Feasts of All Saints and All Souls – ‘Knowing Who We Are!’

ALL SAINTS DAY

Dear Friends,

During some talks to priests and deacons recently, my fear was that they would become tired of hearing about St Augustine every day. Thankfully, they easily engaged with Augustine’s words in Sermon 272 on the Eucharist – ‘Be what you see and receive what you are!’ – the very presence of Jesus that embraces us, forms us as Church, and nourishes our lives and hearts.

Celebrating All Saints helps us appreciate the vision the Eucharist suggests – the Whole Christ – the reality that is the Church, and the dynamic of the Church growing into Christ. We, though unfinished, are part of this extraordinary divine journey.

All Saints expresses the energy of God’s grace in both our everyday, lived reality and in the reality of the Kingdom. All Souls in turn reminds us of our transition through death to eternal life – where we experience the wholeness of God’s love. St Paul’s use of the word ‘saints’ to address the various communities to which he wrote is very telling about where we are now and where we are headed. St John in the Second Reading underlines the beauty of God’s gifts to us:

‘Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God’s children; and that is what we are.’ (! Jn 3:1)

Last Sunday’s Gospel on love of God, our neighbour and our self set the scene for this week’s Feasts and Pope Leo, during his Sunday Angelus address, reminded us that, ‘We cannot truly love God unless this love overflows into love for our brothers and sisters.’ – echoes of St Augustine here that our love of neighbour unlocks our capacity to love God.

It is not enough, Pope Leo said, simply to acknowledge that God exists, that He is the only God, or that He is almighty: ‘The Lord seeks a personal relationship with us: the one true God wants to become our God.’

As Church we are truly blessed in our Saints and Blesseds who lived the commandments of love in very diverse, human situations – Augustine, Therese of Lisieux, Fulton J Sheen, Carlo Acutis, Mary MacKillop – modelling the Gospel for us. As families and as Church, we recall in memory the gifts of our loved ones who are with the Lord – family saints, models of faith for us, faithful friends, parents, spouses and children, family members, those who struggled through life, sacrificed, suffered, sometimes failed – each loved uniquely by God, now with the Lord in one of those ‘many rooms in the Father’s House’ (John 14:2).

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

Gospel Mt 5:1-12

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them: 'How happy are the poor in spirit: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

Today we celebrate the memory of all the baptised who have gone before us and whose lives were virtuous. The saints of God are all those who have been baptised into Christ, who have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb. We all know people whose lives were steeped in genuine holiness. The life of every one of us has been blessed by their goodness. This is a day for us to remember and to celebrate their holiness. We celebrate the lives of all those who have been marked with the sign of faith, those who have been canonised by the church, those whom we have known personally as well as those whose names we do not know. In the beatitudes listed in today's gospel we are given examples of what it means to live lives of holiness. This gospel really does not present a blueprint for holiness. Rather, it offers a series of snapshots that demonstrate the holiness that is ours by virtue of our baptism. Those who have gone before us lived such lives. Today, as we remember them, we hold up their lives as examples of holiness and models for our imitation. The sentiments that are expressed and the commitment that it illustrated in the beatitudes clearly stand in opposition to the standards of the world. Their radicality may be more than some can understand, but they are traits that are recognisable by those who belong to the family of God, for they are genuine godly traits.

Living the gospel – Calling on the Saints

Saints play an important role in the devotional life of many Catholic people, but it is a role that causes some confusion for other traditions. Whilst all prayer is directed to God, sometimes that prayer may be directed through one of the Saints or a Saint is called upon to pray on behalf of the petitioner. Images of people kneeling before statues of Saints has led to a misconception that Catholics pray to Saints, rather than to God through the Saint. The Litany of the Saints, with its 'Pray for us' response, calls on the Saints to intercede for us.

November Masses for the Holy Souls

Throughout November, we remember and pray for our departed loved ones in a special way. Parishioners are invited to enrol the names of their deceased loved ones on our November Mass List. They will be remembered at Masses offered for the Holy Souls and included collectively in the Prayers of the Faithful at daily Mass throughout November. You may submit names online through our parish website: <https://holyspiritstclair.com.au/holy-souls-the-november-mass-list/>

November Mass Offering envelopes are also available in the church foyer.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
