Unity in the Church – ‘Accepting the Teaching of the Magisterium’

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday, I was quite moved when our Parish Community prayed the Nicene Creed at Mass, professing our Faith together. I was especially aware that the Society of St. Pius X (SSPX) had consecrated four new bishops without papal approval a few days before, incurring the penalty of excommunication.

Many will be aware of the controversy over the Society’s ongoing challenge to Pope Leo and previous Popes, their refusal to accept several Church teachings and outcomes of the Second Vatican Council, including ecumenism, religious freedom, renewal of the Liturgy and celebration of the Mass in vernacular languages.

Tension between the Church and SSPX which originated in the Diocese of Fribourg in Switzerland has been ongoing since 1975. Their founder, Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre, was suspended by Pope St Paul VI in 1976 and later excommunicated by Pope St John Paul II in 1988 for ordaining priests and consecrating bishops without the Pope’s permission.

One can understand people’s love for the Traditional Latin Mass but an uncompromising stance that sets a group apart doctrinally and in contempt of Church authority destroys the communion in the Church. Both Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis offered concessions to the Society in an effort to restore unity but to no avail.

Catholics are obliged to accept the teaching of the Magisterium of the Church, expressed in the Creed and in authoritative teaching over the centuries. While there are relatively few defined dogmas - usually those that have been misunderstood or open to error - the Church continues to ‘break open’ these teachings in light of our Tradition, understanding of the Scriptures, and deepening appreciation of the richness of God’s relationship with us. We are continually growing into our God-given identity - the Body of Christ.

We are engaged with mystery. Thankfully, our faith is not static but open to what we might call ‘development of doctrine’ as we learn more and more about God, our human condition, many ways of praying, understanding of Church, which becomes more detailed and explicit as time goes on. In all of this, we need to remain faithful to the core teachings of the Church which provide a stable foundation for our Faith and our living the Christian life.

Our current situation is one of deep sadness for our Church. Let us pray that unity can be achieved through charity and dialogue so that we can, to quote Pope Leo, ‘live in Communion in the Church’. This is a good time to deepen our understanding of what ‘being Church’ means. Our diocesan news source, Catholic Outlook, is worth reading online.

HEARERS OF THE WORD

So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony OSA - www.tarsus.ie

Lord, inspire me to read your Scriptures and to meditate upon them day and night. I beg you to give me real understanding of what I read, that I in turn may put its precepts into practice. Yet, I know that understanding and good intentions are worthless, unless rooted in your graceful love. So, I ask that the words of Scripture may also be not just signs on a page, but channels of grace into my heart. Amen. (Origen, AD c.184-c.254)

A sower went out to sow ... Let anyone with ears listen!

GOSPEL: Matthew 13:1-23

1 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. 2 Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. 3 And he told them many things in parables, saying: "Listen! A sower went out to sow. 4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. 5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. 6 But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. 7 Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. 8 Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 Let anyone with ears listen!" 10 Then the disciples came and asked him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" 11 He answered, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. 12 For to those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. 13 The reason I speak to them in parables is that 'seeing they do not perceive, and hearing they do not listen, nor do they understand.' 14 With them indeed is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah that says:

'You will indeed listen, but never understand, and you will indeed look, but never perceive. 15 For this people's heart has grown dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes; so that they might not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn—and I would heal them.'

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. 17 Truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.

18 "Hear then the parable of the sower. 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. 20 As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; 21 yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. 22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. 23 But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The parable of the sower is told twice, in an original form and in a later, church interpretation. The explanation tends to dominate our reading; but it might be worthwhile allowing the original parable to "speak." It tells of small, even careless, beginnings—the sower scatters all over the place. As we see in nature, tiny seeds have an astonishing, miraculous effect. Go back over your own experience and recall something which began modestly but which in the end grew surprisingly. The reign of God is like that—the modest beginnings of Jesus' own preaching had tremendous effect.

POINTERS FOR PRAYER

1. Jesus uses parables to make people think about their own responses to his message. As you read this parable you may recognise that at different times you have been like each of the different types of soil. As you recall times when you presented fertile soil for the word of God, what helped you create that receptive atmosphere? What lessons for life do you get from that?
2. Parents with children, teachers with pupils, speakers with listeners, are all like sowers in a field where the preparation of the soil is up to another—the child, pupil or listener. They can sow the seed but cannot guarantee that it will bear fruit. At times there may be a temptation not to try any more. The challenge is to sow in hope. When have you been surprised by the harvest you have reaped?
3. "We are wasting our time here" may sometimes be the apparent wisdom in a group. Have there been times when you have gone against this apparent wisdom and seen your efforts bear fruit?

PRAYER

God of every harvest, it can be hard today to be confident about the Good News and yet we know that it is you who give the growth (1 Cor 3:7).
