Under the Pastoral Care of the Augustinians

Catholic Diocese of Parramatta

October - Month of the Rosary – Mary as the 'one who ponders'!

28th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME, Yr A

Dear Friends,

My recent week in Cairns for the clergy retreat was prompted by the Bishop's desire for the present priests and deacons to understand the history of the diocese which was looked after by Augustinian bishops and missionaries from Ireland from 1884 to 1948 when the first diocesan priest was appointed bishop. Irish and Australian Augustinians continued to serve the diocese in varying numbers until the Province left Mareeba a few years ago.

The Genazzano Retreat Centre on the Atherton Tableland, is named after the town in Italy where the shrine of Mary, Mother of Good Counsel is in the care of the Augustinians. Under this title, Mary was chosen as Patroness of the Diocese of Cairns by the Augustinians and images are found in churches and schools throughout the diocese.

Here in Holy Spirit, we honour this image and title of Mary. Of course, Our Lady's titles number in the hundreds and reflect different aspects of God's plan for her, her personal gifts and qualities, apparitions, and countries entrusted to her care. In Australia we venerate Our Lady Help of Christians and Our Lady of the Southern Cross – some of the titles that keep us connected to Mary in prayer.

Mary's primary title that sheds light on all the others is Mother of God. She is the First Disciple, Woman of Faith, the preeminent member of our race – she journeys with the Church. In our Marian devotion, we reflect on her participation in the Paschal mystery (cf John 19:25-27) Pentecost (cf Acts 1:14), and calming the disciples' fears after Jesus' death. Mary, intimately involved with the young Church, is worthy of the title, Mother of the Church

A good starting point for our devotion is Mary's humanity. Of course, care is needed lest our imagination takes over and turns Mary into what she is not. Mary is never remote from us. The genuine earthiness of Mary's life exposes us to the 'holiness' of every dimension of our lives too on our journey to 'wholeness' - Mary's conception and birth, her life with parents Joachim and Anne, her teenage romance with her beloved Joseph, her unexpected pregnancy, life as a young mum, faithful wife, friend and companion to her Son until his death, and support for Jesus' followers as the Church was born.

The Mysteries of the Rosary now number 20, with the addition of the Mysteries of Light or Luminous Mysteries by Pope St John Paul II in 2002 – described as 'a meditation on certain particularly significant moments in Jesus' public ministry.' The Fifth Mystery of Light is the Institution of the Eucharist. As we break open God's Word at Mass, we can often become more deeply aware of the place of Mary in the life of Jesus – Mary the one who prays, the 'one who ponders' on God's Word as we are called to do. With her we participate in the Paschal Mystery.

Whomsoever you find invite to the wedding.

Gospel Mt 22:1-14

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He dispatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out onto the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests. When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, "How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

As incredible as it may seem, some people turn down the invitation to the eschatological banquet. This is the case, both in the parable and in our world today. This invitation seems much less interesting than a sports event, the latest movie, or some social affair. So much of our time and energy is spent either climbing the economic ladder or just trying to keep our heads above water. Even if we are interested in the banquet, we do not seem able to afford the time and energy that it might require. And so we send our regrets: I can not come. What a shame! We seem to have forgotten that everything is tending toward the end; all of our plans, interests and distractions will cease. Only the banquet will remain. All God asks of us is that we receive the blessings that have been prepared for us. We need not work for them. In fact, we cannot work for them on our own. All we can do is enjoy them. Enjoyment of the eschatological time of fulfilment is open to all, but guaranteed to none. One theme seems to connect all of the readings for this Sunday, our total dependence on God. God spreads the banquet table and invites the guests; God punishes those who are indifferent to or antagonistic toward the eschatological banquet; God supplies whatever we need in whatever circumstances we find ourselves. We do not have to bargain with God, or make reservations. All we have to do is accept what God has to offer.
