Humble Authority – 'Celebrating Christ the King King!'

Dear Friends,

How magnificent is this Feast of Christ the King which brings to completion the Church's Year. Christ is our King and his life exemplifies the style of leadership envisaged by God – the compassion, humility and love of generous service that invests itself in relationships of justice and community. Human authority and leadership are expressed in many ways and different social systems but Christ is the true exemplar of authority.

This great Feast is a good time to reflect upon the Kingdom of God and the paradoxical kingship of Jesus which evokes the imagery of God as shepherd and protector who, in Jesus, reigns by embracing the lowliest service and concern for the poor. We know how often we sing with great gusto – 'Let us build the City of God....' Of course God does that and we help 'bring forth the fruits of God's Kingdom' – how we participate in Christ's redemptive activity through sharing our personal gifts which are always for the community.

Our celebration puts before us again the challenge of holding on to our Faith and taking a broader view of the Church, not by way of denial of our failures but by embracing our incredible diversity of gifts, living out the amazing Joy of the Gospel and Jesus' extraordinary teaching about Love.

Our classic Gospel reading from Matthew 25 should help keep us grounded. One of Augustine's favourites, it spells out the way to the Kingdom and the sole criterion on which we will be judged – love of neighbour! How do we treat the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the sick, the stranger, those in prison? When we serve them, we serve Jesus himself - the 'preferential option for the poor' and our call to a life that is 'saintly and ordinary'. God's Kingdom is truly about service in the Community where we are bonded together by our Baptism, part of the Human Family and the Church. We help 'bring forth the fruits' of the Kingdom where we are.

Pope Leo writes: 'For the people of God, song expresses invocation and praise. It is the "new song" that the Risen Christ raises to the Father, in which all the baptized participate as one body animated by the new life of the Spirit. In Christ, we become singers of grace, children of the Church who discover in the Risen One the cause of our praise. Liturgical music thus becomes a precious instrument through which we carry out our service of praise to God and express the joy of new life in Christ.' (Homily Christ the King 2025)

Holy Spirit Parish pays respect to the Darug People, the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather.

We are a welcoming parish. No matter your current status in the Catholic Church, family or marital situation, past or present religious affiliation, personal history, age, background, race, color, or sexual orientation—regardless of your self-esteem—you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected by the Catholic Community of Holy Spirit.

If you are not an active member of our community, we encourage you to explore what we have to offer. We serve the community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, and providing comfort to the sick and those in mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organizations, you may be interested in joining one of our many liturgical ministries, such as Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Welcomer, or Choir.

To formally register, please fill out a form that will be entered into our parish data system (all information provided will remain confidential). These forms are available at the parish office or in the church foyer.

To learn more about parish life, you can pick up a copy of our Welcome Newsletter available in the foyer or visit this link on our website https://holyspiritstclair.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/Holy-Spirit-Parish-Welcome-Newsletter.pdf

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the People of God at Holy Spirit Parish is to witness to and to proclaim the word of God, and to pray and celebrate the Liturgy in word and sacraments so that we may be of service to others and form a community of "one mind and one heart on the way to God."

Week of the Our Lord Jesus Christ. King of the Universe. Year A

He will take his seat on his throne of glory, and he will separate men one from another.

Gospel Mt 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the Week of the Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, Year A kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

The eternal destiny of every human being of a certain maturity is determined by decisions made in relation to food and drink for the famished, clothing and housing for those without decent clothing or shelter, visiting those in circumstances which cut them off from life-giving contact with others (the sick and prisoners). Those who provide such assistance, in the words of Pope Francis, touch the wounds of Christ! A Christian can be fully conscious of this, but for non Christians it is possible to do so without any of our awareness or belief. Christ is completely incognito to them: 'When did we ever see you hungry and feed you…?'. We know the doctrine of the Real Presence in the poor and marginalised. Woe betide those of us who ignore this fact of faith. We are on the way to a Hellish state of existence. That is equally possible for those who do not share our faith, but who ignore the plight of the marginalised and continue in a self-absorbed way. We could pause for a moment to pray that we, and many billions of non Christians, may hear the invitation: 'Come you blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

Gospel Focus – The Final Judgment

Often referred to as 'The Final Judgment', this gospel presents an understanding of judgment and punishment that reflects the theology and culture of the first century. It is an image that has continued to dominate Christian art and theology for most of its history: the idea of God sitting in judgment on the final day and weighing up each individual's actions. It is often applied very literally and it is a dominant image of God represented in the media – TV sit-coms and movies often draw on the image. It is a literalist image of God that needs to be challenged. We must remember that the focus of the gospel passage is on the call to action for justice.

SAFEGUARDING is EVERYONE'S responsibility

The Parish and Diocese of Parramatta take the safeguarding of children and vulnerable persons seriously. This includes past or present forms of abuse. Safeguarding those who are vulnerable is part of the mission that Jesus Christ entrusts to our Church. We all have a role to play in safeguarding those who are vulnerable.

If you have any concerns about someone's immediate safety, or you suspect a crime may have or is likely to occur, please contact NSW Police on Triple Zero (000).

Concerns about safeguarding in the Parish and the Diocese may be referred to our Parish Priest:

Fr. Percival Sevare, OSA
Phone: (02) 9670 8222
Email: pp@holyspiritstclair.com.au;

or directly to:

The Office for Safeguarding and Professional Standards
Ph (02) 8838 3419
Email: safeguarding@parracatholic.org.

Information about the Diocese's response and support for safeguarding children and vulnerable people is available at www.safeguarding.org.au.

Thank you for helping keep our parish safe for all!
