WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 2026 – ‘One in Christ, United in Mission!’

30th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME, Yr A

Dear Friends,

This year 2026 marks 100 years since the establishment of World Mission Sunday by Pope Pius XI. Over the years, the themes have evolved as our understanding of the Church's Mission and our identity as the Body of Christ have matured. At primary school in the 1950s, one could make a donation to the Missions – ‘to buy or adopt a pagan baby’! By today's standards, the donation seems very small – 6 pence (5 cents) or 1 shilling (10 cents). A larger donation could entitle you to choose the baby's baptismal name!

Our human and faith understanding has moved on and we believe that God wills the salvation of all, baptised or not. Pope Leo, himself a missionary and later bishop in Peru, chose this year's theme: ‘One in Christ, United in Mission’. This carries deep significance as it resembles the motto of his Pontificate – ‘In Illo uno unum’ - ‘In the One Christ, we are one’ – a vivid reminder of our unity in the Body of Christ and our missionary calling as Church, spreading the Good News of the Gospel to life through the work of evangelisation.

We express deep gratitude for the generous work of missionaries around the world and their commitment to the life-giving work of mission. Essentially, mission is about bringing the love of Christ to every corner of the world, imitating Jesus himself in building bridges of compassion, solidarity, and hope.

Mission involves material support – through the practical outreach that addresses people's concrete needs – and spiritual support, the essential, human connectedness as we live Jesus' command to love our neighbour – sharing hope through prayer and love, building communion so that people recognise the face of Christ.

Catholic Mission is the work of the Church worldwide and our support helps continue the missionary work that affirms human dignity and transforms people's lives. Please give generously to today's Catholic Mission Appeal.

Fr. Dave

You shall love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself.

Gospel Mt 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

Our religious tradition is founded on love. Actually, life itself is grounded in love. We may not always feel this love, but if we allow ourselves to reflection life, we will realise this truth. We have been called into being by God's love; and we will only be happy if we live in that love. Thus, when we are directed to love God and love one another, we are not being asked to do something contrary to our nature. Rather, we are being told to live in accord with that nature. We come from God who is love, and so it is in our very nature to love and to be loved. We may sometimes think that it is easier to love God than to love others. It may actually be just the opposite. Other people are tangible. We can see and hear them, interact with them. Their influence in our lives can permeate our consciousness. That is not the way it is with God. Like Moses on the mountain, we can only see the traces of divinity as God passes by (see Ex33:23). However, we show that we love God in the way we love our neighbour. Love, the foundation of the reign of God, is contagious. When we love others, the reign of God spreads throughout the world. The compassion that we show toward others is a form of evangelisation. It proclaims much louder than any words that the reign of God has been established.

This weekend 24/25 October, you are invited to partner with Catholic Mission and the Church in Malawi as we support families rebuilding after devastating floods and help children access education close to home. We are reminded by Pope Leo XIV that we are 'One in Christ, United in Mission'. Join with us in celebration and action by supporting this work with a compassionate gift. You can donate through our second collection, scan the QR code provided, or visit catholicmission.org.au/united to make a difference today.
