PENTECOST SUNDAY - The Holy Spirit ... 'A Shattering Presence!'

PENTECOST SUNDAY,
Yr A - 24th May 2026

Dear Friends,

On the recent, first anniversary of the Election of Pope Leo XIV, I was reminded of his email message after the death of Pope Francis which I shared with you at the time - 'We all rely on the presence of the Holy Spirit, especially during the coming days.' Little did he know what was ahead of him.

We Catholics often sell ourselves short when it comes to the Holy Spirit. I grew up with the title, 'Holy Ghost' – not easy to understand, prone to confusion with the many ghost stories in children's literature. Gradually, the Church began to use the title of 'Holy Spirit' exclusively and our awareness of the place and action of the Spirit became clearer.

Celebration of the Spirit is never a once a year event, given that the Spirit is active in our lives at every moment. In last year's Pentecost homily, Pope Leo said, '(The presence of the Spirit breaks down our hardness of heart, our narrowness of mind, our selfishness, the fears that enchain us and the narcissism that makes us think only of ourselves.'

Our children preparing for Confirmation remind us of the action of God's grace in our lives, families, and community – blessed as we are to carry the name Holy Spirit Parish! How refreshing to revisit the 7 Gifts of the Holy Spirit and the 12 Fruits – virtues and qualities of character that all adults, Christian or not, encourage in their children as they grow to maturity – such as wisdom, courage, love, joy, gentleness, modesty and chastity.

The Holy Spirit is given to us in our Baptism, sealed in us in Confirmation, and dwells in us as we believe in the one Body of Christ. Our challenge is to go beyond lip-service and be open to God's healing and forgiveness to achieve the wholeness and fullness of graced living that God wills for us.

Grace is an active gift of God, one that gives us the energy for living and for mission and helps our continued growth in faith.

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So, I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page, but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

Jesus breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

John 20:19-23

19 When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." 20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." 22 When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Thought for the Day

The four marks of our Christian belonging are our personal journey, our community belonging, our practical discipleship and our adult integration of faith and life. None of us "inhabits" all four dimensions fully, all of the time, and yet all four dimensions should in principle be there. The good news of Pentecost is that the Spirit, poured into our hearts, enables all four aspects of our faith to live: the Spirit helps us in our prayer; the body of Christ is animated by the gifts of the Spirit; our service of others gets its energy from the Spirit and the Spirit "reminds us" of all that Jesus taught. Today, we celebrate discipleship in the community of faith.

Pointers for Prayer

1. Jesus comes into a room full of fear. Sometimes it is fear itself that makes us close the door on others and on God. Occasionally a person comes along with the gift of breaking through our closed doors, a person who comes to be with us in our fears. Do you have memories of people getting through to you and being with you despite your closed doors? Who brought you peace in a time of anxiety?
2. Jesus showed his wounds to his friends. Moments of grace can occur when another shows us their vulnerable side, or when we do that with them. Let your memories speak of such experiences to you.
3. As Jesus was sent by the Father, so he sent out the disciples. This evokes images of receiving and handing on the things that give life: values, meaning, sense of purpose, love. Who are the people who gave you life by what they handed on to you? To whom have you handed on what is life-giving?
4. In our tradition the final verse reminds us of the Sacrament of Reconciliation but its meaning is broader than that. Spirit-filled people are people who forgive. You might like to recall memories of when you have forgiven, or retained, another's sins. What difference has it made to you and others when you forgive rather than hold sins against others?

Prayer of St Augustine

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.
Act in me, O Holy Spirit,
that my work, too, may be holy.
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy.
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit,
to defend all that is holy.
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy.

Amen.

Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

Our Parish Stewardship Program: Giving with Love

“Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.”

(1 Peter 4:10)

This week, as part of Our Parish Stewardship Program, we reflect on the gift of financial generosity. God calls us to share what we have been blessed with, in order to support His mission on earth. It is through our contributions of time, talent and resources that we build a community grounded in faith and service.

We are invited to reflect on the role that financial giving plays in supporting our parish and ministries. Whether your contribution is large or small, it is an act of faith and love, trusting that God will use our offerings to further His work.

“Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.” – 2 Corinthians 9:7

As a parish community, we greatly depend on your generous contributions to support:

- ✚ Liturgical supplies and resources, such as vestments, bread and wine
- ✚ Our ongoing ministries
- ✚ Special parish ministries, such as catechism programs in State schools
- ✚ Sacramental preparation and pastoral visits
- ✚ Essential equipment and office resources, including the photocopier
- ✚ Production of our weekly parish bulletins
- ✚ Maintenance and repairs for the church, meeting rooms and parish office
- ✚ Special projects identified by the Parish Pastoral Council
- ✚ Rising costs of electricity and insurance.

We encourage you to give generously, trusting that through financial stewardship, the love of Christ will be made visible in our parish and beyond.
