The Saints in Our Lives - 'Awesome Awareness of the Divine'

Dear Friends,

During November, I have been reflecting on questions of life, death, sickness, suffering, joy and happiness too – the presence of these in those we know – sometimes in those we meet in a hospital ICU or Emergency, at other times in the lives of individuals and families, sometimes close at hand, or afar or through social media.

Many families take time out to remember their 'saints' and 'souls' during November. We Augustinians remember our dead on the 6th and our saints on the 13th. Most of us carry the memories of significant people who knew personal loss in loved ones who had died in world wars, endured what today are common illnesses but for whom recovery was elusive or life was hard and unrelenting – the 'battlers' whose efforts allowed us to live a life of relative comfort today.

Then of course there are the 'heavies', those declared saints by the Church, but who showed that same 'humanita', down-to-earth humanness – Augustine, great sinner and great saint; Monica, faithful mother and constant pray-er; Rita of Cascia, wife, mother, widow, abbess in Cascia; Thomas of Villanova, scholar and bishop, known as 'the Father of the Poor'; Nicholas of Tolentine, noted for his prayers on behalf of departed souls, first Augustinian to be canonised.

Augustinians have served in Australia since 1838 – long before the motor car became commonplace. Travel to remote areas in Victoria and North Queensland was on horseback; simple accidents were common, not to mention rare, tropical diseases… the list of young Irish Augustinians buried in this country… as close as Rookwood Cemetery here in Sydney. Our faith is their gift to us.

I've met a few Augustinian Saints along the way too, ordinary men and women whose simplicity and transparency make us smile and realise how good God is and how great it is to be alive – like Fr John McKniff OSA from the Chicago Province, expelled from Cuba, and contemporary Fr Bill Atkinson OSA, first quadriplegic priest in the history of the Church - both being considered for beatification.

Many possessed that 'humanita', understanding of human weakness, readiness to affirm others not only in the big things but in the small too. In the midst of the human struggle, they managed to love well and others knew it. Those of you who remember the first Augustinian Parish Priest here, Fr Brendan Quirke, will know what I mean.

What did they have in common? I suggest an 'Awesome Awareness of the Divine' – a gift of the Holy Spirit actually. Ultimately, holiness is simply about being at home with the Lord!

Fr Dave

Gospel Mt 25:14-30

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out. The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The man who had received two made two more in the same way. But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. Now a long time after, the master of Week of the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. "Sir", he said "you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." Next the man with the two talents came forward. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." Last came forward the man who had the one talent. "Sir," said he "I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered; so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back." But his master answered him, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered? Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have recovered my capital with interest. So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the five talents. For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but from the man who has not, even what he has will be taken away. As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Reflection by Fr. Michael Tate

God's plan for human happiness is mostly frustrated by a good person burying his or her personality traits, what one might call one's talents, which is really to bury oneself and to become invisible. In the old language of my schoolboy catechism, we should be concerned not just with sins of commission, but with sins of omission–failure of courage, failure to take risks, failure to put everything on the line with the personality and the moment in time given to you and tome. As Shakespeare says in Julius Caesar: 'There is a tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads onto fortune; omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in stillness and in miseries.' The Divine Tide is flowing through human history. We should trust ourselves to that tide which can carry us to the shores of Heaven. Failure to take risks leads to Hellish stillness and miseries. We could pause for a moment to pray that we might use our talents so as to hear: 'Well done, good and faithful servant … come and join in your Master's happiness.

Gospel Focus – Such a talent!

In its original usage, a 'talent' was a measure of weight. It came to designate a weight measure of silver. One talent was roughly equivalent to a labourer's wages for 10 years. It was a huge amount of money! Due largely to the reference in this gospel parable the word eventually came to its more common meaning of a special natural ability. Although in its original use in the gospel, 'talent' meant nothing more than a large sum of money, it is a happy development of language that makes this scripture passage such a favourite of teachers and retreat providers!
