Lent Beckons - 'Towards a Fresh View.... What God Does for us!'

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday's reflection – 'When Grace Comes and Wakes Us...' – reminded us of our need to reflect on our experience and open our hearts to the Lord. That invitation continues as we begin the Season of Lent. Though not a Holy Day of Obligation, Ash Wednesday strikes a chord in our hearts that we need to be open to change – 'Towards a Fresh View....'

St Augustine reminds us of the presence of Christ in everyday life. Writing in the early 5th Century, he showed a remarkable sense of what it means to be the Church:

When you hear "The body of Christ", you reply "Amen." Be a member of Christ's body, then, so that your "Amen" may ring true! But what role does the bread play?... Listen to what Paul says about this sacrament: "The bread is one, and we, though many, are one body." [1 Cor. 10.17]

Familiar words, I know, but classic words about the Eucharist, the Church and who we are becoming together - the "one body," formed from many.

As we prepare for Lent, we reflect on who we are – family, parish, Church and so on – because that is often where we find our strength. The Mass both expresses and offers the communal experience of our being Church together... deepening our identity, listening to God's Word, receiving Jesus in Communion as individuals and together as Church.

For Lent, the Church offers the following advice – 'to interrupt the usual comforts of life, to rediscover in prayer the saving love of God, and to practice charity and justice towards those in need'. We are free to choose practices most appropriate for our own circumstances and growth in the Christian life. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting and abstinence from meat (14 and over) and fasting is observed by those aged 18 to 59, unless personal/health or other circumstances dictate otherwise. Other practices include:

- Prayer - for example, Mass attendance; family prayer; a visit to a church or chapel; reading the Bible; making the Stations of the Cross; praying the Rosary; personal reflection.
- Self-denial – for example, not eating meat; not eating sweets or dessert; giving up entertainment to spend time with the family; limiting food and drink so as to give to the poor;
- Works of Love - for example, special attention to someone who is poor, sick, elderly, and lonely or overburdened, or homeless.

Sometimes our focus is on what we do for God... perhaps this Lent we might be more conscious of what God wishes to do for us.

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page, but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfil

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

17 [Jesus said:] "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfil. 18 For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished.

19 Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

21 "You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You shall not murder'; and 'whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.' 22 But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, 'You fool,' you will be liable to the hell of fire. 23 So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. 25 Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. 26 Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny.

27 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' 28 But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. 30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell.

31 "It was also said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' 32 But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

33 "Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.' 34 But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, 35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. 36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 Let your word be 'Yes, Yes' or 'No, No'; anything more than this comes from the evil one.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

It is clear already in the Old Testament that it is not our misdeeds which accuse us before God, but our hearts, fractured and divided as they are. Consistent with Israelite teaching, Jesus insists that we go deeper than our external deeds. The important question is what is going on in our hearts, the source of inner thoughts and motivations? The teaching is presented using various examples, presented sometimes with great simplicity, other times with irony and wit.

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. In this section of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus proposes standards that go beyond external ways of behaviour but challenge how we feel in our hearts. When have you found that living out of inner conviction is more life-giving than keeping up appearances?

2. Jesus applies his teaching to feelings of anger and sexual desire. He suggests that if we do not keep an eye on our feelings and thoughts, we will not be able to control our actions. Perhaps you have experienced the truth of this. What has helped you integrate your feelings so that you were able to live in a right relationship with yourself and others?

3. For Jesus, persons with genuine authenticity do not need to swear an oath to be convincing. Their 'yes' or 'no' suffices. Recall people who had this kind of credibility for you. When have you found that your simple, direct and honest communication had a positive persuasive force?

PRAYER

O God, you read our hearts and know us even better than we know ourselves. Let us trust your knowledge of us and your call to true conversion of heart, for you desire only our good that we may be both whole and holy. Amen.
