the reality of daily life in 2026. The positives so far include the recent gathering of staff from our Parish schools - Holy Spirit Primary, Trinity Primary, and Emmaus Catholic College - at Holy Spirit Church for the celebration of the Eucharist, described by Fr Perci as 'a deeply grace-filled moment of communion - an embodied expression of what it means to walk together as one faith community on a shared journey.'

Each Catholic school community in our Parish and the wider local area has its own charism and is committed to forming our children in Faith. This past week, catechists from our Parish participated in the Deanery SRE Opening Mass and Blessing at Holy Family Church in Luddenham, and several received awards recognising their years of committed service to our children in government schools. At the Parish level, our Sacramental Team and Children's Liturgy catechists are preparing for another busy year.

As our personal story unfolds this year, you might find the theme of this reflection strikes a chord - for you personally or for your family... 'When Grace comes and wakes us...' That's what the mysterious hand of God does for us, and sometimes we need to point it out to each other. It's easy to take the good experiences for granted, but to find that the more traumatic ones stop us in our tracks... as we question what it all means and, of course, where the Lord is in all of this.

In times of sadness and loss, grace can awaken us and our Church beckons. The tragic and untimely death of Andre Marquez prompted an instant response from his peers who visited the family and, with their families and former teachers, gathered for the 9.30am Mass last Sunday.

Answers to our questions do not come easily but grace comes and wakes us as we face the mystery. We pray for the grace to be open to the Lord and trust him with our questions.

02 February 2026: World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life

"I am a son of Saint Augustine, an Augustinian, who said, 'For you I am a bishop, with you, I am a Christian.' In this sense we can all walk together toward that homeland that God has prepared."

-Pope Leo XIV

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page, but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

Let your light shine before others so they may give glory to your Father

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

13 [Jesus said,] "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled underfoot.

14 "You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. 15 No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lamp stand, and it gives light to all in the house. 16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

We can easily see how Jesus should be the light of the world. Even though the words are familiar, we are perhaps unaccustomed to reflecting on ourselves as the light of the world and salt of the earth. This is an act of profound trust in us by God. Jesus has faith in us to be bearers of his Good News in our time. How are we to be that? Not first by our words or even by our deeds. We are the light and salt on account of who we are as disciples. As the Gospel text puts it, a city built on a hilltop cannot be hidden. We cannot help being seen as his disciples, for that is who we are.

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

- 1 Jesus uses the image of salt as something that makes food tasty. Without it, food can be tasteless. Who are the people who give zest to your life and make it enjoyable? For whom have you done this? When have you been particularly aware of your potential in this regard?

- 2 The second image is that of light. Who have been the people who have been a light for you, particularly in moments of darkness? For whom have you been a light? Recall these experiences and give thanks.
- 3 The images of salt and light can also be applied to communities to which we belong, a family, a parish, or other group. Thinking of the groups of which you are a member, how can the potential be enhanced to enrich the lives of members and offer them a guiding light?

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, you have called your church to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. Give us vigorous faith and a love that is genuine, so that all may see our works and give you the glory. We make our prayer through Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

"What is prayer but the pouring out of our hearts to God?"

St. Augustine, Expositions on the Psalms, Psalm 62:8

"What do I love when I love my God?"

- St Augustine

*"But what do I love when I love my God?
Not the sweet melody of harmony and song;
not the fragrance of flowers, perfumes, and
spices;
not manna or honey;
not limbs such as the body delights to embrace.
It is not these that I love when I love my God.
And yet, when I love Him,
it is true that I love a light of a certain kind, a voice, a perfume, a food, an embrace;
when it tastes food that is never consumed by the
eating;*

*but they are of the kind that I love in my inner self,
when my soul is bathed in light that is not bound
by space;
when it listens to sound that never dies away;
when it breathes fragrance that is not borne
away on the wind;
when it tastes food that is never consumed by the
eating;
when it clings to an embrace from which it is not severed by fulfillment of desire.
This is what I love when I love my God."*
